"LET us give Hypolite a square meal. It is not true that he plays the flute." It is quite plain that the Irish voters are not heartily participating in Mr. Parnell's honeymoon.

WE have now seven reciprocity treaties and no additional outlet for that barrel of pork among them.

If the cyclones continue to pounce down on the penitentiaries, what is to become of the Republican party?

THE World says, Reed and Hoar have sense enough to know when they are dead, but the political corps of John James Ingalls will insist upon talking.

A REVOLTING story of cannibalism comes to us from Brazil. It may be a canard, but the idea of such a thing in an American Republic makes our blood boil with indignation.

IN no instance has the power of a North Carolina newspaper been more strikingly displayed than in the energy and enterprise of the Gazette in the splendid celebration in Washington.

"THE director who does not direct, the reciprocity treaty which does not reciprocate, and the Treasury statement which does state are the three most positive negatives of the day."

OUR Presidents are great fishermen. Cleveland is famous for delivering trout from the treacherous waves, and now it is reported that Harrison has rescued many blue fish from the briny deep.

THE Washington Post says: "When we get $500 out of the Itata that will reduce the expense of our catch to about $24,000. This will leave us a handsome margin on which to boast of our yankee shrewdness."

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9.—As a result of an investigation by First Comptroller Matthews, it has been discovered that the State of North Carolina is entitled to $26,218 more than was originally allowed it on account of the direct tax act. The State's proper quota now is $404,054.

It is in perfectly friendly spirit, with patriotic but partisan intent, that the World urges President Harrison to rid his administration of Wansmaker and Raum. These men's presence in the public service is primarily a blot upon Mr. Harrison's administration and a hurt to his party. Partisan Democracy could wish nothing better than that he should "stand by" them, as he is reported to have determined to do.—N. Y. World.

COUSIN General Kelley, who is now at home from his long sojourn in Cairo, says that not once during his residence in the land of the Khedive did he get a glimpse of the wife or grown daughter of any Egyptian official. The Egyptian women adhere very strictly to the Mohammedan law forbidding them to unveil their faces in public, and very rarely leave their apartments. The present Khedive has only one wife, though allowed four by the law of the Prophet.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Notice of Incorporation. Howard—He is richest, etc. W. H. Oliver—Continental Ins. Co.

Morehead is still receiving summer visitors. Among those who went down last night were thirty from Raleigh.

The policemen were out yesterday in their new uniforms which are after the New York regulation style, and are showy and handsome.

Dr. J. A. Guion has a fine variety of tomatoes in his garden from which he is getting fruit single specimens of which will weigh a pound and over.

The railroad excursion to Morehead leaves this morning at 8:45, a little earlier than the Sunday specials have been leaving heretofore. It will get back at 11:30 p.m.

The Beaufort Seaside says Carteret is now what may be called a "dry county." Foster Bros., of Morehead, J. L. Bell, of Newport, and A. Lee, of Merrimon applied for license but were all refused.

A demented colored inmate of the poor house named Peter Sasser who wandered away two weeks ago was found Friday about three quarters of a mile back of the poor house dead and in an advanced state of decomposition. An inquest was deemed unnecessary.

The old Geo. Allen & Co. store has been sold to Mr. E. B. Hackburn and Mr. Hackburn expects soon to occupy it with a large stock of groceries and carry on both a wholesale and retail business, but he will cater principally for the retail trade. He will also continue in business at his present stand.

The Atlantic Seaside tells of the loss of the vessel A. L. & M. Townsend, Capt. Geo. Davis, on Tuesday. She was bound from Swansboro to Baltimore with lumber. She sprung a leak while crossing Cape Lookout Shoals and owing to her heavy load sunk in thirty minutes. She was owned by citizens of Beaufort and there was no insurance on either vessel or cargo.

Coroner R. S. Primrose had a jury summoned to hold an inquest over the body of Joe Orum, colored, who was drowned on the Fourth of July, near Foy's mill, up Trent river, owing it is supposed to an attack of cramp with which he was taken while swimming to recover his hat, which he lost from a raft, his body being found a few days after the accident. Owing to the absence of witnesses final action of the jury was postponed to Thursday, the 16th inst. at 10 a. m. at the coroner's office.

Mr. Chas. T. Forbes, traveling correspondent and soliciting agent of the Washington, D. C., Post is in the city for a few days in the interest of that excellent paper. While here Mr. Forbes wishes to procure what information he can in regard to the business interests of the city. His first inquiry was, "Have you a Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce?" Of course we regretted to give him a negative answer, but nevertheless our business men will extend whatever courtesies they can.

Personal. Mrs. J. W. Mesio returned from a visit to friends at Havelock.

Father Tho. F. Price left for a two weeks mission trip.

Mrs. Bettie Mason returned from a visit to relatives at Beaufort.

Major S. D. Pope returned last night from a business tour.

Mr. Sam. B. Waters, jr., came down from Raleigh to visit his parents.

The following parties went down to Morehead last night: Dr. G. K. Bagby, his wife and two children (Dr. Bagby will return Monday); Mr. M. H. Sultan and family; Mrs. S. Blumgardt, Mr. T. E. Marshall and family, and Mr. L. J. Taylor.

Mrs. J. R. Parker returned home from visiting relatives in Baltimore, accompanied back by her sister, Miss Cora, and her mother, Mrs. Poiner.

Lynched by Negroes for Killing a Negro. VICKSBURG, Miss., July 9.—News was received here yesterday of a lynching which took place last Friday night on Palmy Plantation, this county. The victim, a negro named Henry Gentry, had murdered George Hillyard, colored, in cold blood, and was being carried before a magistrate for trial when a mob of negroes overpowered the guard, took the prisoner and hung him.

Thoughts on the Controversial Era. The religious controversies of the day testify to the statement that we are living in the grandest hour of advanced civilization. It is our inheritance to enjoy the possession of the glorious evidences of twenty centuries of human development and human achievement.

Controversies in all ages—scientific, governmental, commercial, social and religious—are the outgrowth of man's inquisitive nature. Dr. Talmage says the present religious controversy is satanic. The result of wickedness!

It is my humble conviction that it is better to think for self than let somebody else do the thinking. Man ought to look at the lights of this era of analytic thoughts and though given the right to think for himself had better take care how he thinks!

On almost every page of history you read of minds masterful, as well as humble, burning with intensity and doubt regarding things visible and invisible. The human mind has ever sought to know something of invisible things; to find out the factors necessary to solve the eternal problem of success and happiness in life. Such desires are plausible. They have a rightful claim upon the noblest energies of mankind.

If there was no solution to these questions then life might be termed a farce and delusion. Christianity is the answer. It comprehends the whole of human nature and the ultimate destiny of the human race. Without the Gospel of Christ I had rather never been born! The universe and mankind's immortality would seem like a tremendous snare. Review the past struggles and sufferings and despair of humanity. Speculation and the uncertainty of hope demand an acceptance of the records of Genesis or plunge us into a bottomless abyss of unsatisfactory existence.

"God can do more Than man can understand. God will allow a holy and a humble search into the truth. A searching spirit ever ready to be taught."

The acceptance of the theory of the creation is no enslavement of man's free-will. Suppose man had not been given a free-will what would be our condition? I answer: a mere human machine—a mysterious composition of something and nothing unqualified to put on immortality and be clothed with an incorruptible liver. The doctrines of the Nazarene carpenter concern man. They have vitalized the conscience of humanity and inspired hope in multitudinous hearts. The system of morals of the Galilean peasant must ever continue to reconstruct the world.

Life is a position of an individualism. We ought to hate sensational preaching and teaching! No brilliant philosophic speculations will ever reconstruct the laws of Sinai. No new interpretations of biblical theology or church-creeds will overthrow the faith of souls who believe that it is the literal words of the inspired Scriptures and that because church-creeds are human institutions they are liable to error. Is it probable that there is any divine inspiration about them? What is a church-creed? It is the written expression of the construction of the Scriptures by a certain number of people, as viewed through the medium of personal experience and intellectual enlightenment. Church-creeds can't save souls! They are conservators. Freedom of being (apart from dependence upon God) is argument sufficient that man can go to hell or hope for heaven. Salvation is surely a matter of self-interest? God has decreed that there is no higher power—no appellate court. Right thinking, right feeling, right doing is the best theology of earth. Man knows the right and, I believe, man loves the right. "We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done."

There is a difference between personal religion and creed religion. It is evident that men are born and reared to a church religion, so also they formulate and cultivate personal religion as they understand Theism and Christianity. The former is a collection of facts embraced in the experience of everyday life, while the latter is an inheritance or the result of circumstance. Conscience voices man's principles. How many people understand the essential doctrines of their church-creed? "My church is the Church," says some one, "because I have been reared with such a belief."

Study the indifference of the times and one can see the greatness of the subject of religion. All people in every age and in every clime have had some kind of a religion. The heathen religions are conceptions of man's own wants. Religion has ever exercised the human soul. The Christian religion is the greatest subject that occupies the attention of the mind—the heart of the shipwrecked character and the searching intellect of scholars. Scholarship and new understanding of things will never reverse the laws of right and equity which the human conscience pronounces. There are certain landmarks of truth from which man cannot depart. The law of conscience condemns men and not the transcendent truths of divine revelation.

Take all the creeds and all the personal religions and all speculations about biblical interpretation and you reach a conclusion something like this: There is a great First Cause—omnipotent, omniscient, and merciful—and that because man is a sinner he needs a mediator.

Dr. Briggs' new understanding of the Scriptures and Professor Totten's Millenium Theory undermine the religious thoughts of some people. These men are open erratic teachers. Think of man pretending co-equality with God by theorizing respecting an event of which no man knows! Here is a nutshell: Fear God, do right, and hope. In fearing let us believe that God knows more than we do. Poor man who dares characterize the mercy of his Creator! It is a common experience that conduct and speech today affect the happiness and prosperity of tomorrow or work the consequences of God. I had rather hope in a character that is above every other character than hope at all. Fly the soul without a hope!

Registration in Mississippi.

COLUMBUS, Miss., July 9.—The number of voters who have registered in obedience to the new constitution is very small in this country. There are nearly 5,000 voters in the country, but only 1,500 are registered. The negroes seem to have lost all interest in the right of franchise, as only forty-four have registered in the country.

NEW BERNE.

Her Workers and Business Men.

NUMBER THREE. No city is better insured than New Berne. Notwithstanding the fact that the city is protected by the best FIRE DEPARTMENT in the State, everybody insures his property against fire. Nobody need hesitate where to go to get insurance. William H. Oliver and George Henderson are ready, night and day, to give INSURANCE in the best companies in the world.

The people of New Berne have a care to their looks. They are never burdened with "cheap jewelry," but they wear the best of watches and gems of purest luster. A. E. Hibbard regulates the watches, and Sam. K. Eaton and Charlie Bell furnish in rich profusion whatever is found in the cases of FIRST CLASS JEWELERS.

Big Ike was omitted from the list of dry goods men because he is a whole department by himself.

Do you like to ride? There are delightful drives in and around New Berne, and J. W. Stewart, M. Hahn & Co., and E. M. Street are just the men to set you up in style.

New Berne is a place of wonderful healthfulness, but no city can do without DRUGGISTS. A few grains to tone the system and a few drops for your stomach's sake, are indispensable—F. S. Duffy, J. V. Jordan, C. C. Green, R. Berry, R. N. Duffy and T. A. Henry are the men you want to see.

James Redmond deals in the purest wines, liquors and cigars, while Major Palmer is ready to supply all comers with tobacco, cigars and soda water.

C. R. Thomas, P. H. Pelletier, H. L. Gibbs and W. D. Molver are ATTORNEYS entitled to the fullest confidence—and J. D. Clark and G. K. Bagby are DENTISTS skilled in their profession.

The city of New Berne has the very best banking facilities. The First National Bank, the Banking House of Green, Foy and Co., and the Farmers and Merchants Bank would be creditable to any city.

(Cotton Ginnery.)

As will be seen by the notice of incorporation published this morning a company composed of sound business men has been formed to establish and operate a cotton ginnery in the city. It will be known as the improved cotton ginnery company, and will buy, sell and gin cotton—other features may be added later. Three of the largest stockholders are interested in the Wilmington oil mills, one of them, Mr. G. L. Baker, being the treasurer of the corporation. The New Berne incorporators are Messrs. Thomas Daniels, C. T. Watson, A. R. Dennison and W. P. Barrus.

The work of erecting and putting in machinery will soon begin, and all will be in readiness for the fall business of buying, selling and ginning cotton. Other features may be added afterwards. Score another forward move for New Berne.

Continental Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, ASSETS NEAR $60,000,000, Has paid death claims in North Carolina to near $600,000. Has paid in Newbern, N. C., death claims to the amount of $67,000. Every loss promptly paid without a single contest. Low rate of premium as is consistent with safety. Large dividends (being the largest of any insurance company doing business in the United States), thereby largely reducing the amount of premium. Prompt settlements free of any discount. Equal and exact justice to all of its policy holders, freedom from any objectionable features in its policies, are characteristics of this company, which has been in operation for over fifty years. I will take pleasure in getting a policy in this company for those who desire safe and reliable insurance. WILLIAM H. OLIVER, Agent Connecticut Mutual Life Ins. Co. Newbern, N. C. July 12 1m

Notice of Incorporation.

Notice is hereby given of the incorporation of The New Berne Improved Cotton Ginning Company; that the names of the incorporators are: Thomas Daniels, C. T. Watson, A. R. Dennison, H. E. Wells, H. E. Wray, P. Barrus and George Henderson, Treasurer of the Wilmington Oil Mills, and such others as they may associate with them. That its general and principal place of business shall be New Berne, North Carolina, with power to operate at such points and places as may be agreed upon; that its general business is to be the ginning and other manufacture of cotton and cotton seed, and for the conversion of such material by manufacture or otherwise into such substance as the same may be converted into for the purchase, sale, export and import of all cotton and cotton stuffs, bagging and ties, and cotton seed, and for the general sale and manufacture of any and all said products and productions; and for all such general operations in connection therewith as may to them seem expedient for the welfare of said corporation, with full power to hold and convey all property, real, personal or mixed.

That the duration of said corporation is to be thirty years, that the capital stock is Five Thousand Dollars, with the privilege of increase to One Hundred Thousand Dollars. That the number of shares is one hundred, to be increased proportionally with the increase of the capital stock; that the principal officers of said corporation are, a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, seven Directors, a Finance Committee, an Auditor and such other officers as may be provided for in the by-laws; that the authority and power of said officers is such only as is provided in the by-laws of the corporation, which are open at all times to the inspection of persons dealing with said corporation, at the office of the President and Secretary and Treasurer, and shall be deemed notice as to the limit of the powers conferred upon the officers aforesaid. The corporation is allowed to issue bonds at any time to an amount not exceeding one-half of the capital stock, and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage or otherwise; that it is empowered to pass a check by its cash on any bank in the State of North Carolina. That the stockholders are not individually liable for the debts of the corporation.

Witness my hand and seal this 10th day of July, 1891. W. M. WATSON, 1512 1/2 Clerk Sup. Court, Craven County.
