A LONDON dispatch, July 24th, Berne, Craven county, N. C. July 25th, A London dispatch, July 24th, says: Signor Crispi has an article in the Contemporary Review, in which he defends Italy against the recent attacks of the French press. He says that France had in late years opposed any reconciliation between the Papsey and the Italian government and has exploited the Vatican in order to create difficulties for the quirinal. One of the causes of Italy's adhesion to the dreibund was the need of obtaining a guarantee against the claims of the Pope, and of giving the country assurance that France
