BALTIMORE is bad off with the grip, with its more than 5,000 cases.

WHAT'S the matter with this ticket. For President, John M. Palmer, of Illinois; for Vice-President, Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland.—WIL STAR.

W. B. SUMMERS, railroad agent at Lithonia, Ga., has turned up after a disappearance of a week, and reports that he was abducted and robbed of $200 by masked men.

"AN American national hymn is certainly a desideratum. It would not detract from the respect freely accorded to "Yankee Doodle" and the other patriotic jingles of today to adopt a national hymn that would be worthy of the Republic."

THE most favorable reports continue to accumulate regarding the business outlook for 1892. Secretary Rusk estimates that the American crops for 1891 are worth one thousand million dollars more than those of 1890. This is tangible and measurable wealth.

A PARTY of Polish peasants, who some time ago emigrated to Brazil, in the belief that by so doing their condition would be greatly improved, have returned to their homes in a destitute condition. They state that they found it an impossibility to gain a livelihood in Brazil by any means.

It is said that Gov. Hill will turn back into the State treasury his salary as Governor, which has accrued since the day that he should have taken his seat in the United States Senate. This is eminently proper. The Governor admits that he held on to the Governorship in order to punish Jones.

GEN. THOMAS J. BRADY, formerly Second Assistant Postmaster General, says of the appointment of Stephen B. Elkins as Secretary of War: "The nomination of Elkins is most gratifying, in that it shows a great change in sentiment since the reign of terror under Garfield and Arthur. Who would have thought that in less than ten years the king of the star-rotters would be called to the Cabinet of Garfield and Arthur's first Republican successor? Verily the world do move."

CHINA had to wait a year or two before getting our ultimatum to her complaint of the outrage committed on the Chinese in the West. It is nine months since Italy complained of the killing of her subjects in New Orleans and a final answer has not yet been made. Secretary Blaine told the Italian premier that the controversy must take the usual diplomatic course and that the United States would not be hurried. Why should we not accord to Chili what we demanded as our right from Italy?

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 21.—The board of directors of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association met in Mayor Ellyson's office today. The Southern Press Association have collected considerable money, which they will apply to the Richmond movement. They report between $15,000 and $20,000 subscribed. The board elected as members of the association Patrick Walsh, of Augusta; J. L. Weber, of Charleston; B. C. and Capt. Childress, of Nashville; and elected as general agents to solicit contributions B. A. Cunningham, who will

The Richmond Dispatch mentions that the paper with the largest circulation in the world is the Paris Petit Journal, which in 1890 gave its copies at 950,000 daily. That is larger than the North Carolina papers by some thousands. We suppose that the New York World has the largest circulation of any American newspaper.

OFFICIALS of the State and Navy Departments observe a studied reticence in regard to the Chilian affair. It was learned, however, that no communications have been received from Chili by either Department since Thursday last, when the Secretary of State received a long message from Minister Egan. While no positive information can be obtained as to the exact character of this message, it is known to have reference to the case of the political refugees now under the protection of the American minister. It is understood that no action will be taken by this Government until it is officially advised of the result of the investigation by the Chilian authorities of the killing of the sailors of the Baltimore. The United States ship Boston left Montevideo on the 11th instant, and will reach Valparaiso in a day or two.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Bargain Store—Specialties, Salvation Army—Cake and coffee supper.

COTTON—New Berne Market—Sales 62 bales at 6 1/4 to 6 3/4.

Tickets for the Cook entertainment tomorrow night are on sale at Green's drug store.

All of the King's Daughters are requested to meet at the residence of Miss Mayhew promptly at three o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. J. W. Stewart's expected stock of horses which he went on to Kentucky himself and purchased recently, arrived last night.

There will be no prayer meeting at the Church of Christ tonight. The Christmas tree will be held at the church tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

Postmaster Clarke informs us that five cart loads of Christmas presents have gone off by mail from New Berne. That looks as if somebody is being remembered.

Report reaches us from Aurora of three assignments in that place, Messrs. J. B. Bryan & Son, Lee T. Thompson, and B. F. Mayo. The first mentioned is the oldest mercantile house in Aurora.

It was much regretted that the delay of the train prevented the arrival of President Winton in time for the lecture, but Prof. Adams very kindly entertained those present at the theatre with the musical portion of the program.

Mr. S. G. Bragaw has simply rented one of Mr. O. H. Gulon's suite of rooms over the Citizen's Bank, which he will use as his law office. They have no intention of entering into any co-partnership for the practice of their profession.

As the JOURNAL will suspend two issues for the Christmas holidays all religious and other notices which usually appear in Saturday's and Sunday's papers must be handed in today so they can appear tomorrow if the interested parties wish to make the accustomed announcements.

Christmas is in full blast with its usual noise. While a thousand and one cautions could be given we will give but one, and that is, be very careful, boys, how you handle powder or throw fire crackers. It would not take much of an explosion near your own or a comrade's face to destroy eyesight, not to speak of other ways in which injury might ensue.

We have information that Messrs. Moore & Brady will re-open their oyster cannery the first of January. We will all be very glad to have these gentlemen with us again. Their factory gives employment, this supplies their hands with each which is spent among our business men, making better times all around. We wish the factory also canned vegetables here and would remain at all seasons.

WEDDED.

The Cutler-Watkins Marriage.
The City Alive With Interest.

The Bridal Gift was Beauty, Character and a Heart of Purest Sympathy.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Belle, eldest daughter of L. H. Cutler, Esq., one of New Berne's prominent and most successful business men, to Mr. Jesse Clarence Watkins, of Greensboro, was solemnized in the Centenary Methodist Church on yesterday morning, in the presence of a large number of friends.

THE REV. R. A. WILLIS, Pastor, united the happy couple with the formula of the church, as eager eyes watched him celebrate the nuptials of a matrimonial alliance which has been a favorite topic of conversation in the social circles of our city for some time.

THE CHURCH was so tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens that it presented an unusually attractive appearance.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. J. A. Meadows as the bridal party entered the church in the following order: Messrs. Shepard Bryan, S. J. Durham of Greensboro, an intimate friend of the groom, D. W. Roberts and P. C. Cox acted as ushers.

The groom, and Mr. A. H. Powell, who was "best man"; the maid of honor, Miss Addie Cutler. After them came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father.

A peculiarity consisted in the absence of bridesmaids and groomsmen, neither of these auxiliaries being brought into requisition.

After the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Watkins left on the morning train in a special car for Greensboro, their future home.

THE BRIDE has ever had favoritism showered upon her by a host of admiring friends, and the true, unassuming graces of her strong Southern nature have touched the best affections and noblest impulses of many a heart. She finished her studies at Greensboro Female College, and possesses gifts of a high order in music and elocution.

THE ARRANGEMENTS for the wedding were of a quiet kind, though elaborate and handsomely completed. The very soul of kindness splendidly characterized the nuptial hospitalities.

GATHERING OF FRIENDS. The home of the bride was made a scene of brilliancy and enjoyability on Tuesday evening, where friends of the contracting parties were gathered, not for effect, but for delightful social intercourse.

Princely liberality ministered to the epicurean appetite.

THE PRESENTS were numerous and valuable, showing the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

THE BRIDAL TROUSSEAU, having been prepared with a great degree of care, is elegant.

Many expressed heartfelt wishes that the rarest benedictions which fall to the lot of husband and wife be with them throughout life.

Coming and Going. Miss Mary Hay returned yesterday morning from a trip to Morehead to attend the marriage of her cousin, Miss Eva Franklin.

Mrs. Mattie E. Perkins of Newport came up to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Hardison.

Mrs. W. B. Boyd went up to Goldsboro to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Kornegay.

Mr. W. K. Styron and family left for Hampton, Va., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Styron's relatives.

Miss Myrtle Pope is back from Dover to spend the Christmas holidays at her home.

Miss Janie Klutz of Salisbury, arrived last night to visit Mrs. C. G. Vardell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barrington left by private conveyance for Institute to spend Christmas at Mrs. Barrington's father, Mr. J. M. Patrick's.

Miss Bettie Hall came up from Harveys, where she is teaching school, to spend Christmas at her home.

Mr. Wm. T. McCarthy, a law student of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., arrived last night to spend the holidays home. His cousin, Miss Nellie Colligan, who is attending Notre Dame College, Baltimore, also returned home for the same purpose.

Prof. Geo. T. Winton, President of the University arrived and is the guest of Mr. C. R. Thomas.

The steamer Nones of the E. O. D. line brought in the following passengers: Mr. R. H. Berry returning home from a Northern trip on insurance business; Mrs. Edgmond Strudwick, of Norfolk, to spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. John Hughes; Prof. E. G. Daves, of Baltimore, to visit relatives in the city; Mr. Melzer Orr and family to spend Christmas at Mr. Needham Case's; Mrs. Orr's father, Mrs. J. M. Ironmonger and child of Norfolk, to visit her sister, Mrs. W. F. Crockett; Miss May Caho, a pupil of Norfolk College en route to her home at Stone-wall to spend the Christmas holidays, and Miss Annie Exton and Maggie Betts two other pupils of the same school to spend the holidays at their home in Oriental.

Some Reflections on Santa Claus.

MR. EDITOR:—I reckon I missed it when I mentioned in a former letter to the JOURNAL that my credit at the Bank was good. Verily, it was a bad give away for Holiday times, when everybody is skrimishing for presents. Consequently, my surplus is drawn down to the bottom dollar.

All this comes of popular wiving. When Sam Slocum was poor and unknown, his assessments were small. Now there is not a citizen of James City too proud to lift his hat and sue for a Christmas gift. All his cousins and their friends nod him with suggestive reminders. Everybody expects a present from Sam, because Sam has earned a duty on his persimmon patent. I am quite beginning to test the misery of riches, and I yearn for the good old days when I was nothing but a tramp.

As it is a close thing, I have no Santa Claus ever came to be the patron Saint of the Christmas holidays. He is a fellow of very ordinary appearance—quite like a vag, and it seems passing strange that not only unsophisticated children, but even young ladies, should allow themselves to be deceived by the Santa Claus ever came to be the patron Saint of the Christmas holidays. He is a fellow of very ordinary appearance—quite like a vag, and it seems passing strange that not only unsophisticated children, but even young ladies, should allow themselves to be deceived by the Santa Claus ever came to be the patron Saint of the Christmas holidays.

PARENTS SHOULD BEAR IN MIND that the reason for attacks of Group is now on us. Be prepared for this insidious disease by always having a bottle of R. N. DUFFY'S CROUP SYRUP in the house. Prepared after the recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy, and for sale by the proprietor at his store on Middle street, next to Custom House, and by New Berne Drug Company.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It is sold only on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system thoroughly, but it is not a cure all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not subvert.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCH'S CANDIES.

GET OUT OF MY WAY.
Clear the track for I am coming, And about it mean no fun, I am going to buy my goods of Big Ike, Through the winter of '91.

Farmers, look to your interest, And every penny says, And you'll thereby leave more to your family

When you go to the grave None can compete with Big Ike's prices, Is the rumor on the street, And the secret of this important matter Is he buys his goods so cheap.

The time has been when goods sold high, None can this statement doubt, But Big Ike made a pass at high prices, And has knocked the bottom out.

"A wind on Christmas day, Trill will bring much fruit"
If you haven't bought a present for your husband yet, we would like to call your attention to our line of scarfs and ties, underwear, shirts, collars and cuffs. These things are something we need every day, and will be appreciated by the recipient.

Do you need a carpet or rug? We have a line of ingrain carpets and Smyrna rugs that will be sold at a close price to close out.
