THE wheat crops of the country are reported to be remarkably good and it is beleived that the crop this year will be twice as large as that of last year. If so prices will decline and the financial condition of the farmers of the west will continue to be embarrassed.

IT is evident that a sharp antagonism is growing up between Harrison and Blaine. It is a common saying that anything is fair in war, but it does not appear generous in the President to claim in the Italian affair.

IT may not be denied that the President has made some capital by his extended trip through the country. Every show that travels draws the crowd and is applauded by the multitude, but it is questionable whether Mr. Harrison has gained a single vote, in the electoral college, for the next Presi-tell. dential candidate of the Republican
