H. B. Battle, Director of the State Board of Agricultural writes us; In view of erroneous and misleading accounts, I desire to send you a true statement of the recent fertilizer suit; and would be glad to see it appear in your columns.

The Board of Agriculture last June, nfactured by the Durham Fertilizer Co., for being below its guarantee. At the trial of the case last week, the Durham Co. claimed that the sale was complete, and that they had nothing to do with the fertilizer. On this point the judge decided in their favor, and the attorneys for the Board of Agriculture entered a non suit and took an appeal to the Supreme Court. The question of was not tried.
