THE Journal: Multum in parvo.

We are indebted to Hon. William L. Wilson, of West Virginia, for valuable public documents. Thanks!

So far as we can judge, the Legislature is doing well. A great many bills have been introduced that will be lost in the committee room, but we trust that we shall witness "the survival of the fittest."

"PUT your own shoulder to the wheel and then call on Hercules." Progress is the order of the day. That State, County or City that does not press to the front with solid and attractive improvements will be distanced in the race.

We are in favor of selecting Railroad Commissioners from our wisest men and giving them an ample salary. A railroad commission in the hands of incompetent men would be the cause of endless confusion and infinite injury.

"BUT do you know," said Napoleon, "what happens to those who always exhibit virtue in fiction? They induce the belief that virtues are never anything but fancies. History has been very often colonnaded by historians themselves."

The February number of the Century Magazine is before us with its usual display of beautiful illustrations and its rich literary treasures. "Talleyrand and Napoleon" is to us the most attractive article, and it alone is worth the price of the magazine.

"It is said that Charles F. Crisp, who during the tilts in Congress last session went for Autocrat Reed with such vim, was an actor in his younger days." "The Crisp Family" played in Georgia and Alabama when "Charlie" was a very little boy. The father was a good actor.

For the first time since its organization the managers of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association have secured the lowest rates on all lines coming into the city of New Berne. One cent a mile. Very low rates to the best fair on the Continent.

The layout of Senators Hear, Edmunds, & Co. on the Force bill and gag business shows that New England is not bossing the Senate much these days. The fresh and nimble West is coming to the front and when she shakes hands with the South the old fossils have to drop to the rear.—Wilmington Star.

When the books are balanced it will be found that Ingalls is not the worst man in the world. He is a sectionalist, but as the precedent pro tem of the Senate he is dignified, courteous and impartial. It is said that he is the bitter foe of bribery in all its forms, and that he refused to permit the use of money to secure his re-election to the Senate.

The Legislature seems to be handling Education judiciously. We are gratified at the passage of the bill to establish an industrial school for girls. We have not seen the bill, and do not know that we shall approve of all its provisions. The subject is a new one, and it is not probable that the bill is perfect. Whatever defects may exist will be subject to future amendments.

We have received an illustrated pamphlet entitled "The World, its History and its New Home." It is very late in the day to inform our readers that the World is a great newspaper, but it is in order to say that it has recently moved into the most magnificent home known to newspaper history. The height of the edifice is 375 1/2 feet, and it was erected at a cost of over $2,000,000. There are in the building 250 apartments. The World itself occupies 79 rooms. Mr. Pulitzer's room is on the second floor of the Dome.

The sermon preached Sunday night at the Church of Christ by Evangelist Davis was an able and profound revelation of the Scripture. The subject "Conversion," was most plainly and minutely discussed from the various standpoints, and commanded the closest attention from the large audience present. The series of meetings are to be continued this week at night.

Over 44,000 Pianos and Organs Placed in Southern Homes.

If any of our readers are thinking of buying a piano or organ they will be interested by the advertisement of Ludden & Bates Southern Music House, of Savannah, Ga. The enterprise and reputation of the house is so well known as hardly to need mention. They have been doing business in every Southern State for upwards of twenty years, and have sold the enormous number of 44,000 instruments. Their prices are always as low as those of the factories—they handle the best known instruments of America—and their terms are the most liberal known. Write them. They will take pleasure in corresponding with you.

Judge H. R. Bryan returned last night from Raleigh.

Miss Rebecca Hill, of Hillsboro, came in for a visit to friends in the city.

More Improvements.

The Fair grounds show off nicely. Whitewash has been freely used on fences, coops, pens and outbuildings; the grand stand has been completed and painted; the president's office (a pretty little building) is nearly finished; the rooms of the main building have been put in good order to receive the exhibits, and the judges stand has been commenced, and as soon as they are completed nearly everything will be in readiness for the Fair. A vast amount of work has been done through the year, thousands of dollars expended, and now we rely on our farmers, merchants, manufacturers, mechanics, artists, sportsmen, fishermen, in fact everybody, ladies, gentlemen and children to fill the space provided with exhibits. Show all you can, come to the Fair yourself and induce your neighbors to do likewise.

Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee.

A meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Craven county was held at the Gaston House, in the city of New Berne, N. C., Dec. 31, 1890.

Upon roll call of townships they were all represented except 1st and 6th. The following named gentlemen were recommended to the Legislature for appointment of Justices of the Peace:

First township, E. A. Askins; 2d, Alfred Gaskins; 3d, G. W. Richardson; 5th, L. W. Gilbert; 6th, Jas. H. Hunter; 7th, John S. Fisher; 8th, Edward S. Street; 9th, L. H. French.

On motion the following resolution was passed:

We respectfully petition the General Assembly of North Carolina and your joint committee to re-district the State, now appointed, to place the county of Craven in such congressional district as will secure to Craven county Democratic representation in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

On motion the following committee was appointed to go to Raleigh to look after the interest of the county of Craven in re-districting the State, and in regard to the criminal court: W. B. Lane, H. H. Perry, L. J. Moore.

Resolved, That the committee be and is hereby instructed to ascertain the conditions upon which this county can be placed in the criminal district with the counties of Mecklenburg and New Hanover, and if it can be so placed at an additional cost to the taxpayers not to exceed $300 to $500 they are instructed in their discretion to advocate the same, provided the clerk of the Superior Court is also the clerk of the Criminal Court, and that the February term of the Superior Court be abolished. No other business meeting adjourned. S. W. LATHAM, Ch'm Pro Tem. S. R. STREET, Sec'y.

The Elections Bill and the Closure Rule.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—As already indicated in the dispatches, it was found that there was a pronounced disposition on the part of a number of Republican Senators again to enter upon what they regarded as a hopeless struggle, in view of the fact that the Republican "bolters" are still presumably of the same mind as they were when they voted to lay the Closure rule aside. Consequently it may be stated with positiveness that the managers of the Elections bill have finally decided to abandon the measure in the interest of important public business remaining to be acted upon. As a result of this decision it is conceded on both sides of the chamber that the necessity of an extra session of Congress disappears. The decision has been communicated to the Democrats.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Extract From Proceedings.

By request we publish the following remarks of Senator Edward Bull in the Senate during the discussion on the resolution not to appropriate any money for the World's Fair at Chicago if the Force bill should become a law:

Mr. Bull said that he was born at the North—he was a Republican, he had inherited it; he was proud of it. The wealthy, intelligent majority of the North were Republicans. Democratic States were so from ignorance, the working class, Irish Catholic and French infidels. He came here in 1889 as a teacher and minister of the gospel. He did not come as a fugitive from justice, but because he thought he had a right to live wherever inclination called him. He had maintained his integrity since he had been in the South. He did not favor the resolution. He never dodged a vote, and if called upon to vote on the Lodge bill he would not doubt do so as on any general election law, but when the roll would be called he would have to make up his mind during the call. He did not believe in negro rule, he never saw a man who did. A crisis was pending—something had to be done. Education and intelligence must accomplish it. He would never draw the color line. He favored education as a basis for exercising the ballot. He had been engaged in teaching moral elevation, endeavoring to advise the negroes to live honest, pay their debts, &c. He feared the passage of the Lodge bill might precipitate the impending crisis on the color line. He strongly favored an educational requirement to vote.

Mr. Aycock had hoped that when the force bill came up in Congress there would not be a white man in the South, Republican or otherwise, who could or would repulse the cause of such a bill. It had been asserted that fraud was prevalent in the counties of Eastern Carolina by Republican Senators. He buried such back as slanderous to the good people of the East. Mr. Aycock asked Senator Bull if he had not said he favored white supremacy. Mr. Bull replied he did. Mr. Aycock asked him if he did not say he had never scratched a Republican ticket. Mr. Bull said he did. Then Mr. Aycock charged Mr. Bull with voting for a negro to represent his congressional district in the United States Congress. Mr. Bull admitted that he voted for the negro Cheatham.

Mr. Wilcox spoke in reply to Mr. Bull's words that Democratic States North were so by ignorant working classes.

Very Mysteriously Disappeared.

And where he has gone no one can tell. The question was often asked yesterday: Have you seen him today? The answer was no. One merchant remarked to another that he saw him board the western bound train about 8 1/2 o'clock. Just as I expected, said the brother merchant, I thought it was getting time for him to buy some bankrupt stock out at 40c., 50c. or 67 1/2c. on the dollar, and I will bet my whole stock of goods that the next time you hear from him he will turn up in Raleigh or some other large town with a stock bought at 30c. on the dollar. Did you notice the little pamphlet lately issued by the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association? I was attracted by a peculiar announcement on page 16 which refers to some fellow whom they choose to identify as "Big Ike." What does it all mean? Who is he, and what is his name? There seems to be a lot of solid truths in what they say about him, but at the same time the article was evidently written in a spirit of malice. Who was the merchant that wrote the article? Any time you can get any light on the subject, please let me know and I will very much appreciate it. Good morning, Jones.

Duffy's

COUGH MIXTURE.

A Prompt and Efficient Remedy for

Coughs, Colds, Croup,

Bronchitis, Sore Throat,

Diphtheria, Catarrh, Etc.

One of the most effective remedies I have ever known for a cough or cold is DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE. It is indeed a rare combination of valuable medicines, arresting at once the progress of a cold and beginning to soothe and heal. Unlike all other cough medicines there is no narcotic or any other unpleasant effect experienced in taking it. I can more than pleased to be able to recommend to my friends here and the public at large every where such a safe, pleasant and effective cure for one of the most prevalent complaints to which human flesh is heir.

THOMAS GATES.

R. N. DUFFY, Proprietor.

Mr. R. N. Duffy has called upon me to say something for his COUGH MIXTURE, now being advertised. The least I can say is that it is a certain cure for COLDS, SORE THROAT, and CROUP. I recognize the mixture as being identical with a prescription I have used in my family with unfailing success, written by one of the most distinguished physicians of North Carolina. I am opposed to patent nostrums, but cheerfully recommend this on account of its scientific origin, and the happy results obtained from it in repeated trials in my family.

MRS. J. K. WILLIS.

R. N. DUFFY, Proprietor.

I have tried DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE and take pleasure in recommending it because I believe it will do all that is claimed for it by Mr. Duffy, the proprietor, who is a druggist of long experience and a gentleman of highest integrity. I do not believe he would advertise anything that was not exceptionally good. This remedy has certainly answered the purpose in my case. I cured a cold, an obstinate cough I had, after I had tried a number of the principal cough remedies without benefit.

W. G. THOMSON.

R. N. DUFFY, Proprietor.

DEAR SIR—It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of your COUGH MIXTURE. I have used it in my family for some time and have found it the best of remedies for Coughs and Colds.

Yours truly,

F. WISSELOW.

R. N. DUFFY, Proprietor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, New Berne, Jan. 21, 1891. I have used DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE in a severe and protracted cold with great benefit, and with pleasure commend it to the public.

C. A. BATTLE.

R. N. DUFFY, Proprietor.

This is to certify I used one bottle of DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE in the case of the "grippe," and it effected a cure. I cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering with severe coughs or colds.
