MITCHELL-MEADOWS.

"The clouds that lowered about our house" were driven away by the west wind, and smiling sunshine greeted the fair young bride at the gate of Christ Church close yesterday afternoon. It monde of fashion; being too warm for showed every ourve of beauty and graceful motion.

There was a very acceptable departure from custom in the hour of the wedding, which we hope will commend itself to many other brides, especially to those who come along in the springsoft mulie and hats of leghorn plumes The wedding was an exceedingly pretty one, the brightest we have seen for the season of the year. Although will be ready to be presented to the no formal invitations were given, the church was filled with the friends of the parties, and their congratulations and best wishes were most heartily exthe Ohio Legislature is a model pressed. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. N. George.

of white and gold, the gift of the bride. Happily for New Berne in view of the loss we have recently suffered in the flight of some of her most beautiful young ladies, Mr. Mitchell has been persuaded to make New Berne his place of residence. His old friends have already welcomed him to his old home, and now share in the joy of the happlest day of his life.

We alluded yesterday to the petition to the A. & N. C. R. R. to give double has received the signatures of many of by the number seen. Every one here desires the additional service. There is no doubt that it will be greatly to the advantage of the city and while it would involve additional expanditure on its part of the road it would probably not be long ere the increased patronage would make up for the added expense, it might do so from the start, but even should the road officials believe that at the beginning the road would not earn as much as it is now doing we still think that due efforts ought to be put forth by them to socomplish an end so greatly desired. The petition presents the need for the service and the reasons why it ought to be established as follows:

North Carolina's Literature. We have pleasure in announcing that Hopkins University, is preparing a complete "Bibliography with annotations. The work will be invaluable for in every library, however small. It will occupy about twenty-five pages of the Southern Educator for which it is being written.

Nothing of the kind has ever before been attempted, and the author and publishers deserve the thanks of all loy-al teachers and students for the publicaal teachers and students for the publication of so valuable an aid to the study of our rich historical and biographical literature. The Educator, it may be remarked, is rendering excellent service in many ways to the cause of education in North Oarolina. Those of our readers who are teachers and who are not acquainted with its merits would do well to address the publishers at Durham for a sample copy. It is published monthly, and the price is only one dollar a year.
