DUNN'S review gives a more hopeful view of the financial and manufacturing situation.

SENATOR George does not think there is much in the Sub-treasury scheme. The Senator's remarks will also apply to the treasury.

PRINCE ALEXANDER of Battenburg Ex-Ruling Prince of Bulgaria who so gallantly defeated King Milan in Bulgarian Servian war in 1885 is dangerously ill.

The fact that the Kansas Alliance people have adopted an official song book seems to dispose of that story about there being a sad lack of harmony in the party.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: The Southern Senators are mistaken in their notion that the Force bill will be brought up again. It quietly reposes in what Col. Ingersoll calls "the windowless palace of rest," and will remain there forever.

THE experience of the City of Richmond has led the authorities of the White Star Line to consider the question of carrying cotton in cargo of passenger and mail steamers. Until a decision is arrived at no more cotton will be carried on such vessels.

THE Exposition that opens in the fall at Raleigh will have an important bearing on the fortunes of the Southern States, and especially on those of North Carolina. It is expected that the South will do her best, and she will be judged by her exhibit. Let every man do his best to place the Old North State in the front rank.

"WHAT a hat trimming is," is the question of the day. In the great suit of Meyer and Dickinson against the Government the plaintiffs insist that "hat trimming" include gauzes, velvets, satins and ribbons. The Government insists that these articles belong to the drygoods class. $30,000,000 are involved in the case.

LEXINGTON, VA., June 25.-At 4 o'clock this morning the ashes of one of the greatest generals of modern times was brought forth to light. The body of Stonewall Jackson was taken from the grave in which it has rested since the burial in 1864 and quietly placed in the vault built for it, over which the monument will be erected. Mrs. Jackson requested that the removal be made in the night, that no curious crowd with prying eyes or relic-hunters with their kleptomaniac greed desecrate the almost sacred scene.

THE Census Bureau has started the whole state of Pennsylvania by the announcement that it has been succeeded as the leader in the production of iron ore. For the past few years the South has been making rapid strides in the iron business, and last year the output of the State of Alabama exceeded that of the State of Pennsylvania by a handsome margin. Ten years ago Alabama stood seventh in the list of iron-producing States, and the output of the State of Pennsylvania was twelve times as large as that of its Southern competitor. The change which has taken place in this time seems almost incredible, but when the logical test is applied the progress of the South is shown to have been on safe, conservative grounds and in no manner based on artificial methods.

The dredge at work deepening the New Berne and Beaufort canal has dug out from a depth of about 14 feet below the level of the land shells of immense oysters which are hard and perfect in formation. They measure ten inches in length, four in width and each shell is two inches in thickness.

Rev. Jas. Thomas.

The Farmers' Advocate of Tarboro, gives this complimentary mention of one of our young townsmen:

"It was our pleasure to hear the sermon of Rev. James Thomas, of Newberne, in the Presbyterian Church Sunday night. Mr. Thomas is a student of the Princeton, N. J. Theological Seminary, but was allowed, by the Presbytery at its session here, to preach during the summer months. His sermon Sunday night was logical, sound, sensible and forcible, and evinced the ability of Mr. Thomas as a preacher of the word of God. He is a talented young man if we may judge by his sermon, which showed the result of deep research, and was couched in language most appropriate. He will make his mark as a preacher."

Personal.

The following New Berners came up from Morehead yesterday: Dr. Frank (Duffy), Messrs. Basil Manly, M. DeW. Stevenson, James Redmond, Capt. Geo. W. Wallace, Mr. L. Ives and Miss Mamie Meadows.

Progress of Prohibition.

In view of the fact that New Berne is to have a temperance lecture today we think the following article from the Raleigh Christian Advocate which shows the progress of prohibition work in both the Northern and Southern States will be read with interest:

There are some who say that local option is a failure. These parties are either uninformed, or speak without proper thought on this subject. About all that we have on our statute books, restricting the sale of liquor in all localities and prohibiting it entirely in many large sections of the country, was put there by the agitation in favor of prohibition. Even the local option elections that have resulted in a temporary victory for the liquor men have been the means of sowing seed and developing sentiment that helped along the great growing tide in favor of an absolute prohibition of the liquor alcohol.

Already much has been accomplished. Maine, Kansas, North Dakota, and South Dakota, have constitutional prohibition-Now Hampshire, Vermont, Iowa and Kansas have statutory prohibition. Here are eight whole states, embracing an area of 859,299 square miles, covered entirely by a prohibitory law. These states embrace a population of a little over five millions, or about one twelfth of the population of the United States. This much has already been accomplished up North. It indicates a very gratifying progress up there.

The prohibition sentiment and progress in the South is far ahead of that of the North. In the fifteen Southern states sixty per cent of all the area embraced in them is under local prohibitory laws. Of the 1284 counties embraced in these fifteen states, 743 of them are covered by local option. Georgia takes the lead, and of its 137 counties 100 of them have prohibition, but South Carolina has 85 per cent of its area covered by prohibition, whilst Georgia has only 79 per cent of its area covered by it; so that South Carolina has the largest per cent of area covered by it.

One fifth of the population of the whole country, covered by the eight prohibition states of the North and 80 per cent of the area of the South by local option.-Christian Advocate

TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

Recitations-Vocal Contest-tlood Results from Assembly-Resolutions-Temperance Day.

MOREHEAD CITY, June 28.-During the preparations for the contest in vocal music, there were several highly creditable recitations given and an amusing reading by Prof. Brittan. Miss Krider, of Salisbury, recited a beautiful piece and Miss McDonald, of Asheville did the same, also Miss Ball, of Greensboro. Where all do so well it is hard to discriminate, but the recitation of "The Kentucky Belle" by Miss McCall, of Statesville was really enchanting. She displayed to my mind not only a superior knowledge of elocution but a decided histrionic talent. It was WELL done. The vocal contest was as severe as it could well be. The contestants were each required to sing one piece of their own selection and then a piece they had not seen before. The young ladies were fully up to the requirements and performed their parts well. When Miss Radcliffe's, time came she chose Miss Hattie Dail to play for her, and the performance was simply elegant.

In the latter hours of the session the following resolution of thanks to the Press of the state were offered by Prof. Ellis and unanimously adopted.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Fowle, were also unanimously adopted. [Both will be found elsewhere.]

The session has been noted for, harmony and singleness of purpose. Every thing tends to one object the improvement of the educational system in North Carolina. That it has done much already in that direction cannot be denied. Through the influence of this assembly people have seen each other that never would have met, they have seen portions of the state that they never would have seen; they have made acquaintances and formed friendships that without aid of this assembly they probably never would have made. Some have visited the capital of our government, and would likely never have done so while others have visited Europe who, but for this assembly probably never would have gone abroad.

It is greatest in the features that elevate the profession of teaching; enable the calling and give to the faithful teacher, in the hamlet or at the cross roads, the assurance of the sympathy and professional kinship of the highest orders of the profession, and a warm place in the estimation of the executive of the state. Best of all it teaches the teachers and educates the educators. No one can attend its meetings, without benefit for the simple attendance is beneficial in itself. Long live the Teachers' assembly and long live Maj. E. G. Harrol, its founder, promoter and supporter.

Before closing there was a committee appointed to take action looking to the erection of a monument to the late Dr. Murphy, and also to Calvin H. Wiley, the first State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Resolutions in memoriam of the late Dr. G. Fowle, were introduced and adopted. Capt. Denison introduced them and remarks, were made by a number of gentlemen feeling by expressing their desire to thus show a token of respect by the assembly to one who had always taken a deep interest in the cause of education and of this assembly. I cannot close the report of this session imperfect as it has been without expressing my obligations to every officer of the assembly and to each member from whom any information was sought in the discharge of my duties. Uniform courtesy has been extended to me and I dare say to all the reportorial fraternity.

SUNDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Mrs. H. D. Walker, of Providence, R. I., preached at the Assembly Hall Tuesday morning, a good sermon from John 11:5, and delivered a commendable lecture at night on Woman's Christian Temperance work.

Sunday afternoon six girls of Morehead and Beaufort, probably between 12 and 18 years of age, engaged in the Democrat medical contest, the nature of which was explained in Sunday's JOURNAL. Every one of the pretty maidens did very well indeed, but the recitation by Miss Corinne Chadwick of Beaufort, a little daughter of President W. S. Chadwick of the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad, was so admirable in every feature that the judges, with every unanimity, awarded her the medal and it was immediately bestowed with an excellent speech of presentation by Mr. James Southgate, of Durham.

It may probably not be known with certainty for several weeks yet where the next session of the Assembly will be held. Propositions from other points were presented which a committee will consider.

A pleasant place for the Assembly meetings than Morehead would be hard to find. It possesses a good hotel-by far the largest in the State, with spacious, airy rooms kept cool by delightfully refreshing sea breezes, and a table to which sea and land alike contribute their delicacies, and these are abundant conveniences for the refreshing and exhilarating sports of surf-bathing, sailing and fishing and under these propitious influences the attendance on the Assembly is increasing with rapidity at each recurring session.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE ASSEMBLY.

In Memory of Gov. Fowle and Thanking the Press for Service Rendered.

Committee on resolutions in memory of Gov. D. G. Fowle-present, Messrs. C. B. Dawson, Thos. S. Skinner, D. D. E. E. Britton, E. L. Hughes and P. M. Pearsall met at 4 p. m. Capt. C. B. Denison was called to the chair and E. L. Hughes elected Secretary.

The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, in the dispensation of Divine Providence the late Chief Magistrate of this State, Gov. Daniel G. Fowle has been removed by death from the scene of his earthly labors; and whereas he was one of the most earnest and devoted members of this Assembly, be it

RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly lament in the death of Daniel G. Fowle the loss of a patriotic Statesman, who was as a citizen and as a public officer the enthusiastic advocate of education, and the friend of every effort to elevate the people in educational and social progress.

RESOLVED, That as a member of this Assembly, we lose in him one of our most devoted and valuable members, constant in his attendance and testifying always the satisfaction with which he partook in our labors.

RESOLVED, That we recognize and most heartily commend the value of his work in the cause of education, both in his official capacity and as a private citizen, as well as the power of his example to parents in his devotion to the education of his own children as evidenced in the last hour of his life.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and furnished to the press.

On motion of Edward E. Britton it was

RESOLVED, That the committee request the Executive Committee to place on record on portrait of the late Gov. D. G. Fowle in Assembly Hall.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

C. B. DENISON, chairman.
E. L. HUGHES, secretary.

WHEREAS, The Press, both educational, secular and religious has ever been the firm friend of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, and by its cheerful co-operation and kindly helpfulness in promoting the interests of our organization in every way, aided us as a body to accomplish our manifold purposes successfully.

THEREFORE, Be it resolved that, That we, the Eighth Annual Assembly, deeply sensible of our obligations to our unselish coadjutors in the grand work of popularizing education in North Carolina, heartily and unanimously tender them as our best friends our most sincere and profound gratitude for their liberality and magnanimity.

2nd, That these are not perfunctory expressions but the spontaneous acknowledgment of a real obligation to a noble and true patriot of our State.

3rd, That our thanks are especially due to the "Daily State Chronicle," "Goldboro Daily Argus," News and Observer," "New Berne Journal" and "Wilmington Messenger" represented by these worthy gentlemen, Messrs. F. M. Harper, E. E. Britton, Maj. D. T. Carraway and M. C. S. Noble, through whose efforts our people at large have been kept posted concerning the Assembly and its work.

D. L. ELLIS, chm.

Happy Women.

What is it that makes women more smiling and happy looking than men? We meet them on the cars, on the streets, in the country, by the seashore, always smiling, teeth a glistening, eyes a dancing. Ah! the secret is they aim to please. It is an effort in many instances for them to smile, and were it not for a desire to look pleasing and pretty many would "never smile again." Why? Because in a large majority of instances they don't feel like smiling. They feel more like crying. With their nervous aches, weakness and bearing down pains, life to them is a burden. What a gold find to many a physician is a rich sick woman. Why should he aim to cure her and deny himself the pleasure of presenting his bills with the usual regularity. It seems from the following, that the surest and cheapest way for invalid women to regain health and strength is by using Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.)

Mrs. A. White, 340 Wythe Street, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have used B. B. B. with happy results, and others have taken it at my advice and are delighted with its curative results."

J. N. Gregory, Butler Postoffice, S. C. writes: "My wife had been under the treatment of several good physicians, but continued in poor health, so I bought four bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and it did her more good than those doctors had done her in ten years. She is now doing her own washing, a thing she had not been able to do for four years."

A Few Good Things to know.

"Umbrellas should always be placed handle downward to dry. The moisture falls from the edge of the frame and the fabric dries uniformly. If stood handle upward the top of the umbrella holds the moisture, owing to the lining under the ring, and it takes a long time to dry, thereby injuring the fabric with which it is covered. Umbrella cases are responsible for the wear of silk and causes the tiny holds to appear so soon in the silk. The best thing to know is the place to buy your Clothing, Hats and Shoes, Umbrellas, Ties and Underwear. That place is,
