ENGLAND and Germany have each applied for 200,000 square feet of space for their respective exhibits at the Chicago Fair.

"Tell the truth." This is what Cleveland said when asked what reply should be made to certain charges. So we say of all things, and everybody.

The tariff question is, in the language of Judge Crisp, who is one of the strongest thinkers in public life, "the greatest question that is before the American people today."

The Russian nobility are in comparatively as wretched circumstances as the peasantry. In October there will be nearly 900 estates belonging to nobles sold by auction at the instance of the State Bank that has loaned them money on mortgages. The estates will bring for less than their mortgage value on account of the inability of Jews, or foreign syndicates to acquire landed property.

We had not noticed that Judge Seymour was looking to promotion when we wrote the brief reference to him and Judge Buxton. Judge Seymour hopes to be one of the new Appellate Court. North Carolina will not object to him if a Democrat can not get the place, and if a North Carolina Republican must have the place vacated by Judge Seymour in the United States District Court then perhaps Judge Buxton will do as well as any other who might get it. A petition has been sent to the President of the Republican party to appoint Mr. Buxton.—Wilmington Messenger.

"The result of the elections in these four States, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, and Iowa, is quite likely to give one, or both parties a strong hint in the make-up of their national tickets. Next year, if Flower has a big victory in New York, he may loom up as a Presidential quantity. So also as to Campbell in Ohio and Boies in Iowa, and a Western candidate would make Gov. Russell a strong name for second place on the ticket. If Maj. McKinley should win, not by the ordinary Republican majority, but by an increased one, he would very likely brush Harrison aside and make Mr. Blaine a sicker man than he is now reported to be by the administration press."

The expenditures for pensions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, as now officially stated, amounted to $123,413,961.40. In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1890, we paid $109,357,534, while in the year before that we paid $87,644,779.11. In the last ten years our pension payments have amounted to $776,282,100.47. The cost of the German army, it may be interesting to note, is for this year estimated at $80,977,833. Besides our pensions our army costs $30,000,000.—New York Herald editorial. These are stupendous and startling figures. They stand like a huge interrogation and exclamation point combined to arouse the attention of the Republic and inquire how such things can be in the United States. Are the people going to permit this outrage much longer? How can they?

The presentation of the "Lime Kiln Club" at the theatre was greatly enjoyed though the attendance was not very large. It was fun for the boys but—to the audience. For further particulars see our late Acting-Mayor or the Manager of the Ice Factory.

Miss Clara Morris is still continuing her canvass in this city, and meeting with very good success. The book she is handling is on good paper, is well printed and nicely bound and presents in a convenient form a large amount of information necessary to every one of all ages and in every station of life.

Raleigh is in glory. The Exposition had a splendid opening. There is much to attract and interest. Gov. Holt made a long and practical address of welcome; ten thousand people viewed the procession; many amusements are provided at the ground; the people are enjoying themselves and all bids fair for a successful exhibition.

Richard Dixon, colored, who lives a few miles from the city was tried before S. R. Street, J. P., yesterday on the charge of forgery by changing the date of a receipt from 1891 to 1890. He was bound over to Superior court in the sum of $200. W. W. Clark and R. E. Nixon represented the prosecution, and O. H. Guion, and J. E. O'Hara, the defense.

It having been found that lack of moisture prevents covered shell rock pavements from hardening and proving as satisfactory as those exposed to the weather, the experiment of mixing salt with the material as it is spread to attract moisture is being tried in front of Messrs. W. H. Cohen's and J. W. Moore's business places. Also in front of Mr. K. R. Jones' grocery and the stores above it.

Mr. Jas. Willis, who has worked at the tinners trade six years and for the past few years been with Mr. D. G. Smaw, has procured a new and full set of both roofing and shop tools and struck out for himself. His first job is to tin the eight houses Mr. C. T. Watson is putting up. A pretty good beginning for the young man. We look for him to succeed. With the large amount of building going on there is room for more workmen.

Mr. Joshua Dean, of Pamlico, informs us that he has a sandy tract of upland in cotton which will average 6 feet in height throughout. One of the highest stalks, by actual measurement over a week ago was 8 feet 9 inches high and has ere this, in all probability exceeded 9 feet and moreover the cotton is of an improved variety and is fairly well balled. We reminded Mr. Dean that he must not neglect to save some of the best stalks with all the bolls on it for the New Berne Fair and in addition to that he proposed sending some of them to the Inter-State Exposition.

Coming and Going. Mr. W. D. Molyer left yesterday morning to attend Troy court on professional business. Miss Myrtle E. Pope returned last night from a visit to friends at Dover. Miss Nellie Walker and Miss Eliza returned last night from the Inter-State Exposition well pleased with the trip. Capt. Dave Roberts went down to the depot on a visit to his mother and sister.

CITIZENS' BANK.

Permanent Organization—List of Officers—Solid Foundation—Bright Outlook.

On Tuesday night, the Incorporation of the Citizens' Bank of Newberne met at the office of O. H. Guion, Esq., for the purpose of organizing under the charter granted by the General Assembly of 1891.

From among the subscribers to the capital stock, the following named stockholders were present or represented at the meeting: James Redmond, E. H. Meadows, F. Ulrich, J. A. Meadows, Chas. Reizenstein, Wm. Dunn, Chas. Duffy, Jr., C. C. Green, Geo. N. Ives, M. Makely, Basil Manly, T. G. Churchill, Miss F. E. Guion, J. W. Grainger, John Dunn, Mayor Hahn, O. H. Guion, C. H. Fowler, W. H. Sawyer, D. E. Hooker, John P. Hall, S. W. Ispook, M. E. Sulist, W. H. Whitehurst, C. E. For, Smallwood & Slover, T. A. Green and Matt Manly.

The meeting was opened for business by the call of Mr. Wm. Dunn to the chair, Mr. O. Reizenstein being requested to act as Secretary. The incorporators agreed that operation under the charter should begin as soon as it should be ascertained that $50,000 was subscribed. This amount being fully subscribed the books of subscriptions were declared closed and a meeting of the stockholders at once held at the same time and place and a permanent organization at once entered into by the election of the following officers and directors:

Present, T. A. Green: Vice President, Wm. Dunn, Cashier, C. E. For, Teller, E. M. Groves, Attorney, Owen H. Guion, Directors, Chas. Duffy, Jr., E. H. Meadows, F. Ulrich, C. H. Fowler, Jas. Redmond, Chas. Reizenstein, S. W. Ispook, E. W. Smallwood, M. Hahn, J. A. Meadows, G. N. Ives.

This organization was effected under the most favorable auspices—the officers of the banks, their reputation for integrity, and honorable dealings and their unquestionable financial ability, bespeak for the corporation a most successful career.

The President and Cashier formerly composed the well known firm of Green, Foy & Co., bankers, and the skillful and careful management by them of their private banking business and their experience in banking matters, renders their election a source of congratulation to the new bank.

The Vice President Mr. Wm. Dunn, stands second to none in our community, as a man of the finest and surest judgment in all matters of business; is of the most upright character and a man who justly merits the confidence of this section.

The Board of Directors have been selected with the greatest care, looking to the best interest of the Bank, from among our best business men and are an honor to any business institution.

While speaking of the Citizens Bank as a new Bank and it is such in point of organization—yet it is created upon the firm foundation built up by the old firm of Green, Foy & Co., and began operation on Oct. 1st, with the most flattering prospect.

We bespeak for the new bank a most prosperous future. And the advantage of the new corporation in, that the operation of the same business heretofore carried on by the firm of Green, Foy & Co., will be continued under the new organization and customers of Green, Foy & Co., will not be interfered with as to their business operations on account of the new organization.

Church Notice. Hancock Street M. E. Church—Rev. T. P. Ricard, pastor. Services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Prayer meeting at 9 a. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m., W. R. Harrington, Superintendent. The public are invited to these services and will receive a cordial welcome.

South Front Street Crossing. Mr. Editor:—I see you made mention of reducing the incline of the South Front Street railway crossing to a grade of one foot in thirty feet. Why not do away with the incline altogether? It is just as easy. If the railroad will throw a span even of twelve feet length across the street, and remove that much of embankment down to grade, our carriages and truckmen will be enabled to pass under the railroad on a level, and that much help will be afforded the traffic on South Front street, while the simple span will be left on either side for communication between Railroad street and South Front street as any incline that may be suggested. There is little passing of vehicles between these two streets at this point and one foot in thirty would be ample, but the railway embankment crossing South Front street puts a barrier between two sections of our city, and it possible this obstacle to easy communication should be removed. This improvement we learn, at one time was in contemplation.

Desires to Bear Testimony. Henry Thorne, Travelling Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., writes from Exeter Hall, Strand, London, February 24, 1898: "I desire to bear my testimony to the value of ALCOCK'S PAIN EXPELLER. I have used them for pains in the back and side arising from rheumatic and other causes never without deriving benefit from their application. They are easily applied and very comforting. Those engaged as I am in public work, which involves exposure to sudden changes of temperature, will do well to keep a supply of ALCOCK'S PAIN EXPELLER."

A HORRIBLE COLLISION.

Ten Persons Mangled and Many Others Hurt.

AKRON, O., Sept. 30.—Early this morning a collision occurred one mile east of Kent, on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad. Second division of freight train No. 85, going thirty miles an hour, ran into the sixth section of passenger train No. 4, which was making the same time. Three persons were killed outright and twenty-four injured, seven fatally.

The collision occurred on a long fill 80 feet high, in the middle of which was a bridge 60 feet long over the Pittsburg and Western tracks. Part of the passenger train crossed on the bridge when the crash came. The engines plowed into each other and reared high in the air, and the cars on each side crushed together like cardboard.

The stove was overturned and the timber work fire, flames bursting out in an instant. shrieks of women and children, who were wedged in close to the burning timber, summoned workers to that part of the wreck, and a score of men were soon cutting away through the debris.

HOW IT OCCURRED. Superintendent J. S. Matson, who went from Meadville to investigate the accident, says that the blame rest with the crew of the freight train. They had instructions to wait at Ravenna until the sixth section of the excursion train passed. Conductor Bisegert of the freight, claims that there were no lights on the fifth section to indicate that another section was to follow.

In a few minutes more the freight would have made the Kent siding and the accident would have been avoided. Confirmed. The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.

DIED. Thursday evening Oct. 1st, Mrs. Laura N. Medford. The funeral services will be held at her late residence this morning at 9 o'clock on East Front street, three doors from the corner of Pollock street. The friends and acquaintance of the family are invited to attend.

Vapor Poison and Its Antidote. The morning and evening mists that pervade the atmosphere of malarious localities cannot be breathed with impunity. A safeguard is needed to render harmless the dangerous miasma with which they are impregnated. The surest and most effective is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is an antidote to the poison which has already been inhaled and borne fruit, an adequate preventive of its harmful effects. No preparative for breathers of miasma tainted air or drinkers of malarial poisoned water like the Bitters. It completely neutralizes the otherwise irresistible onset of the miasma. Settle on newly cleared land, excavators of canal routes (notably that on the Isthmus of Panama), western pioneers and emigrants—in short, all subjected to malarial influences in air or water find in it a benign remedy, an effectual safeguard. Disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, "la grippe," rheumatism and kidney complaints are remedied by the Bitters.
