THE Democrats of Kentucky have nominated John Young Brown for Governor.

THE wounding of the Czarowitz, of Kussia, in Japan has been explained. He wore his boots to church, and a policeman on duty struck him with his sword for having profaned the temple.

THE National Union Convention, assembled to form a new political party, is now in session at Cincinnati. Despite the fact that it is styled a convention, it is apparent that the gathering will be nothing more than a big mass meeting.

THE New York Herald is out for Blaine for the next President.
That kills Blaine as dead as a door nail. The support of the Herald is as fatal as the favor of the Sun.
It is in order for the Herald and the Sun to exchange condolences.

CITY improvements were defeated at the late election, in New Bern, but the good people of the beautiful Elm City do not intend to relax their efforts in the cause of progress. Step by step the advance will be made as steadily as the march of invincible legions.

CHARLOTTE, beautiful Charlotte does nothing half way. The anniversary of the Mecklingburg Declaration of Independence, will be celebrated today with imposing ceremony and magnificent display.
Every town in North Carolina should be represented, and the whole State be ablaze with patriotic fires.

THE North Carolina Intelligencer has been consolidated with the Raleigh News and Observer, and Mr. Jernigan will be associated with Captain Ashe in the News and Observer. The consolidated paper will be one of the best in the South, and should have a place in every home in North Carolina.
When ability, integrity, industry and sound principles unite, success is inevitable.

In the Episcopal Convention now in session in Asheville the irrepressible question of Woman's Rights has been raised. The report of the committee on canons was against allowing women to participate in and vote in parish meetings, and Bishop Lyman expressed his approval of the report but Woman's Rights would not down at his bidding. Whatever opinions may exist as to the sphere of woman's work, all must admit that she is a powerful agent in the civilization and evangelization of the nations. In the great day of assize her crown will sparkle with imperishable jewels.

MR. T. B. KINGSBURY, of the Messenger, has been invited to deliver a lecture upon "Classical Literature" before the Teachers' Convention to meet at Morehead in July next. He has also been asked to prepare an essay upon "North Carolina Literature" for a publication to see the light probably next year. His engagements are such that he is compelled to decline these requests as he has several others that would draw heavily upon his time. A daily journalist has no time for outside work. Mr. Kingsbury appreciates the honor done him and regrets his inability to comply.—Wilmington Messenger.

scared.

Death of Dr. Philip Koonce.
A correspondent writes us that Dr.
Philip Koonce died at his home, near Stella, Carteret county, last Friday, May 15th, of "la grippe," in the 74th year of his age. He was one of the best and most upright men in all things, a true Christian member of the M. E. Church South. He lived and died loved and respected by all who knew him—and we reckon not one man in Carteret, Jones, Onslow or surrounding counties but what knew or had heard something about Dr. Philip Koonce.
He leaves six children—one in Florida—to mourn his death. His wife had left him for the better world about a year ago.
His funeral was preached at his home last Sunday by Rev. J. L. Keene, pastor there, to a large concourse of people, and his body was peacefully laid beside the remains of his beloved wife, there to rest quietly until the resurrection morn. Peace to this good man's ashes.

Council Programme Today.
The Episcopal Council will assemble and organize in the church this morning at 10 o'clock. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. Robert Strange of Wilmington at 11 a. m. It will be followed by the Holy Communion.

The Council will reassemble in the afternoon at whatever hour it decides, and in the evening at 8:30.

Miss Julia C. Emory, General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, is expected to deliver an address to the ladies in the afternoon at the chapel on George street, at five o'clock, and to deliver a public address after the evening service at 8:30.

Leaders of the Mafia Arrested.
NEW ORLEANS, May 17.—Henry Petars, a stevedore, went to the city hall on Friday complained to Mayor Shakespeare that the Provenzano were interfering with him on the levee and intimidating his laborers. He was advised to make an affidavit against Pro-venzano. The affidavit was made and held under $300 bonds. The Provenzanos, it was charged by Rev. Father Manorita, were at the head of the Mafia Society.

Pollockville Items.

Mr. M. N. Harriett has made some improvements on his steam sawmill.
Mr. Harriett also is painting his dwelling house. We think Pollockville will come yet.

Mr. Charles Whitty, who has been North for some time, has returned.
We understand Mr. Whitty will move to Goldboro, where he will continue to merchandise. We all wish him success.

The young people of our town are expecting a good time in a few days at Prof. E. M. Koonce's commencement.
There will be lots of young men and girls here at that time. Come, all of you, pretty girls, and catch you a sweetheart.

Since the rain potatoes are looking fine. We think, with the right seasons, Mr. D. S. Barrus will make sixty or sixty-five barrels to the acre. They are the best we have seen this year. Hope he will get a good price for them.

Rev. Mr. McMullen was with us on last Sunday and preached one of the ablest sermons we have heard in a long time. He is a smart man in the right place. Success to him. Also C. E.
Foy of your city was with us; hope they will both come again soon.

Piney Grove Items.
Our farmers are getting very uneasy about their cotton crops. Some have planted the second time, while others cannot get seed to plant.

Our Sunday school is flourishing yet, notwithstanding the warm weather.
We hope it may continue on in a flourishing condition until Christmas comes again and see if Santa Claus won't visit us again.

Rumor has it that there are one or two weddings on hand. Our King says he is going to crown his Queen next Wednesday evening. We hope he may have a fine day to take his Queen home. From all appearances it seems that he has had a good deal of trouble and vexation. We wish them much success in life.

SWANSBORO ITEMS.
We are having some sickness now,
"la grippe" principally.
E. Bert Laughlin came home from school last week. He has been at Graham Academy for the last session.

Rev. W. Q. A. Graham, from Mar-shallburg, was in our place last week and preached one of his excellent sermons.

A grand colored excursion came off last Saturday on White Oak river in the interest of the school for the colored race here.

Hook and line fishing the sport now.
Clams are nice, crabs are very fat, and sailing and rowing is the pleasant pastime with the young ladies and gentlemen.

Master Dave Ward, who out his foot so badly some time back, is out again but on crutches. He is mending slowly but will not be able to walk in a long time yet.

You are right, friend Stella, when you say Swansboro beats you in marrying. Don't think you can hardly catch up with us this year; we have several more pretty girls here yet, and you have some up there, too, for we saw them last Sunday.

We have to chronicle the death of Miss Katie Venters, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Venters, of Gum Branch, aged about 17 years. What a pity, it seems, for one so young and lovely as Katie was to be snatched away from earth and parents, as well as friends, so sudden. (On Sunday, May 10th, Katie went to church as usual, was well and lively as ever she was, came home, and next day was well until late in the day, when she was taken sick and died on Tuesday, May 12th. How sad! but death is no respector of persons. We deeply sympathize with her parents, for we knew Katie well—knew her to be a good girl, and we know it is very hard for her parents and friends to give her up.

We think Mr. Charlie M. of Stella, the popular young man associated with the Terry mill works there, has a good way of winning the good graces of the fair sex. We saw him a few days ago, and we think he intends to do something some of these days. Maybe his will be one of the finest items of interest for Mr. "Stella" to report soon.
Much good luck to you, Charlie, and the others whom I met also, one Mr.
J. G. I. and another Mr. T., we believe, not excluding the lovely Misses Emma and Lottie. We hope to meet you all again under more favorable circumstances, and please don't forget to keep them awake, Charlie.

A Tragedy in Wilmington—Subse- quent Events.

WILMINGTON, May 17, 1891.—Yesterday about noon an omnibus driven by a colored man ran over and killed a twelve year old white boy, the only child of a widow lady. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that careless driving was the cause and the driver was held to await the action of the grand jury.

A groundless report was circulated among the colored people that an attempt would be made to lynch the prisoner and they gathered in hundreds during the night and became so insulting and riotous that they were beyond the control of the police. Near midnight the military were called out and dispersed them. Twelve or fifteen of the more turbulent negroes were arrested and nearly all were found to be armed with pistols.

A Sea Sick Passenger.
On the ocean, cares little about a storm.
He is positively indifferent whether he is washed overboard or not. But, set right by a wineglassful or two of Hos-teter's Stomach Bitters, he feels renews interest in his personal safety. This fine corrective neutralizes in trackish water—often compulsorily drank on shipboard—to the grievous detriment of health—the pernicious impurities which give rise to disorders of the stomach, lover and bowels. To the mariner, the tourist, the Western pioneer and miner, the Bitters is valuable as a means of protection against malaria, when its seeds are latent in air and water. To the effects of overwork, mental or manual, it is a most reliable antidote, and affords great and speedily felt relief and vigor.

amounting in all to $10,000.

Outbreak of Smallpox at Knoxville KNOXVILLE, 17.—A second case of smallpox was reported to the board of health tonight. It is in a house at least one mile from the first case. Neither has been in contact with smallpox patients, and physicians are unable to account for either one.

DUFFY'S
CROUP SYRUP.
Recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy.

DIRECTIONS:
Dose for a child of three years old, one teaspoonful for a child three months old, ten drops for a child less than three months old, for an adult one tea-spoonful daily, nearly half a teaspoonful after each dose, if necessary, in a glass of water.
The syrup is not to be used DUFFY'S croup syrup, but for all croup, for over six months and I have used it for the most excessive croup for children with children, especially as a preventive. Our youngest child had a severe attack of croup about a year ago, however, that we felt anxious about its recovery, but was successfully treated by our physician, but thinking it probable that other attacks might follow, we frequently used DUFFY'S Croup Syrup, and I cheerfully recommend it. I have used it for all croup since, and I believe it is due to the use of the Croup Syrup, and now I use a bottle of it at our house at all times, and I cheerfully recommend it.
