Did you notice the little pamphlet lately issued by the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association? I was attracted by a peculiar announcement on page 16 which refers to some fellow whom they choose to identify as "Big Ike." What does it all mean? Who is be, and what is his name? There seems to be a lot of soild ruths in what they say about him, but at the same time the article was avidently written in a spirit of malice. Who was the merchant that wrote the article? Any time you can get any light on the subject, please let me know and I will very much appreciate it. Good morning, Jones, Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
