Guess I am stuck on those sittings.

I understand, Mr. Editor, that Newbern is to have Electric street care. That's all right. Put me down as a subscriber to one share of the stock. Come to think of it, I'd like to take the whole of the stock myself. The road may not pay any dividends, but it will have a great moral effect. If it don't carry more than two passengers a day, it will at least give employment to one conductor and engineer to each car, and furnish diversion to the crowds of interested colored people who will listlessly watch its transit to and fro, but at prespresent bays nothing to do. There is nothing like being up with the times; darn the expense.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN LA GRANGE

Causing merchants and citizens to shuider when it was announced that A. W. Kannedy had assigned to N. J. Rouse, throwing his entire stock on the market at and below New York cost. It is wonderful how the people desert their usual piaces of trading when such large bankrupt stocks are thrown on the market. Only a few days had elapsed when, on Thursday, Nov. 19th. 1891, the mighty from horse of the old Atlantic, as it was nearing the little city, the brakeman in mighty thundering tones was heard to exclaim "Isa Grange," and at once the merchants and ditzens on the streets in La Grange remarked, "There goes Big like, who buys so many merchants out at 40.50 and 61½ cents on the dollar." Very soon Big like, with his assistant H. V. Williams, and R. B. Kinsey, representing the assignee, were seen packing up the entire stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes.
