THE largest congregation that assembled in Arizona on Sunday for Christian worship is composed of Pima Indians.

THE Pope is inquiring into the extent of Socialism in France, and it is stated that he will assemble a universal council to discuss the relations of labor and capital.

HE who should conquer in battle ten times a hundred thousand were indeed a hero; but truly a greater hero is he who has but once conquered himself.—Buddhist Hymn.

ONE thousand six hundred and seventy-one persons were baptized on a recent Sunday at the American Baptist church at the city of Ongole, India, and 2,000 were waiting for baptism.

IN a negro church at Jacksonville, Fla., the gas jets got dim and then went out. Somebody shouted "judgment" and a panic ensued. One woman was killed and sixteen injured during the excitement.

THE London Religious Tract Society is bringing out an edition of "Pilgrim's Progress" in the Amharic tongue for the Abyssinians. This is the eighty-fourth language in which Bunyan's great work has appeared.

IN the recent riot at Schang, China, $300,000 worth of property was destroyed, including the Catholic and Protestant Missions. The customs officers are under arms. The Chinese claim that the cause of the riot was the stealing of a child to put in a convent.

THE late Adolph Oracan, of Breslau, left a bequest of $200,000 to the Moravian Church. The custodians of the trust are the German Emperor and the King of Saxony. Half of the income is to be used for the conversion of the heathen, half for the ransom of slaves.

THOSE who hold up Mr. Blaine to the admiring gaze of his countrymen as the great and only original inventor of hemispherical reciprocity find it convenient to forget that Stephen A. Douglas suggested a much grander project of pan-American reciprocity thirty years ago, before anybody had discovered Blaine's transcendental genius.—Chicago Herald.

A disappointed fish peddler was belaboring his slow but patient horse in a street in Georgetown, D. C., the other day, and calling out his wares at intervals, as "Herrin, herrin," "fresh herrin."

A tender-hearted lady, seeing the act of cruelty to the horse, called out sternly from an upper window: "Have you no mercy?" "No, mum," was the reply, "nothin' but herrin."—Forest and Stream.

THE Southern Churchman remarks that "If God in his providence calls men into political life, let them go into it, willing to take their lives in their hands and to sacrifice everything rather than principles; but if God calls not, men had better not be offering themselves to the public as desirous of office, only to get a living or to make money." This is forewarned and logical, and if such standards controlled the people of the separate States corruption would be banished from legislative halls.

The work on the organ of Christ church is sufficiently advanced to admit of holding the service in church today. Rev. C. G. Vardell will preach to-night at 8 p. m., at Ebenezer Presbyterian church (col.). The public are cordially invited to attend.

The Atlantic Road has done so well the last year we would now like to ask if the time has not come when it can give a better service by putting on a double daily mail. We would be glad to see it and we believe it would prove a rapid stride in developing new business in this section.

We have received a copy of the address of Hon. Kemp P. Battle, delivered July 4th, 1891, at the battle ground of Guilford court house, on "The Life and Services of Brigadier General Jethro Sumner." It is a substantial pamphlet of 51 pages and is an interesting and valuable addition to the historical documents relating to the patriots of North Carolina in the stirring and trying times of '76.

Mrs. J. D. Carpenter, who, a short time ago conducted a series of meetings in Hancock Street Methodist church has commenced her meetings in Wilmington. The Star says of them: They continue with increasing interest, and the attendance grows larger as the meetings progress. Last night when the services closed there were seven penitents at the altar, and four conversions were reported.

The report of the New Bern Academy trustees alluded to in yesterday's JOURNAL was in reference to its former property, corner Pollock and Craven streets, a portion of which was recently sold by them to the U. S. Government for the site of the public building soon to be erected, and the remainder to the Episcopal church for the site of their rectory, on which the contractor, Mr. J. A. Simpson has already begun work.

All is not harmonious in the second Baptist church (col.), of James City. A meeting was held Saturday before last to elect a pastor. The former incumbent of the office and a portion of the members consider that he was re-elected. Others maintain that he was not. These differences of opinion led to confusion during last Sunday's meetings and a number of the attendants are charged with disturbing the religious services. Eq. Hill took the testimony in the case yesterday but reserved his decision.

Brought from Bern. Mayor Manly brought back with him a number of interesting souvenirs of his trip to Bern to attend the celebration of the 700th anniversary of its founding. Among them is a folding picture, 15 feet in length, of the historical pageant in which 3,100 people participated. He has also a number of medals made for the occasion.

One large silver one that we have examined has on one side the head of Duke Zechringen, the founder of the city, with his shield and crest below. The other side has the coat of arms of Bern, being a shield with a bear in the center; this surmounted by a crown and the whole surmounted by the cross of the Confederation of Switzerland and all surrounded by a pretty wreath in which dates of important events in the city's history are interwoven. Both sides have proper inscriptions. The medal is dated 1191-1891.

Mayor Manly also brought with him a large, magnificent, very handsome and profusely illustrated history of Bern, well supplied with maps of Switzerland at different periods of its history. This was a present "to New Bern from the mother city Bern."

Coming and Going. Gen. W. G. Lewis passed through yesterday morning en route from making surveys of the oyster grounds to spend a short time at his home in Goldsboro.

Miss Louise and Master Seymour Dennison are back from spending the summer visiting friends in Clinton, N. Y.

Mr. F. Mahler, formerly of this city, now of Fort Monroe is in the city.

Mr. Geo. Ives returned last night from a northern trip—also his family who have been spending the summer North.

Prof. B. C. Bragg, who has been taking a summer course in law at the University, arrived last night to resume his position in the New Bern College Institute.

Miss Susan Hardison, of Pamlico, came up to enter the Institute.

Rev. W. B. Rone, presiding elder, passed through en route from his home in Goldsboro to hold quarterly conference at Beaufort and Morehead.

Mrs. J. E. Franklin, of Morehead, returned home from a visit to her sisters, Mrs. Philomena Holland and Mrs. Henrietta Hay.

Col. Hunsdale and two daughters of Raleigh are in the city a few days stopping at Hotel Albert.

HORNED SEA MONSTER.

Eighty Feet in Length and Cuts the Water Like an Ocean Racer.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 24.—Fishermen returning from the far-off Flemish Cape fishing bank today tell of a mammoth sea serpent and strange marine monster seen on the banks this season. A sea serpent over eighty feet in length, resembling a giant squid, was observed one morning while the crews were engaged in hauling their trawls. He was also seen by the men aboard the vessels. He made a noise similar to the rumbling of a train of cars, and ploughed the water before him like a big ocean steamer. Two enormous horns projected from his head, and he is described as an enormous creature. The monster made but one appearance, and was evidently bound north.

THE FIEND CAPTURED.

Boston's Bridge Train Wrecker Alleged to Have Been Arrested.

DANVILLE, Va., September 24.—The Register has private information that detectives employed by the Richmond and Danville Railroad have arrested at Newton, N. C., the man believed to be guilty of wrecking the train some time since at Boston's Bridge, causing the disaster in which so many lives were lost.

The detectives are very reticent, not even giving the name of the man arrested, but it is known that the evidence against the prisoner is strong, he having been caught trying to sell jewelry known to have belonged to persons killed in the wreck.

THE CHEAP RATES.

The Associated Railway Give These on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

Yesterday Mr. A. J. Cooke received official information from Mr. Carpenter of the Associated Railways that Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are the days upon which the rate of one cent per mile will be given to the Exposition. This appears to settle that matter, unless the management of the Exposition can induce the railways to give the low rate on Fridays.—State Chronicle.

Terrible Death from Trichinosis.

Anna Hohenfort, a pretty nineteen year old Hoboken girl, the niece of Confectioner Albert Stuenkel, of 290 Washington street, was buried Tuesday last. She died a few days ago in terrible agony from trichinosis. She lived with her uncle and aunt and assisted in the household. About a fortnight ago she was attacked by pains in her arms and shoulders, but nothing serious was thought of it. The pains grew so intense that Dr. Atwell was called in. He treated her for inflammatory rheumatism, but no relief being obtained, the physician instituted a searching examination. The muscles of the girl's body were then alive with the deadly trichinosis and a swarm of the tiny parasites were revealed by the microscope. Drs. Fisher and Knudsen were called in, but the best efforts of the three physicians were without avail. The best known remedies failed to give the slightest relief, and her agony was so great toward the end that she prayed for death. None of the other members of the family were affected by the disease. Boiled ham was partaken of by all alike a few weeks ago, and it is supposed that Anna ate a morsel of it raw while preparing it for the cooking.

A Monster Saw Fish.

The Wilmington Review says: Bob Freeman, with the Freeman seine, caught a monster saw fish at Carolina Beach yesterday. It was 16 feet long and the saw was 3 feet in length. It weighed about 1,000 pounds and its liver filled a flour barrel. The liver, by the way, is about the only part of this fish that is of value. It is boiled down and the oil extracted from it. The fish is unfit for the table.

[We think the Review is mistaken about the saw fish being unfit for the table. We believe that it is esteemed a great delicacy, and hundreds of boats are constantly engaged off Massachusetts in their capture.—Ed. N. and O.]

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Eucaly of Figs a few weeks ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietary and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.

EXPOSITION NEWS.

Special Features—Great Interest Displayed.

Miss Lillian Hunt has been engaged to give several exhibitions of her wonderful skill in rifle shooting at the Exposition grounds. These special entertainments will be of both accurate and fancy shooting.

Many persons, who like to be sight-seers, have asked what will be some of the attractions on the opening day. Here are a few: A balloon ascension; races, ball-playing (lacrosse) by Cherokee Indians, of whom twenty will be present. The races, it is said, will also be run on the 2nd of October.

A lightning crayon artist will give daily exhibitions during the Exposition.

An Atlanta man proposes to bring twenty ponies, to be ridden by children around the grounds.

Yesterday was the very busiest day in the way of preparations. The fact impressed everybody. The State exhibits and the county exhibits are growing. Florida is coming to the front in great shape and will give North Carolina a race for first place and the honors. Its exhibits are here and are going in position rapidly.

Twelve of the counties have their spaces beautifully decorated. The managers of these are putting in exhibits. Wake is using considerable tobacco for decorative purposes.

Telegrams from Northern people, asking space privileges, at fancy prices, are coming in. As all the space in the main building is taken, these people are given space in the grounds. Some will put up buildings, others will use tents.

The transformation wrought in the appearance of the interior of the building in the last two days is really remarkable. The officials say that the Exposition will be bigger than ever they had hoped it would be, and that it grows all the while.

A baby show is to be one of the features and the Standard music company of Winston will manage it. From noon to 1 o'clock p. m. daily, the show will be held. The prettiest baby will receive a silver dollar and a ticket. On the last day of the Exposition the most beautiful baby of all shown during the entire period will be given a Bridgeport organ, worth $135.

Mr. John B. Stone returned yesterday from a trip South, soliciting exhibits, and brings news that a large number of persons in the various cities will visit the Exposition. He was surprised at the interest shown.—Ral. Chronicle.

No griping or nausea after using Brookfield's Liver and Kidney Pills. Will cure Biliousness, Constipation, Torpid Liver and stomach troubles. Sugar coated, oval. Price 25 cents. Give them a trial. For sale by F. S. Duffy, New Bern, N. C.

A Common Sense Remedy.

In the matter of curatives what you want is something that will do its work while you continue to do yours—a remedy that will give you no inconvenience nor interfere with your business. Such a remedy is ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. These plasters are not an experiment; they have been in use for over thirty years, and their value has been attested by the highest medical authorities, as well as by testimonials from those who have used them. They require no change of diet and are not affected by wet or cold. Their action does not interfere with labor or business; you can toil and yet be cured while hard at work. They are so pure that the youngest, the oldest, the most delicate person of either sex can use them with great benefit.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentations. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.
