Liberality of New Berne.

Editor Journal:—Some time ago, through the columns of the New Berne Journal, a plea was made to the people of Jones Co., and to others for aid in the erection of a large academy in the town of Trenton. Immediately a canvass was made throughout the county for subscription on the stockholders plan: and the amount of fourteen hundred dollars was pledged in shares of twenty five dollars each. As this amount was not deemed sufficient, Mr. J. B. Banks was saked to solicis aid from the citizens of New Berne. Had he received only two hundred dollars we would have considered that liberal but when Mr. Banks returned and reported that Hon Jas. Bryan had inten four shares and thirteen other prominent gentiemen and firms had taken each one share, we were supprised of the liberality of our sister town; and our hearts were filled with gratifude.

The following gentlemen, and firms sook such one share, Mesare. Chas. Rejeanstein, L. J. Moore, Jas. Redmond, Samual W. Brahlwood, J. O. Whitty, P. G. dimmons, K. B. Jones, Watson, & Daniels, Green, Foy & Co., E. H. & J. Liberality of New Berne.

That "Autumn remember the days of apring" is beautifully demonstrated in the pink and white loveliness of the apple blossoms that adorns the almost leafless branches at this season of the year. We have in our garden quite a large apple tree on which is a commingling of fruit and flowers. The fruit is of the late variety, and is some what scarce; but the flowers are almost as profuse as they were in the early spring.
