The Interstate Commerce Commission cannot serve many more collisions with the Supreme Court.

The troubles of the World's Fair managers continue to multiply.

The tariff was a subject of treatment in a number of the bills introduced in the House Monday.

Mr. MILLS has returned from Texas, and when he came on the floor of the House yesterday afternoon he received quite an ovation.

In consequence of the continued illness of Speaker Crisp the Committee on Rules has made no report to the House.

Though nothing has been definitely and formally settled, it can now be stated that the new code of rules to be reported by the committee will not continue the practice begun under Speaker Reed, by which 100 was constituted a quorum of the House when in Committee of the Whole.

CHILLI.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the President has abandoned all hope of amicable agreement with Chili and the only question now is when war will begin.

We are told by the Wilmington Messenger that "Minister Egan has fled from Chili," and, if this is true, it is time to let slip the dogs of war.

The President has not yet communicated the Chilian correspondence to Congress, but a member of Congress who has assisted the President in preparing some of it is authority for the statement that the legislative branch of the Government would declare war without delay upon hearing the correspondence read, without even a suggestion from the President.

We take the following from the Washington Post: "The strained relations existing between the United States and Chili may be the means of repealing a law in the statute books that has been sought to be repealed in several past Congresses."

Quite a party of Congressmen were dining at Chamberlin's last night when this subject came up. One of them, a well known member from Mississippi, said he believed the law would be repealed at this session.

That forced march was a trying ordeal to the men and some of them carrying the effects to this day."

AMERICAN adventure resolution and tact are always equal to the occasions.

MORE trouble is reported from the Tennessee coal mines.

Answer This Question. Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 75c we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them.

Cattle, especially young cattle, and sheep in the pasture not only make a pretty and ideal picture, but it is a good combination for the pasture, one eating what the other rejects, and so utilizing all the feed.

ATLANTIC ELECTROPOISE. Gentlemen: For the last five years my wife has been a sufferer from dyspepsia. So completely did she lose the power of her stomach that she was almost entirely destroyed and the slightest noise would throw her into a nervous spasm, which would last for hours. Medical skill failed to bring any relief.

The Century's Programme in 1892-A New "Life of Columbus"-Articles for Farmers, etc.

THAT great American periodical, The Century, is going to outdo its own unrivaled record in its programme for 1892, and as many of its new features begin with the November number, new readers should commence with that issue.

The well-known humorist Edgar W. Nye ("Bill Nye") is to write a series of amusing sketches which he calls his "autobiographies," the first one of which, "The Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace," is in November.

A celebrated Spanish writer is to furnish a "Life of Columbus," which will be brilliantly illustrated, and the publishers of The Century have arranged with the managers of the World's Fair to print articles on the buildings, etc.

A story of New York Life by the author of "The Anglioman-lace," and the magazine will contain a great deal about the metropolis during the year, among other things a series of illustrated articles on "The Jews in New York." In November is an illustrated description of "The Players, Club," founded by Edwin Booth, and one of the features of the splendidly illustrated Christmas (December) number is an article on "The Bowery."

The New Year is Here.

No one regrets the departure of de-crepit old '91. He served his day-or rather the 365 of them-and his successor will be his superior.
