CHEES ANNOUNCEMENT THE UNITED STATES AND CHILL The ambrodiment of the United States and Chill is greatly to be regretted. Lovers of republican government would be gratified to see the disagreement amicably adusted and the American Repub ios cemented in bonds of mutual friendship and respect,

We are quite sure the United States desires peace and would welcome the triumphant advance of the Chilian republic to a proud position among the nations of the world.

Anxious as this Government is for the sucress of republican institutions on this cont nest, her first concern is for her own honor and the welfare of her own pco; le.

We are told that it would add nothing to the glory of the United States to crush Chili. This may be true, but it may militate against the honor of this Government to permit Chili to play the braggart and wontonly insult our flag and murder our citizens.

The torbearance that the strong should exercise towards the weak has been generously extended by revived and the Cheyemes and this Government to Ceili, but with may not have it on hand will pronations, as with individuals forbearance may cease to be a virtue.

There is a limit to all things. A man may hesitate to chastise a boy or his insolence but if to insolence is added personal vio'ence youngster muss

We trust that the second sober Buff Coching, do right and stick to it. That thought may lead to a better understanding resulting in a settlement bonorable to both nations.

GREAT MAGAZINE.

THAT great American periodical man than Grover Cleveland. Of individual Peannt the soul of the porgramme for 1892, and as many coarse he has opposition within Recorder man would rattle in its November number, new readers should commence with that issue In this number are the opening chapters of

"The Naulahka," famous author of "Plain Tales from the Hills," written in collaboration with an American writer, Wolcott that he would get his money. Balestier. It is the story of a young to India, he in search of a wonderful jeweled necklace, called "the Naulahka" (from which the story takes its name), and she as a physician to women. The novel describes their remarkable adventures at the court of an Indina maharajab. Besides this, The Century will print three other novels For sleeplessness and nervousness, during the year, and a great unmber of short stories by the best American story-writers.

The well-known humorist Edgar W. Nye ("Bill Nye") is to write a series of amusing skerches which tion. he calls his "autobiographies," the first one of which, "The Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace," is in November. This number also contains a valuaple and suggestive article on "The Food-Supply of the Fature," which every farmer should to Farmers, treating especially of the relations of the Government to the farmer, what it is doing and what it should do. This series will include contributions from officers of the Department of Agriculture, and other well-known men will discuss "The Farmer's Discontent,"

"Cooperation," etc., etc. A celebrated Spauish writer is to furnish a "Life of Columbus," which will be brilliantly illustrated, and the publishers of The Century on the buildings, etc.

One of the novels to appear in 1892 is

A Story of New York Life by the author of "The Anglomaniacs," and the magazine will contain during the year,—among other things a series of illustrated articles November is an illustrated description of "The Players, Club," founded by Edwin Booth, and one of the
