SENATOR-ELECT FELTON of California is a millionaire.

NEW YORK'S new Napoleon of finance is named Silver. Appropriate and popular.

The bill making an appropriation to the World's Fair failed to pass the Tennessee Legislature.

The probability of the inauguration of a third national party is growing beautifully less as the days go by.

SENATOR VOORHEES is of opinion that Gray, of Indiana, or Hill, of New York will be the next Democratic nominee for President.

If it be true that John A. Logan's son has lost $50,000 on a horse race, his truest friends will feel glad that his father is not alive to hear of it.

PLEASE take notice that there is an unusual amount of sickness in Pottsville Pa., attributed to polluted drinking water, resulting from defective sewerage.

The present indications are that Michigan, Nebraska, Wisconsin and possibly Ohio will choose Presidential electors by Congressional districts in 1892.

They tell us that the European war cloud is rising. It is always rising, but no portentate is bold enough to apply a plaster that will bring it to a head.

The enlistment of Indians in the U. S. Army has commenced. They are to serve five years and receive the same pay as the whites and negroes in service now receive.

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a bill to pension disabled Confederate soldiers and their indigent widows, and to appropriate $10,000 for a soldier's home at Little Rock.

The report that Senator Edwards will resign his seat in the Senate gains credence from the fact that he is breaking up his Washington residence and shipping his household effects to his home in Vermont.

SENATOR STEWART said in New York the other day: "If the protectionists persist in linking protection and gold monometallism together the entire West will become friendly to free trade in a night."

The course of industrial empire is southward. Capital, somewhat more cautious than formerly, is seeking profitable fields for investment here. Scarcely a day passes that does not bring the news of the location of some important manufacturing enterprise somewhere in the South.

The Norfolk Virginian says: The Bayards of Delaware, without respect to sex, seem to be invested with wise heads and pure hearts. A dispatch from Wilmington, to be found elsewhere, will, rattle snubbery. The daughter of the superb ex-Senator is to wed a machinist, sensible girl that she is, and the coming husband's ambitions indicate that she has won a man, not a dude.

LOCAL NEWS.

COTTON—New Berne Market—Sales of 11 bales at 8 to 8.40.

A very peculiar Easter egg indeed was exhibited at the JOURNAL office yesterday. Master Ellis Williams can describe it best.

The Easter egg hunt at the Fair grounds yesterday was attended by a large crowd and furnished a great deal of pleasure for the children.

The revival at the Centenary church is growing. The meeting last night was very interesting. The attendance was good, the sermon direct and forcible, and quite a number of persons presented themselves at the altar for prayers. There will be services this afternoon at 4 o'clock and to-night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. O. H. Waters is now turning out at his factory not only carriages, buggies, etc., but wagons, carts and drays also. We saw yesterday a light but substantial cart of his manufacture. It greatly surpasses those in ordinary use. It gives us pleasure to note the increase and growth of manufacturing enterprises in our midst. We hope the day is not far distant when home-made articles will largely supplant imported ones.

Personal.

Mr. G. F. M. Dail left yesterday morning for a business trip to Snow Hill.

Miss Rosa Ricard left for Kenansville to act as bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Pattie Herring to Mr. M. Loftin of Mt. Olive. Miss Ricard will also visit relatives at Kenansville and Warsaw.

Mr. H. C. Wiggins of Succasunna, N. J., who, with his family, came to the city on a pleasure trip before the Fair, expecting to remain until June, was suddenly recalled home yesterday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father with the grip.

Mr. C. K. F. Bates, of Graham, came in on the steamer Neuse of the E. C. D. line, from a visit to relatives at Thompsonville, Conn.

Mr. James Redmond left on the steamer Neuse for a business trip to Baltimore.

Capt. J. W. Etheridge left on the steamer Neuse for a trip on government business. His family accompanied him to Norfolk to visit relatives.

The following delegates to the Union meeting of the Baptist Association returned home yesterday: Rev. J. C. Nelson of Goldboro, Rev. G. L. Finch of La Grange, Rev. F. J. Baker of Fort Barnwell, and Rev. J. H. Vernon and Mr. Charles Whitty of Polkville.

Mr. John Guthrie and his daughter, Miss Daisy, returned from a trip to Chattanooga, Tenn.

The City Election.

The time for this interesting event is drawing nigh and city politics are warming up. Rivals for the candidacy for councilmen from the different wards are entering the arena and being zealously championed by their friends and supporters. We hope that wise selections of good and competent men will be made at the primary meetings and that all will abide by the decisions reached. The nominating convention is the place to work for favorites and those who fail there ought to accept the will of the majority with good grace, and of course they will.

The city is to be congratulated on the efficiency of the past year's administration.

His Honor, Mayor Battle, has at all times upheld the dignity of his office. Firm and wise in dispensing justice, conscientious and unflinching in the discharge of every duty and diligent in working for the city's welfare, he has thoroughly identified himself with all the city's best and most progressive interests. No better man for the position can be found and he will no doubt be re-elected to the office he has so worthily and satisfactorily filled.

The board of council has been composed of intelligent, broad-minded, public spirited gentlemen who have spared neither time nor endeavor in working for the city's advancement and highest interests. While a few have expressed dissatisfaction at some of their acts, in the main they have the commendation of New Bernians for the forward impetus they have given the city.

The little opposition aroused is no discredit to them. Men differ, and it is better to have a board with backbone and energy enough to strive after better things, than to have one composed of men afraid to move for fear some one may disapprove of their actions. Some of the old board refuse to serve another year, but we hope their places will be filled by other progressive men who with those re-elected from the old board will take up and carry forward with zeal the work so nobly begun.

Ten Bodies Recovered.

The Norfolk Landmark says the bodies of ten out of the nineteen men drowned by the wreck of the large British steamship Straithley, at Chickamomico, last week, have been found and buried. Among those still in the sea are the captain and all the officers except those saved.

The life saving crew succeeded in getting a line to the vessel after she struck, but the men on board the ship were so numbed by exposure they were unable to haul it in. Lieutenant Falling was at the station when the ship came ashore and says the suffering of the men was heart-rending and the scene of the wreck terrible to behold. There are not now any signs of the ship to be seen, she having gone entirely to pieces.

The ship was consigned to J. R. Ford & Co., Baltimore. The survivors arrived at Elizabeth City Saturday. They are exhausted, unable to travel, and in very bad condition from exposure.

The Confederate Dead.

Our memorial Association is about to carry into effect its purpose, long since resolved upon, of marking appropriately the graves of all Confederate Dead who may be buried in Cedar Grove cemetery, or in private lots elsewhere if any such there be. This will be done, of course, only in case of those who are buried outside of the Confederate circle.

The Association knows the location of the graves of the persons mentioned below. If the name of any one, who was in the service of the Confederate States, is omitted from the list, the Association will be greatly obliged to his relatives or friend for information as to where his body is interred, that his resting place may have like memorial.

Easter Sunday.

This anniversary of Christ's resurrection from the dead was observed in this city by the Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal and Catholic churches. They were all nicely decorated, and a sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached in the morning at each one.

At the Baptist church the exercises were highly entertaining. The floral decorations were not lavish, but pleasing. At eleven o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Rufus Ford, delivered a very able discourse from the text, "Go quickly and tell Peter and the disciples that He is risen." In the evening Rev. J. T. Baker, of Fort Barnwell, preached an excellent sermon on "The veil of the temple was rent."

A fine sermon was also preached at the Centenary Methodist church by Rev. F. M. Shamburger, of Kinston. The altar contained a profuse supply of magnificent specimens of the choicest plants in bloom at this season. They were tastily arranged and presented a charming appearance. The Easter offerings at this church aggregated $481.00, and there are still other envelopes to be received, which are expected to considerably increase this amount.

The day was much more elaborately observed at the Episcopal church than at the others. The edifice was filled to its utmost capacity. The music was of high order, and well gotten up; the church was handsomely decorated with flowers—banks of them in the windows and the altar abundantly supplied. The rector's sermon was from Romans 6:9—11. The children's festival which was a choral service throughout, was in the afternoon. The entire Sunday school, each class with a lovely banner, containing the name of the class and a suitable motto, formed a procession in the church-yard and preceded by one of the scholars bearing a handsome floral cross marched in the church to the portion reserved for them at the front. The main feature of the celebration was the forming of a large crown, each class supplying a portion of it. Prizes were awarded to a number of the scholars for perfect recital of the church catechism. The exercises were exceedingly interesting but space forbids our particularizing.

The Catholic church was also decorated for the occasion. High mass was celebrated and an Easter sermon preached by Father T. F. Price.

ANOTHER DISASTER!

Eight Unfortunates Swept into Eternity by the Waves.

Almost simultaneously with the terrible news from Chickamomico, comes the sickening and horrifying intelligence that another vessel is wrecked and eight more lives are now haunting in the balance, while a bark has probably gone to pieces.

The wooden bark, Dictator bound from Pensacola, Florida, to Hartlepool, England, loaded with lumber, went ashore Friday during a heavy northeast gale and high tide, which surged, rolled and dashed upon the beach just north of life saving station No. 2, which is in charge of Captain E. Drinkwater and a gallant crew, who immediately made preparations for all the assistance possible. The tremendous surges of the water, while the cyclonic winds whistled with malevolent force, prevented the possibility of reaching the distressed vessel, but the thought of the imminent peril of the crew caused a spirit of unceasing determination to propel and uphold the heroic men in lending every energy to rescue the fast perishing men, who could be seen clinging with the desperation of despair, to the mast and rigging, while the boat continually washed and rocked about by the seas was fast breaking up. This, together with the prevailing wind which threatened to sweep the men into the turbid waters made the scene one of extreme misery.

The life saving station did all in their power to get a line out to the stranded vessel with the gun. A line was floated from the vessel to the shore with a barrel and then a boat came from the ship with part of the crew of four men. Four more were subsequently landed by means of the breeches buoy. The vessel is fast breaking up.

A dispatch received at 11 p. m. says: "Just from the wreck. She has broken up and the wreckage lies the shore. Out of the seventeen souls on board nine are saved."

"Eight persons were lost. "The Dictator is a Norwegian bark. She was on her way into Hampton Roads in distress, leaking, having encountered a series of gales and hurricanes since the 12th of March."

Capt. Jorgensen never left the vessel until she broke up. Then he lashed a life preserver around his wife and lashed his child to his own body. The waves and surf washed both to eternity, and when the Captain was picked up he was insensible.

No men could have done better than the life saving crew. They did all men could do with the facilities at their command." Norfolk—Virginian.

OF INTEREST TO MANY.

Paying the French Spoliation Awards—Aged people Made Happy.

The first payment under the recent appropriation act, making provision for the settlement of the French spoliation claims, was made by the Secretary of the Treasury yesterday. It was in favor of Mary Ann Smith, of Philadelphia, administratrix of John Smith, Jr., and amounted to $18,519.

Mrs. Smith is a lady eighty-nine years old, whose father, John Smith, Jr., was a merchant in Baltimore at the close of the last century, and who, with his brother, General Samuel Smith, a noted member of Congress from the latter city, lost heavily by French captures. The ship Friendship, for losses on which this appropriation was made, was commanded by John Rogers, then in the merchant service and afterwards so conspicuous in our navy as Commodore Rogers.

The second payment is for $7,000, to Mrs. Harriet E. Wilder, of Worcester, Mass., also in her ninetieth year, whose father, Nathaniel Eaton, of Norwich, Conn. lost vessels and cargoes by like French depredations.

Two drafts together for $10,000 are to James F. Breuil of Philadelphia, grandson of Francis Breuil, a friend and contemporary of Stephen Girard. The elder Breuil lost largely by loans to the French Republic which were never repaid, as under the act of 1885 recovery can only be had for illegal captures and condemnations of neutral property.

Two drafts for $8,777.50 are for Jos. T. Brobson, of Philadelphia, grandson of James Brobson and also of Isaac Starr, Jr., of Wilmington, Del. Mr. Brobson's father was the intimate friend of John M. Clayton, of Delaware, the most cogent and able advocate for the justice of these cases prior to Charles Sumner.

A SENSATIONAL CASE.

HENDERSON, N. C., March 26.—H. T. Jenkins, a former resident, and Dan Hall, private detective, both of Atlanta-Ga., were arrested here yesterday at the instance of Col. Wm. H. S. Bur, gwyn, president of the bank of Henderson, charging them with false arrest of him upon a recent visit to Atlanta, and for circulating untrue and damaging reports reflecting upon his character, and calculated to injure his business.

A hearing was held today before Clerk of the Court Perry. The trouble grew out of a sum of money which Col. Burgwyn claims the Henderson Tobacco Company, of which Jenkins was a member, owes him. This Jenkins denies, and brings a counter charge against Burgwyn, alleging fraud and conspiracy, etc.

Hall was in the employment of Jenkins working up the case. Able counsel were employed on both sides, the plaintiff being represented by W. R. Henry, A. C. Zollicoffer, W. H. Cheek and J. H. Bridgers, the defendants by T. T. Hicks of this place, and M. V. Lanier of Oxford. The case was continued, the defendants being held in a bond of $5,000 each, which they have failed to give at this time. Col. Burgwyn gave bond in the sum of $10,000 to answer damages.

Another Testimonial of Prof. Bell's work and "Hair Tonic."

Winchester, Va.

I can without hesitation recommend the services of Hector Bell as a successful hair-dresser and worker in human hair.

He is efficient and skillful in his business and known in this vicinity as a person of polite and respectful deportment, scrupulous in his dealings and unobtrusive in his manners.

I have used with beneficial results his "Bell's Hair Tonic" and can recommend its use to ladies and children as a pleasant and effectual remedy in cleansing and purifying the scalp and strengthening the growth of hair.

MRS. S. T. MOORE.

The Grip in Deadly Form.

DUBUQUE, Ia., March 27.—The grip is prevalent here, and it is estimated that 1,000 cases exist in the city. Many deaths have occurred.

The Prostrating Shocks

Of malarial fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and the prevention of a disease of a miasmatic type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

DUFFY'S

CROUP SYRUP.

Recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy.

DIRECTIONS:

Give for a child two or three years old, one teaspoonful; for a child three months old, ten drops; for a child six months old, twenty drops; for a child twelve months old, nearly half a teaspoonful; and for a child two years old, one teaspoonful. These doses are frequently necessary when the child is prostrated.

This is to certify that I have used DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP in my family for over six months and I believe it to be a most excellent remedy for croup with children, especially as a preventive. Our youngest child had a severe attack of croup about a year ago, and I believe that we were anxious about our physician, but thinking it probable that used DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP and the child has had no marked symptoms of croup since, and I believe it due to the use of the CROUP SYRUP. I now keep a bottle of it at our house, and I cheerfully recommend it to all. R. H. EARNST.
