Mr. Chas. Hallock went down Havelock to spend a few days.

Fire Company's Work in a Blizzard. Mr. Charles Hallock, who is now tolerably well known to the people of New Berne, has considerable landed property in the Red River Valley, in Minnesota. In 1879 he founded and plotted the town of Hallock, which is the county seat of Kitteon county, a flourishing place with a boom now on. One of Mr. Hallock's possessions is a big hotel out there, which is known all over the Northwest. On the evening of December 4th instant, while the worst snow storm ever experienced in that section was raging, it took fire, but was happily saved by the marvellous work of the local fire company, which had to haul their machine four blocks through snow drifts piled ten feet deep in some places. There were seventy-five persons in the building, including a theatrical troupe. Hotel and contents were valued at $15.000. Had the building burned the greater part of the town would have gone, as a hurricane was blowing and had been for forty-eight hours. That same afternoon twentynine business houses and dwellings in the town of Argyle, in the adjoining county, were burned with a loss of $100,000.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.
