MANY men owe grandeur of their lives to their tremendous difficulties.—Spurgeon.

IRISH sentiment is greatly on the increase now that Irish potatoes bring five and a half a barrel.

The North Carolina Teachers Assembly will meet at Morehead City, N. C., on June 16th and continue in session two weeks. Attractions greater than ever.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD, Canadian premier died last Saturday. It is supposed that Sir Charles Tupper will succeed to the leadership of the Government.

The English press is notified that scandal mongers will be prosecuted in future. Heretofore the royal family have permitted assaults to pass unnoticed, but hereafter the man who "throws mud" at a prince will do it at his hazard.

The trustees of the University of North Carolina at the commencement just passed made the Bible an eclectic study and abolished the commencement ball. In other words it has driven the works of the devil out of the University.—Charlotte Chronicle.

"A GREAT deal has been said within the past week or two about the sale of the Blackwell Durham Ball Tobacco works to the American Tobacco Company. It is true as offer has been made, but up to this writing it has not been accepted. This statement of the case is made by Mr. Julian S. Carr himself.

"THE 'angry tree,' a woody plant, which grows from ten to twenty five feet high, and was formerly supposed to exist only in Nevada, has recently been found both in Eastern California and in Arizona. If disturbed, this peculiar tree shows every sign of vexation, even to ruffling up its leaves like the hair on an angry cat, and giving forth an unpleasant, sickening odor.

THE conviction seems to be settling in the minds of the Republican leaders of the second rank that the party will not be able to take Blaine for its candidate in 1892, and that it will not take Harrison. The leaders of the first rank—Clarkson, Dudley and Quay, for example—yielded to this conviction long ago. As a matter of course there will continue to be Blaine talk and Harrison talk, but the talk of each kind will undoubtedly be greatly modified as time goes by and the number of "wise ones" increases.—Wil. Review.

It was but thirty-three short years of a short lifetime that he lived on earth; it was but for three broken and troubled years that he preached the gospel of the kingdom; but forever, even until all the moons have been closed, and the earth itself, with the heavens that now are, have passed away, shall every one of his true and faithful children find peace and hope and forgiveness in his name, and that name shall be called Emmanuel, which is, being interpreted, "God with us."—Archdeacon Farrar.

WE commend the following paragraph from the Washington Post: The patriotism of 1891 is the patriotism of 1861, with due recognition of the thirty years between. In a word the true patriotism is the patriotism of to-day. This Union is now welded in bonds stronger and more indissoluble than it has ever known. The foes who would strike it down are not the men who wore the gray. They are not these who rear columns in honor of the leaders of the Lost Cause. Nor is there longer reason to harp upon the North's oppression of the South. Sectionalism is dead; bourbonism is dying; the war is over. North and South, East and West is this common aspiration: Let us have peace.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Howard—Fine feathers, etc.
W. B. Lane—Execution sale.

The Coast District Ministerial meeting of Methodist Episcopal Church will convene at Hatteras M. E. Church, July 2d, 9 a.m. E. J. Winkler, Presiding Elder.

Miss Fannie Holland's music class preparatory to suspending work for the summer gave a very pleasant rehearsal at the residence of Mr. L. H. Cutler, which showed marked proficiency in its members.

The closing exercises of the New Berne Graded School will take place on Friday, in the old Academy building, with recitations, declamation and dialogue. The regular school hours, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., will be observed.

The steamer Trent brought in a shipment of potatoes yesterday from Kershaw, among which was a sample lot sent the JOURNAL. They were raised by Mr. R. D. Hodges, and are of extraordinary size and fine proportion. Mr. Hodges raised about a thousand barrels of them, and received good prices.

The news from truck still continues cheering, Palmer says: "Beans—thirds green $1.00 to $1.75, wax $1.00 to $1.50—half barrels $1.75 to $2.00; potatoes $5.00 to $5.50." F. S. Gibson of Philadelphia quotes potatoes firm and heavy demand at $5, and T. H. Kepner & Co., of Baltimore, $5 to $5.50.

The various churches of the city have agreed to omit their regular prayer meeting in order to give their congregations an opportunity to attend the services at the Methodist church and hear the Baccalaureate sermon of the Collegiate Institute which will be preached by Dr. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist church of Raleigh.

A sudden stopping of the truck train yesterday, when about seven miles from New Berne, caused Mr. Clinton Smith, who was standing up billing truck, to fall and sustain such painful injuries about his hip, that he was brought back to his home in this city by an engine that was passing. Examination, however, showed that no bone was broken, and it is hoped that Mr. Smith will soon be around as usual.

The Baptist picnic was well attended. They got back soon after eight o'clock last night, and all report having had a delightful time. It was raining when they arrived at Morehead, so arrangements were made and dinner taken in the large hall over Mr. Daniel Ball's store. The clouds soon passed away, however, and the excursionists gave themselves up to the various pleasures abounding at the seaside—some sailing, some visiting the surf (a number went in), some went over to Beaufort, others to the banks, etc., and not an incident occurred to mar their enjoyment.

Seeing a supply of large closely trimmed hard headed cabbages exposed for sale at J. D. Barfield's we inquired whom they were raised by. The answer was "by Mr. Crockett." We had the first one that came handy weighed and it tipped the scale at 19 pounds. These were a summer variety. A few years ago every body in this vicinity would have said it was impossible to engage in cabbage culture successfully. Now we export many thousands of boxes of fine ones, the season extending from January to June, and if the improvement keeps on we will soon beat the North on them both in size and extent of the season.

Collegiate Institute—Another Good Entertainment.

An interested audience of parents of the pupils and other friends of the school were agreeably entertained at the theatre Tuesday evening for about an hour and a half by the set of exercises then given by the New Berne Collegiate Institute.

The stage was filled with pupils in the opening song, "The Holiday," and it was sang nicely with full chorus, and then little Close Barker made a pleasant speech of welcome, and Thomas Roberts followed with an amusing recitation. Two good recitations, "Bill Mason's Ride" and "Custer's Last Charge," were spoken respectively by Miss Lillian Fowler and Benson Lane, and Miss Mamie Hay delighted her auditors by an excellent rendition of that ludicrous piece, "The Sale of Old Bachelors," and Blount Smith declaimed "Virgilus," in very good style. The instrumental duet by Misses Rosa Dail and Katie Daniels was accurately executed and well received.

The grand feature of the evening, "A May Day Celebration," crowning the queen and rendering tributes of various kinds, was next on the programme. It was participated in by thirty-four little girls and boys of the primary department, prettily and strikingly costumed to impersonate various characters and the precision with which each one carried out his or her assigned part was remarkable in children of such tender age. Careful and judicious preparation had been made to add to the attractions of the rendition by having appropriate surroundings and the effort met with abundant success. The queen was seated on a pretty throne surmounted by a beautiful arch of evergreens and blossoms interwoven, and evergreen trees from the forest stood at either side and other decorations of a like character were suitably placed at other points on the stage, all heightening the effect. Miss Lena Hines, daughter of Mr. J. M. Hines, was the queen. She was crowned by Frank Willis, son of Rev. R. A. Willis, and presented with her scepter by Alfred Gaskins.

At the conclusion of the May day celebration Mr. R. Howard declaimed "The Fireman's Rescue" in a thrilling manner, and there were admirable selections read by Clarence Miller and Miss Pearl Wallace. After declamations on "The Nobility of Labor" by H. N. Roper, and "The Trusty Boy" by Fred Whitty, a vocal duet, "Dost thou Love Me, Sister Ruth," was so nicely sung by Thomas Roberts and Miss Laura Suter, in quaker costume, that it was repeated on being called for again by the audience.

Johnny Erdman, with clear enunciation and appropriate gestures, declaimed "A Free Seat," a keen thrust at the system of pew renting, and then Miss Katie Matthews very prettily and distinctly recited "Theology in the Quarters," an old darkey's ideas of the questions that would be propounded to applicants at the gates of heaven before admission would be granted.

The last declamation was by B. H. Melton. He appeared perfectly at ease as he faced the audience and did very well indeed. Then came a round, "Hark to the Bugle's Call" in four parts, sung by a stage full of the students. It was splendid.

The exercises concluded with a fine Indian club drill. It was participated in by nine of the boys, viz: David Congdon, Romulus Nunn, Paul Dillingham, F. Lumpkins, Thomas Kehoe, Ferdinand Ulrich, Willie Salter, J. Congdon and Ed. Adams. They drilled unitedly, dexterously and with extraordinary precision in graceful and complicated manoeuvres and this feature made a pleasing variation from the literary exercises.

The drill, being the conclusion the audience departed for their homes well pleased with the evening entertainment.

During the last few days, Mr. J. K. Willis has made shipments from his marble yard to Hyde, Dare, Jones, and Lenoir counties. The excellence of the work turned out from this establishment is the cause of its rapidly extending patronage. Examine closely a monument from the North and small scotchones will be found upon its surface; these in the course of time induce decay. So careful is Mr. Willis, that not the slightest scratch or sand speck is allowed to remain on any piece leaving his shop. A few years ago when one of the finest monuments was wanted it would be ordered from the North, but the East Carolina Marble Works has driven out all competitors, because people now realize that its products equal any in elegance of design and surpass the northern made in delicacy of finish and lowness of price.

Personal.

Miss Sophie M. Jones, who has been teaching school and visiting her aunt, Mrs. K. N. Bell, at Cedar Point, returned home yesterday morning.

Gen. W. G. Lewis, who has been making surveys at the oyster grounds, laying off the tracts that have been taken up by parties for cultivation, passed through returning to his home at Goldsboro.

Mr. F. Wells, of Norfolk, president of the Albemarle & Chesapeake and New Berne & Beaufort Canal Company, who has been examining the work going on at the latter canal came up on the elegant steam yacht, Viva, and spent yesterday in the city preparatory to returning home.

Miss Nellie Wood returned home last night from a visit to Miss Ella Bland, of Bell's Ferry.

Miss Mary Dail, of Snow Hill, arrived to visit her uncle, Mr. G. F. M. Dail.

Mrs. B. B. Davenport, on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. B. K. Dixon, went down to Morehead to visit her.

Mrs. John Hughes returned home on the steamer Neuse of the E. C. D. line from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Strudwick, of Norfolk, and Mr. B. F. Pickles and bride came in on the same steamer en route to their home at Oriental.

The steamer Neuse took out the following passengers: Messrs. R. H. Askew, of Elizabeth City, and W. S. Baum, of Manteo, pupils of James Military School at Grifton, returning home; Mr. F. W. Adams, president of the Berger & Engel Brewing Company, returning to his home in Philadelphia from a business trip to the city; and Mr. Sam'l Sanderler, of Norfolk, returning home from a pleasure trip.

Some Potatoes.
Another big day on trucking. The steamer Neuse of the E. C. D. line took out 3,000 packages and the railroad between 8,000 and 9,000—in round numbers a total of 12,000. Fully three-fourths of these were potatoes, 9,000 barrels of potatoes at $5.00 per barrel gives FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS as the value of the potato shipment without mentioning the beans, squashes and cucumbers that are going forward.

Alterations are being made in the city market. The stalls are being enlarged by closing the passage running lengthwise through the centre of the market, and dividing the space equally between the stalls on either side. The platform alongside the market is also to be widened four feet.

CATARHIT.

Catarh is a most disgusting ailment and yet many unnecessarily suffer with the disease. They will try local applications, which do no good whatever, but fail to try such constitutional treatment as is afforded by a use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), which removes the mucous poison in the blood and thus eradicates the cause of the disease.

N. O. Edwards, Lampasas Springs, Tex., writes: "I was greatly annoyed with catarrh which impaired my general health. The discharge from my nose was very offensive, and I used various advertised remedies without benefit until finally the use of B. B. B. entirely cured me. I am proud to recommend a blood remedy with such powerful curative virtue."
B. C. Kinard & Son, Towaliga, Ga., writes: "We induced a neighbor to try B. B. B. for catarrh, which he thought incurable as it had resisted all treatment. It delighted him and continuing its use he was cured sound and well."
