THE JOURNAL.

E. HARPER, - - | Proprietor T. HANCOCK, - Local Reporter. Entered at the Postaffice at New Berns

ON THE HOME STRETCH. With this week closes the most energetic canvass that has been witnessed in this country in an "off" year, in a quarter of a century.

In New York each side has to national issues, laying particular stress upon the importance of holding New York in line for the Presi dential contest of 1892. The Re do. publicans have made their whole fight upon Tammany. All their -ing attention from their rhinoceros, anaconda and orangoutang. Their avoidance of the tariff, silver, the is a tacit admission of their ina- required. bility to stand upon great preponderating issues, and the absolute fortunes. The decisive moment is at hand.

The registration is completed, and all parties profess to be satisfied with the result. The registration in New York City is 251,917. Last year it was 244,970. In 1888 the total registration was 286,542. In Brooklyn the registration this year is 157,702. Last year it was 136 967. In 1888 itwas 156,194. Democrats claim that Flower will have a ma jo: ity of 35.000.

There is very little betting on the result, Republicans being unwilling on for his attitude upon the to loose both their money and their temperance question, referring to candidate. Bets have been made the barrel of whisky which he is to at ten to seven on Flower, and one receive from Mr. Carnegie. Mrs. bet is reported of $1,000 to $400 on

In Ohio the Republicans prepose to end their campaign with a great hurrah. The State Commit tee have arranged for forty mass Will cure Billousness, Constitution.

Ex-Speaker Reed will close at Cleveland, Burrows at Toledo, Sherman at Alliance, Foraker at Zanesville, Foster at Lancaster and McKinley at Cincinnati.

What does this mean ? Why, the woods are on fire. The farmers have abandoned the Third party. Ohio is ablaze with Democratic enthusiasm, and the Republicans have turned out their fire brigade. Water! water !! is their cry, but the smoke of their torment arises for ever! Campbell is making from two to six speeches a day, but the sign of victory is in the fact that every haystack has become a rostrum and every farmer an orator. "The Campbells are coming o'ho, o'ho!"
