NEW BERNE, Oct. 15 .- The capitalists and projectors of the Norfolk, Wilming-ton and Charleston Railroad, compris-ing parties from Philadelphia, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Danville, New York city, Boston and Chicago, arrived at Norfolk over the Cape Charles route Wednesday morning, October 7, and were met by the Chamber of Commerce were met by the Chamber of Commerce and representative citizens of that town and conducted to the New Atlantic Hotel, where we partook of a sumptuous dinner. In the afternoon a magnificent steamer, the City of Chester, belonging to the Atlantic and Danville Railroad Company, was tendered us for an excursion.

After leaving the navy yard we steamed back to the wharf, where carriages were in waiting for us to return to the hotel. Here we were met by Ex-Governor Jarvis, of North Carolina, and prominent business men of the oity.

Norfolk being the eastern terminus of the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad, is a city so situated that it really is the seaport of the whole of the South. It is generally well mown that the facilities for shipping freight are far superior to any port of the United States, and when the belt line is established it will closely cement and establish better relations of all railroads terminating at that point.

We left next day on a special over the Norfolk and Carolina, a part of the Sermon by Rev. R. D. Harding, of Atlantic Coast Line system, for Tarboro Wilson. Text, John xiv-2: "In my Father's house are many mansions; if beech and ash, the latter being so plenti it were not so, I would have told you; ful that the natives burn it.
