

THE JOURNAL.

SOME of the London papers have been bragging over some real estate in that town which is rated at $2,500,000 an acre, which makes the Chicago papers snicker and call attention to some patches of ground in that city which have sold at the rate of $8,157,500 an acre, and several large tracts which sold respectively at $100 a square foot, or at the rate of over $4,000,000 per acre.

In relating his experience at Prosperity, S. C., Senator Butler said to a Baltimore Sun reporter that he went there determined to give the people a plain talk on the financial question. He did not employ any confusing statistics, but simply told his hearers how foolish it was for them to be led away with the idea that the government is going to lend money to every man or woman who wants it without security, and he might have added even with security.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

A minister ought to know what he believes. He ought to be able to make a definite statement of each of the great Bible facts. He ought to have an understanding of the relation of these great facts to each other. Vapory notions are not creditable, nor can a man defend or preach a vapor. He will have force only when he has positive convictions; such convictions as he is ready to avow with manly frankness. What one is not required to do is to declare his philosophies, if he has any; but when one considers how much philosophies shape beliefs he will think it desirable to have sound philosophies. He is not obliged to define the infinite, for that is a contradiction in terms. But he can tell whether he believes in the infinite, and he can tell where the center of a great truth is, as one can tell where the noonday sun is, but cannot tell the line where the twilight expands into morning or contracts into night. No one is required to pronounce upon the exactness of things not fully revealed, but he certainly ought to know what is revealed.—Sel.

OBEDIENCE. It is oftentimes true that those who are at the age of passing from youth to early manhood look upon early obedience as humiliating. They feel that the rendering of obedience is a surrender of their independence. Herein is a danger, a very great one to young men. The disposition to break through everything that seems to savor of restraint, to ignore the experience of those who are older, "to strike out for themselves," is a characteristic of a large number of young men in these days. The laudable ambitions peculiar to young men should not be crushed out, but they should be under the control of a strong will. Obedience implies the superiority of that to which it is rendered, it also implies the power of self control on the part of the one who obeys. There is, therefore, weakness in obedience; on the other hand there is manifest nobility and moral power in the man who recognizes and honors that which is superior. There is as much nobility in the soldier who obeys as in the general that commands. When Pope wrote, "The chief his orders give; the obedient band, With due observance, waits the chief's command," he paid as high tribute to the band as he did to the chief.—Ex.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY IN OHIO. The revolutionary tendency of the People's party is clearly exhibited in the proceedings of the convention of that party recently held in Springfield Ohio. That Convention not only reaffirmed the leading features of the Omaha platform, but it went far beyond it in demands at once violative of the genius of American institutions and subversive of the spirit of liberty. Among others equally as absurd this convention adopted a resolution declaring that "the right to vote should be given to every body irrespective of sex or color, and demanding Government ownership of all means of transportation and communication between and by the people of the United States." "Everybody" is to have the right to vote. Foreigners just landed are excited, and the women are aroused. The Government is to own all the railroads, steamboats, canals and wagon trains, for it is to have the ownership of all the means of transportation. The Government is to have the control of all telegraph and telephone lines, of banks and express companies, of letters and conversations, for the resolution demands Government ownership of "all communication between and by the people of the United States." That all this is absurd does not seem to have occurred to the agitators. The truth is men have lost their reason. Dissatisfied with things and conditions as they are, they go to the extreme of madness. If it were possible for the suggestions of this People's Party to be carried out, the United States would be depopulated. People would not live in such a country. There would not "be a rose left on the stalk to tell where the garden had been."

We cannot believe for a moment that such a party can carry Ohio, but it has placed a tall ticket in the field and complicated the political situation.

SUCCESS AND FAILURE. The Hickory Carolinian gives an account of two farmers whose experience is well worth perusing. Look through the statement carefully and see if it fits any of the farmers in this section of the State:

"If to some people comparisons are odious, to others they are profitable. We write not to injure any one, but to benefit some one. A few years back two men purchased farms in a few miles, east and west, of Hickory. One paid cash for his farm and the other went in debt for what was called the poorest place in the country.

One cultivated tobacco and other "money" crops, while the other raised corn, wheat and potatoes. One wore "store clothes" and talked and wrote about "hard times," while the other hauled wood and cabbage and potatoes and chickens and eggs to town and sold them for money to pay on his land. One borrowed money to buy "fertilizer" and to pay for fine, clothes, while the other made home manure and hauled and spread it himself, to make support for his family and something over to pay on his land debt. One has given up farming as an overtaxed and unprofitable business, while the other has paid for his land, bought stock, supported a medium family and is making money off his poor farm every year. One is a member of the Alliance and the other never has been.

Can you tell us which is which, and why these things are thus? Speak out and speak plainly.

A Proof of Merit. When a remedy proves itself a cure for the very worst phase of blood poison, it stands to reason that minor effects of bad blood will rapidly disappear if the remedy is used in time. No remedy in the world has so good reputation at home or abroad as a cure for all stages of blood poison as B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Benj. Morris, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered years from syphilitic blood poisoning which refused to be cured by all treatment. Physicians pronounced it a hopeless case. I had no appetite, I had pains in my hips and joints and my kidneys were diseased. My throat was ulcerated and my breast a mass of running sores. In this condition, I commenced a use of B. B. B. I healed every ulcer and cured me complete within two months." Robt. Ward, Maxey, Ga., writes: "My disease was pronounced a tertiary form of blood poisoning. My face, head and shoulders were a mass of corruption, and finally the disease began eating my skull bones. My bones ached; my kidneys were deranged, I lost flesh and strength, and life became a burden. All said I must surely die, but nevertheless, when I had used ten bottles of B. B. B. I was pronounced sound and well. Hundreds of scars can now be seen on me. I have now been well over twelve months." A. P. Brunson, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had 24 running ulcers on one leg and six on the other, and felt greatly prostrated. I believe I actually swallowed a barrel of medicine, in vain efforts to cure the disease. With little hope I finally acted on the urgent advice of a friend, and got a bottle of B. B. B. I experienced a change, and my despondency was somewhat dispelled. I kept using it until I had taken about sixteen bottles, and all the ulcers, rheumatism, and all other horrors of blood poison have disappeared, and at last I am sound and well again, after an experience of twenty years of torture." Criticized by the Catholic Press. BERLIN, Aug. 6.—The German Catholic press are dissatisfied at the refusal of the Pope to appoint bishops in the United States according to the nationality as per the Cahensly memorial. They regard it as a blow at the nationalities represented in the drebband.

LEMON ELIXIR. A PLEASANT LEMON DRINK. For biliousness and constipation, take Lemon Elixir. For indigestion and foul stomach, take Lemon Elixir. For sick and nervous headaches, take Lemon Elixir. MY VISION. Up thro' the mists of childhood's tender memories, Floats a dear vision which I often see; Morn, noon and night, with gentle benediction, On sea or shore, it kindly visits me. At morn, between the sleeping and the waking, It comes, and hallows all the day for me Armas as with high resolve, my strength renewing. My father's face, then fondly do I see. At noon, in all his rugged, manly vigor, Wearing the marks of anxious toil for me Bearing the "heat and burden" uncomplaining That loving face, again I seem to see. And in the twilight, when the day is fading, The children's hour then brings him sweetly near. As at our fireside seat and care forgotten I seem again to hear his words of cheer. His tender counsel, wise, and true and loving His joys in ours, his grief at our pain Yes in the twilight, at the children's hour 'Neath father's roof-tree, I'm a child again. And when the twilight deepens, ere the darkness Folds me and mine 'neath covering wings of night, I see him bend before the old home altar And all my soul is quickened with the sight Of his bowed head, his locks of snowy whiteness, Has folded palms, and fervent, solemn air, As from the book he loves, he reads the message, Or leads us near to heaven's gate in prayer! And though the flowers have grown 'Tweem our faces For long long years, all flowers can never be As fragrant as the memory of my father Whose sainted face in vision oft I see! —Ellen Knight Bradford.

Uncle Sam's Increasing Postal Revenues. The total receipts of the Post-office Department, as shown by the statement of the Sixth Auditor's office for the first quarter ended March 31, 1891, amounted to $17,156,782.65, of which the sale of stamps and postal cards alone made up $16,837,000. This is an excess over the corresponding quarter of 1890 of $390,512.39, and an increase of $317,587.49 over the quarter ended December 31 last. This is the largest revenue for one quarter in the history of the country. Under the present system of keeping the accounts these figures were obtained just fifty-seven days earlier than they were one year ago, and ten weeks in advance of the preceding statement.

A SAFE INVESTMENT. Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. Carlyle says: "Do the duty which thou knowest to be a duty. The second duty will already have become clearer."

HERRI WINS. We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a single remedy that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale in Newbern by F. S. Duffy, wholesale and retail druggist.

Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford. ASSETS NEAR $60,000,000. Has paid death claims in North Carolina to near $600,000. Has paid in Newbern, N. C., death claims to the amount of $67,000. Every loss promptly paid without a single contest. Low rate of premium as is consistent with safety. Large dividends (being the largest of any insurance company doing business in the United States), thereby largely reducing the amount of premium. Prompt settlements free of any discount. Equal and exact justice to all of its policy holders, freedom from any objectionable features in its policies, are characteristics of this company, which has been in operation for over fifty years. I will take pleasure in getting a policy in this company for those who desire safe and reliable insurance. WILLIAM H. OLIVER, Agent Connecticut Mutual Life Ins. Co., Newbern, N. ELEVEN PEOPLE KILLED. A Passenger Train Collides With a Freight. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 6.—The St. Louis express on the West Shore railroad which leaves here at 1:58 a. m., met with a terrible accident, three miles west of Port Bydent, this morning, near what is known as the Duchess cut. The train was running at a high rate of speed and at that point ran into a freight train. The wreck was an awful one and eleven persons were killed. Those killed outright and those who died from their injuries were all Italians, but one—the fireman of the passenger train. Eleven Italians were badly hurt and four will probably die. Twelve cars of freight train were wrecked and piled up on the tracks completely blocking up the tracks.

Woe to the Conquered. The Romans cried "Vae Victis!" "Woe to the conquered!" at their triumph. Today many of us are being conquered—our peace, our rest and daily appetite wrested from us by that invader of the stomach, dyspepsia. Succor we sue for from a hundred sources. Temporary relief we sometimes obtain. But a hearty meal, the simplest indiscretion in diet, and the Protean imp returns with redoubled vigor to torment us. A persistent use of the great anti-dyspeptic and regulating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is best calculated to drive into permanent banishment every form of indigestion, temporary or chronic. No less efficacious is it for malaria, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, kidney and bladder ailments. This remedy of specific utility and many uses overcomes them all. 'Tis a safeguard, too, against the effects of temperature apt to revive an attack of "La Grippe."

It is one thing to see your road, another to cut it. The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Fetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale in Newbern by F. S. Duffy, wholesale and retail druggist.
