Do not confound the so-called Third Party with the Farmers' Alliance. They are very different.

MRS. NAVARO (Mary Anderson) writing to a New York friend, says that she is "happy in thinking" that she is forever done with the glare and publicity of stage life.

"The Norfolk liquor men have decided to form an association to prevent the selling of liquor on Sunday, and steps are being taken to that end." Good! Honor to whom honor is due.

The Knoxville Tribune says: "When the South undertakes to build a monument she builds it, whether it be in deeds or marble. The chances are that the Jeff Davis monument will be finished before the Grant monument in New York is well underway."

THE JOURNAL joins the Messenger in endorsing the sentiment of the Charleston News and Courier when it says: "Away with all side issues, away with all the patent remedies of the economical cranks and irresponsible leaders. Up with the flag of Grover Cleveland and pure Democracy."

PRESBYTERIANISM cannot be held responsible for the disgraceful scenes presented in the Reformed Presbyterian Synod at Pittsburg, Pa. That Presbyterian ministers called each other liars and black guards affords another illustration of the truth that the most excellent organizations contain unworthy members.

HE who has acquired the art of making the best of everything will make everything the best, and will hence, relative to his thoughts and feelings, have the best all the time. He will of course be a contented and happy man, no matter what may be the environments of his earthly condition.—N. Y. Independent.

A UNITED press dispatch dated Columbia S. C., June 2d says: "Hon. Ben. Terrell, National Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance, and Governor Tillman addressed a large meeting of farmers at Abbeville today. Gov. Tillman condemned the Sub-treasury scheme in unmeasured terms and predicted that it would split the Democratic party."

THE State Chronicle is now issued in eight page form and is otherwise much improved. It is published daily and weekly by The Chronicle Publishing Co., Raleigh, N. C. The directors are Josephus Daniels, George P. Pell, H. B. Hardy, C. J. Betts, Josephus Daniels editor. The JOURNAL offers congratulations and best wishes.

We have no fear of a third party. The JOURNAL has repeatedly shown that the existence of a third party, with its Presidential candidates in 1892, would result in the election of the Democratic ticket either by the Electoral College or the House of Representatives. There is no need of a Third Party. "Reform" is the slogan of the Democracy. A drilled army is always more reliable than an undisciplined militia.

ENTERTAINMENTS are to be given by the Ladies Memorial Association all over the South on the 18th instant for the benefit of the Jefferson Davis monument fund. North Carolina ought to contribute largely to that fund. While Mr. Davis loved the whole South with absolute idolatry, he often took occasion to compliment North Carolina, according to her people the purest patriotism and to her soldiers the highest gallantry.

Classical Music Concert.

The commencement exercises of the Music Department of the Collegiate Institute, at the Opera House, 8-30 o'clock tonight, will be of a very interesting nature. The programme which is to be given, by the students of the music school, under the efficient direction of Prof. F. E. Morton, is of a high classical order.

The art of music has an acknowledged importance in this age. In a scientific aspect it embraces the fundamental principles of the elocutionary art. The chief aim of the director has been to impart such a theory and system of schooling to the different classes of pupils as to lead their minds to an application of musical expression. Thus higher grades of work have been attained, and the power of executing music expressively—which cannot be communicated nor acquired perceptively—made the outgrowth of their own conception of the principles advanced.

The refined sentiment of the pieces and the elevating character of the music will appeal to a people ever ready to place a right estimate upon the influences which should pervade the classroom.

Important Trade Name Decision.

Judge Thayer of the United States Circuit Court at St. Louis, has recently handed down an opinion and granted a perpetual injunction against the defendants in the case of The Hostetter Co. against the Bruggeman Reinart Distilling Co., alias 'Gold Spring Distilling Co.' prohibiting the advertising, manufacturing or selling of any article of stomach bitters either in bulk, by the gallon or otherwise, or in any way making use of the name "Hostetter" except in connection with the sale of the genuine bitters, which are always sold in bottles securely sealed, and also prohibiting the sale of any bitters in bulk, though the name "Hostetter" be not used, but the suggestion made to the purchaser that he can put them in the empty Hostetter bottles and purchasers would not discover the difference. His decision supports the Hostetter company in the extensive use of the name "Hostetter" in connection with either the manufacture or sale of stomach bitters in any manner or form whatsoever, and firmly establishes its ownership in the same as a "Trade Name."

DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP.

Recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy.

DIRECTIONS: Dose for a child two or three years old, one teaspoonful for a child three months old, two drops; for a child six months old, twenty drops; for one twelve months old, nearly half a teaspoonful—repeating these doses frequently if necessary until relief is procured.

This is to certify that I have used DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP for a child three months old, and I believe it to be a most excellent remedy for croup with children, especially as a preventive. Our youngest child had a severe attack of croup about a year ago, inasmuch that we felt anxious about its recovery, but was successfully treated by our physician, but thinking it probable that other attacks might follow we frequently used DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP and the child had no marked symptoms of croup since, and I believe it is due to the use of the Croup Syrup, and we now keep a bottle of it at our house at all times, and I cheerfully recommend it to all. E. H. BARNUM.

Also very effective in relieving coughs and colds. PREPARED AND SOLD BY H. S. DUFFY, NEW BERNE, N. C. Wholesale Agents: McKesson & Robb, 91 Fulton Street; Wm. H. Schefflin & Co., 170 William Street, New York City.
