ENIGRATION AGENTS.

The bill to prohibit emigration ts from carrying on business itbout first, obtaining a license from the State Treasury, the price of such license being $1,000 an-nually, this being the same as the Georgia law, which has stood the test of the courts there, was taken up. It is Mr. Sutton's bill. He by Mr. Stancill requiring a license st $1,000 annually in each county in which the agent operates. The penalty for the violation of the law is very savere. The bill then ed unanimously .- Raleigh Cor.

It is creditable to speak well of one's country, and if any North Carolinian is inflaenced by the fair presentation of facts to change his residence and transfer his allegiance to another State, he will carry with him the good wishes of the friends he leaves behind.

But the professional emigration agent moves on no such elevated plain. By the most insinuating manner and false representations at F. S. Duffy's drug store. Regular sizes he induces men and women to leave the comforts of home and the associations of friends to be the victims of money sharks and soulless speculators.

It is the duty of the State to protect its people as well from the anares of the despoiler as from violence to their lives and fortunes.

But this is not all. Every people labor for its prosperity. The disorganization of labor means financial embarrassment. And especially is this true with regard to agricultural labor. Emigration agents tenant with the same recklessness golden grain, and the fleecy staple no basis in fact.
