EVERY virtuous and wise being is in himself a proof of immortality.

No matter how Baccarat trials ends Sir William Gordon-Cumming will marry rich and beautiful Miss Florence Garner, of New York.

On June 4th, the net surplus in the Treasury was $5,000,000, a smaller sum than has been in the Treasury within the memory of the oldest official.

THE Prince of Wales has been placed in a most unenviable position by his connection with the baccarat case. He gave his testimony in a halting, hesitating way that damaged him more than any party to the suit.

THE South bears off the honors at West Point Military Academy. The five highest in the graduating class are John S. Sewell, of Kentucky; Spencer Crosby, at large; Charles P. Echols, of Alabama; James F. McIntee, of Maryland, and J. J. Morrow, of Pennsylvania. The cadet who stands highest in tactics and discipline is Charles D. Hine, of Virginia.

THE Wilmington Star says: "This is a red letter week for the immigrant ships. Monday there were landed in New York 5,390 immigrants, Tuesday 4,136 Italians were landed, in addition to 2,471 who arrived the day before but couldn't land; Wednesday brought 2,665 more. Here is a total of 14,662 in three days, which ought to be satisfactory at least to the fellows who are running the immigrant business."

A BUSHEL of wheat will buy twice as much sugar, a third more tea and coffee, a fourth more cotton goods, woollens and dress materials than it would a year ago. The same is true of rye, corn, barley, potatoes and truck. Tobacco and cotton also will command good prices in market at the close of the year, while the demand will be equal to the peanut, rice, sugar and fruit crops of the South. The necessities of life have not greatly changed in price, except food products, and the farmer will be enabled to purchase what he consumes at the old figures, while his income will be measurably increased.—N. Y. Herald.

CHRISTIANITY is pre-eminently a spiritual religion. It is a dispensation of spiritual truth. It originated in the life and doctrine of a spiritual teacher. Christ came on a spiritual mission, to do a spiritual work, to establish a spiritual kingdom and to bring to man spiritual deliverance. Christ did not come to reveal to man the truths of physics, chemistry, geology, physiology or mental philosophy, but the fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man, the divine law of love and salvation by overcoming evil with good. This is a revelation of spiritual truth, the proclamation of a spiritual law, and the building up in human hearts and human homes of a spiritual kingdom. The gospel is the dispensation of the spirit. The knowledge of salvation comes by the witness of the spirit. The experimental knowledge of God is spiritual life. The elements and graces of Christian character are the fruits of the spirit. The consolations of religion are spiritual consolations. The comforter that Christ has sent into the world is the divine spirit of truth; the divine seal that God places on his people is the work of this spirit.—The Universalist.

The tax listers and assessors of the city are busy at work, and if they continue as they have started a big change in the state of affairs may be expected when their final report is made. In one way or another a great deal of property in Craven county is not listed at all, and a large proportion of that which is recorded is much under its true valuation.

Collegiate Institute Musicals.

Seldom indeed is a school entertainment possessed of such superior merit as the one by the music department of New Berne Collegiate Institute to which our people had the pleasure of listening Friday night.

The opening overture "Semiramide," by Misses Emma Katie Jones and Etta Nunn, the instrumental solos, "Manchega," by Miss Mollie Winfield, "Valse des Fleurs," by Miss Emma Katie Jones; "Waldstein Sonata," by Miss Rosa Dail, and "Pere Gyn," by Miss Mamie Meadows and "Faust," by Miss Etta Nunn were faultlessly and fascinatingly executed by these expert and charming young ladies, and the vocal solos by Mr. John Daniels were splendid.

The rendition of the overture "William Tell," by four young ladies and several fine selections by the New Berne Choral club was excellent, and the closing serenade "Sleep Well," by the club was a delightful finale to the pleasures of the evening. The exercises throughout were high-class in their character and reflected great credit upon Prof. F. E. Morton, the musical director and his skilled assistant Miss Nellie Walker.

Not the least delightful event of the evening was the award of the gold medal to Miss Rosa A. Dail, the pupil who had made the greatest progress in this department during the scholastic year and the presentation speech by Mr. Henry Blount; the witty, self-possessed, well-informed and jovial editor of the Wilson Mirror. His address abounded in anecdotes and was exceedingly humorous; elegant and highly pleasing to the audience. A recitation from Mr. Blount later on in the exercises was very entertaining, created great merriment and elicited tremendous applause.

"How much a man is like old shoes;
For instance, both a sole may lose;
Both have been tanned. Both are made tight
By cobblers. Both get left and right.
Both need a mate to be complete,
And both were made to go on feet.
With shoes the last is first; with man
The first shall be the last; and when
The shoes wear out they're men dead too.

They both need healing, oft are soles—
And both in time turn all to mould.
They both are trod upon, and both
Will tread on others, nothing loath.
Both have their ties, and both incline
When polished, in the world to shine.
They both peg out and would you choose
To be a man or be his shoes?"
