AGRICULTURAL affairs in East Carolina reported as serious.

THREE new papers make a start this week, one at Asheville, one at Southport and one at Franklinton.

EDWIN BOOTH, the great tragedian, announces his retirement from the stage at the end of the present season, which will be next Saturday.

The Boston Post says: "Mr. Charles A. Dana predicts that if Mr. Cleveland were nominated in 1892 he would lose New York by 50,000 votes. This only was needed to make his calling and election sure."

It is said that Governor Palmer, who has just been elected Senator from Illinois, is a victim of the grip, which threatens to turn into pneumonia. He is 73 years of age, and his sickness is cause of uneasiness.

WHEN the election of Captain and Sergeants of Police was finished Monday night, and it was seen that no new man had been chosen, Editor Weill remarked solo voce: "Well, I guess the policemen on duty tonight will sleep more soundly than usual." Pretty good even for a Solomon.—Wilmington Star.

ITALY having recalled her minister at Washington, the question of the day is, shall we have war? We have no room for the discussion of international law, and only venture the opinion that a better understanding of the situation by the Italian Government will lead to an amicable adjustment of affairs.

The Wilmington Star says that Stanley's manager has cancelled his engagements for the State of Texas. The reason given is that some members of the Legislature expressed their opinions so freely about Henry M. for deserting from the Confederate army that the manager concluded he would not meet with a very enthusiastic reception in that State.

GROVER CLEVELAND celebrated his 54th birthday anniversary last Friday. Ten years ago, when he was 44, Mr. Cleveland was mayor of Buffalo. At 48 he was Governor of New York, and at 49 he was President of the United States. Notwithstanding the Sun's apprehensions concerning Mr. Cleveland's health, the Ex-President was never more robust than today. He will be able to serve another Presidential term and still be on the sunny side of 60.

CERTAIN of our exchanges protest vigorously against the assumption that Mr. Harrison will win the Republican nomination next year. But if Blaine is out of the race, what then? Who else is there that the Republicans will dare to nominate, on the platform that the Harrison administration was not a success? For that is what the refusal to renominate for the presidency its present incumbent would mean.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The annual meeting of the Woman's missionary Society of Centenary M. E. church will be held this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, on in the church.

Through the untiring efforts of Bro. Hilliard of the "Democrat," Scotland Neck is soon to have a military school. Seven thousand dollars have already been subscribed.

We learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Nancy Duffy, wife of Dr. Chas. Duffy, at her home at Catharine Lake, Onslow County, aged about 70 years. Mrs. Duffy was an exemplary christian lady, held in high esteem by all who knew her. She was the mother of three of our prominent physicians, Drs. Charles, Frank and Leinster Duffy. She leaves another son and three daughters. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved relatives.

Miss Addie Jenkins, of Bethel N. C., for twelve years a member of the Methodist church, changed over to the Jewish faith. "After receiving several weeks instructions therein she was received on Tuesday into the full fellowship of that religion, by Rabbi J. L. Meyerberg, at his residence in Goldsboro, her Christian name changed to Sarah, and immediately after married by him to Mr. Julius Rosenbaum, an orthodox young Jewish merchant of Tarboro.

We are glad to learn that the work of extending the Onslow railroad to New Berne will be resumed next week with a large force of hands. A big shipment of rails for the road is soon expected to arrive and the road will be built to Maysville and then to this city as rapidly as possible. Many people of Onslow county are dissatisfied with the road built only as eager for it to be finished that New Berne as New Bernians themselves are. Well, if no untoward circumstance happens, the indications are that we will all soon be gratified by the completion of the road, giving through connection between New Berne and Wilmington.

Meeting of the Fair Association. Every stockholder of the Fair Association should remember the annual meeting tonight and be present. It will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other matters of importance acted upon. Among other questions that will be brought up is the selling of season tickets. So much deception and fraud has been practiced in the past in their use that it is almost certain some change will be made in regard to them.

This is the only meeting the stockholders have, and what is done tonight will regulate the next Fair. Come out and do your part in securing such action on all matters before the meeting as will be promotive of the Fair's continued prosperity.

Death of Col. W. L. Saunders.

Col. William L. Saunders, Secretary of State, died at Raleigh, Thursday, April 23, 1891, aged about 60 years. For ten days his death was expected at any time, he was so seriously ill. He will be buried at Tarboro this evening.

Col. Saunders was a patriotic son of the old North State and a true worker in her cause. He was a gallant officer in the Confederate army. He was lieutenant colonel of the 40th regiment in which, and in other commands, he saw much active service, and was wounded several times, once very severely.

After the war he did valiant service for the Democratic party as editor of the Wilmington Journal. He was appointed by Gov. T. J. Jarvis to the office of Secretary of State in 1879, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Maj. Jos. B. Englehard, and he has efficiently filled that responsible position ever since to the credit of both himself and the State. While holding this office he also collected, edited and published ten volumes of the Colonial Records of North Carolina, bringing the documentary history down to about the end of 1776. The completion of this work was the ambition of his life. It is invaluable and an enduring monument to his memory. He performed these labors while suffering from the long and painful illness which finally ended his life.

We are told it was his intention to collect also the documentary history of North Carolina since it became a State. It is greatly to be regretted that he was not spared to accomplish this desire of his also.

Col. Saunders was an accomplished, able, good and true man, and leaves in his character an example well worth following.

Personal.

Mrs. Iola H. Gates left yesterday for her home near Raleigh from a visit to relatives in the city.

We are glad to see our former townsmen, Messrs. T. J. and F. G. Mitchell, now of Henderson. They arrived last night for a visit to their relatives in the city.

Mr. B. F. Thomas, who was long engaged as a compositor in the JOURNAL office left to take employment in Raleigh. We wish him success.

MISS BREWER'S SCHOOL.

At Perfection, Craven County N. C. EDITOR JOURNAL:—As educating the masses is now the all-absorbing theme, I thought I would report what we are doing here. Educating the masses, is one of the cardinal principles of the Alliance, we hear it from the press, from the hustings, from everywhere until our noble old State, led by her worthy Educators seems to throb with enthusiasm. Last, though not least in this devoted band of philanthropists stands Craven county's very clever and competent Superintendent, who is giving his best energy of a long scholarly life to this great cause. Our County stood at the head of the list once, when Mr. Calvin Wiley, was superintendent of the State, and such men as Mr. George S. Attmore, Wm. B. Wadsworth, John T. Lane and F. P. Latham gave unstintingly their time, talent and energies, to move this county on a higher plain, it is to be hoped she may soon occupy again, that most enviable position. I am deploring. I want to tell about our School. It was my privilege to attend the close of a five months school taught for us by Miss Lula Brewer, of Craven county. The progress of the children was satisfactory, the dialogues, recitations etc., were well rendered. I was greatly astonished at the embryo dramatic talent displayed by these little common place boys and girls, but trained by their patient and skillful Teacher they very pleasantly astonished and entertained their parents and friends. Like the rugged marble in the quarry, we do not know the beauty that is in the dormant minds until brought out by the manipulations of the skilled artist. I do not like to individualize when all did so well, but I must mention Miss Jeva Prescott, in her rendition of the Curfew shall not ring tonight, admirably done, also Miss Nannie Ivy, Zellar Davis, Ada Daugherty, Bettie Avery, and Masters James and Gordon Avery did exceedingly well. Miss Brewer is a faithful painstaking teacher; I hope we may secure her services again; but she has so many personal attractions, that I fear some appreciative young man will preclude the possibility, I must mention the soul-stirring music led by Mr. Francois of Virginia.

DIED. Wednesday, April 1st at her residence at Maple Grove Onslow county, Mrs. Jane Mills, aged 76 years.

KING HUMBERT THREATENED BY THE MAFIA.

Minister Fava's Reason for Resigning.

THE MAFIA THREATENS THE KING'S LIFE.

BERLIN, April 1.—Advices from Rome say that it has been learned there that mysterious Mafia warnings have been conveyed to King Humbert, demanding that full and efficient protection be at once secured to Italian residents abroad. It is believed that the action of the Italian government in so unhesitatingly recalling its Minister to the United States, Baron Fava, is owing to the fear of the Ministry that unless some decided course was at once adopted in the premises a cabinet crisis, or the commission of some overt act must inevitably grow out of the present condition of popular feeling.

BARON FAVA'S REASONS FOR RESIGNING. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.—In his note to secretary Blaine announcing his resignation Baron Fava informs the Secretary that as the United States government has not given assurance that the murderers of Italian subjects acquitted by American magistrates and murdered in prison, while under the immediate protection of the authorities of New Orleans, would be brought to justice, the Italian government has found itself under the very painful necessity of showing openly its dissatisfaction by recalling the Minister of its majesty, King Humbert from a country where the Italian representatives is unable to obtain justice. Baron Fava will leave for Italy in a short time.

EX-SECRETARY BAYARD'S OPINION. WASHINGTON, Del., April 1.—In regarding the recall of Baron Fava, ex-Secretary of the State Bayard said that the affair was ill-advised and hasty. Italy should have waited until the completion of the investigation of the New Orleans trouble. "Nothing has developed which would warrant a war between this country and Italy. I have not fear of any trouble."

New York's Increased Death-rate. New York, March 31.—The record of deaths since noon yesterday up to noon to-day is 145. There are 190 policemen on the sick list to-day.

Death of a Noted Preacher. LYNCHBURG, Va., March 31.—Rev. Dr. John E. Edwards, one of the ablest and best known Methodist ministers in Virginia died here tonight, aged 77 years.

Chicago's Alarming Death-rate. CHICAGO, March 31.—There were 200 deaths reported at the health office yesterday, grip, pneumonia and kindred diseases being the principal causes. It was one of the largest records for a single day the office has ever received. The grip and complications of the grip and pneumonia are apparently becoming more prevalent. The number of deaths reported yesterday are almost one-fourth as large as the entire list of last week and was just one-fourth of the number of deaths of the week before.

Very Mysteriously Disappeared.

And where he has gone no one can tell. The question was often asked yesterday. Have you seen him today? The answer was no. One merchant remarked to another that he saw him board the western bound train about 3 1/2 o'clock. Just as I expected, said the brother merchant, I thought it was getting time for him to buy some bankrupt stock out at 40c, 50c, or 60c, on the dollar, and I will bet any whole stock of goods that the next time you hear from him he will turn up in Raleigh or some other large town with a stock bought at 50c, on the dollar. Did you notice the little pamphlet lately issued by the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association? I was attracted by a peculiar announcement on page 16 which refers to some fellow whom they choose to identify as "Big Ike." What does it all mean? Who is he, and what is his name? There seems to be a lot of solid truths in what they say about him, but at the same time the article was evidently written in a spirit of malice. Who was the merchant that wrote the article? Any time you can get any light on the subject, please let me know and I will very much appreciate it. Good morning, Jones.

DUFFY'S

CROUP SYRUP.

Recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy.

DIRECTIONS:

For a two year old child three years old, one teaspoonful; for a child three months old, ten drops; for a child six months old, twenty drops; for one twelve months old, nearly half a teaspoonful—repeating these doses frequently if necessary until relief is procured.

This is to certify that I have used DUFFY'S Croup Syrup in my family for over six months and I believe it to be a most excellent remedy for croup with children, especially as a preventive. Our youngest child had a severe attack of croup about a year ago, inasmuch that we felt anxious about its recovery, but was successfully treated by our physician, but thinking it probable that other attacks might follow we frequently used DUFFY'S Croup Syrup and the child has had no marked symptoms of croup since, and I believe it is due to the use of the Croup Syrup, and we now keep a bottle of it at our house at all times, and I heartily recommend it to all.

Also very effective in relieving coughs and colds. PREPARED AND SOLD BY
