THE JOURNAL.

Some Good Rules.

In an exchange we find the following rules, which were very much enforced upon us when we were young, and we do not think they would injure the world to be practiced now a little more universally;

Never exaggerate. Never point at another. Never betray a confidence. Never wantonly frighten others. Never neglect to call upon friends.

Never leave home with unkind words. Never laugh at the misfortune of others.

Never give a promise which you do not fulfill. Never send a present, hoping for one in return.

Never speak much of your own performances. Never fail to be punctual at the time appointed.

Never make yourself the hero of your own story. Never pick the teeth or clean the nails in company.

Never fail to give a polite answer to a civil question. Never question a servant or a child about family affairs.

Never present a gift, saying it is of no use to yourself. Never read letters that you may find addressed to others.

Never fail, if a gentleman, of being polite and civil to ladies. Never call attention to the features or form of any one present.

Never associate with bad company; have good company, or none. Never look over the shoulder of another who is reading or writing.

Never appear to notice a scar, deformity, or defect in any one present. Never refer to a gift you have made, or a favor you have rendered.

Never arrest the attention of an acquaintance by a touch; speak to him.

LEMON ELIXIR.

A PLEASANT LEMON DRINK. For biliousness and constipation, take Lemon Elixir.

For indigestion and foul stomach, take Lemon Elixir.

For sick and nervous headaches, take Lemon Elixir.

For sleeplessness and nervousness, take Lemon Elixir.

For loss of appetite and debility, take Lemon Elixir.

For fever, chills and malaria, take Lemon Elixir.

Lemon Elixir will not fail you in any of the above diseases, all of which arise from a torpid or diseased liver, stomach, kidneys, bowels or blood.

Prepared only by Dr. H. Mosley, Atlanta, Ga. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by druggists.

A PROMINENT MINISTER WRITES. After ten years of great suffering from indigestion, with great nervous prostration, biliousness, disordered kidneys and constipation, I have been cured by Dr. Mosley's Lemon Elixir, and am now a well man.

Rev. C. O. DAVIS, Eld. M. E. Church South, No. 28 Tattall st., Atlanta, Ga.

Paris green cannot be used alone with safety stronger than 1 lb. to 300 gallons of water, but with the lime mixture it may be very safely used at 1 lb. to from 50 to 200 gallons of water. The least injury is done to the foliage of plants when the liquid dries off most rapidly; the time of day when the application is made is unimportant.

A Chamber of Horrors. The apartment to which the unhappy wretch is confined by inflammatory rheumatism is indeed a chamber of horrors. Appalling are the tortures inflicted by this agonizing complaint, and those endured by persons suffering from milder forms of it are severe enough. Obstacles as to its nature and development, it is rarely remediable at the outset, with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an infinitely safer as well as more efficacious remedy than the poisons often used to subdue it. Always should it be borne in mind by those seeking relief from rheumatism, that though conquerable in the incipient stage, it is not only stubborn but dangerous when fully developed, on account of its tendency to attack the vital parts. This consideration should lead to the early adoption of curative measures. The Bitters will overcome malarial, kidney, dyspeptic and bilious trouble.
