SPEAKER Crisp is a great deal better.

OUR Government is arranging for an international silver convention.

It is feared that two vessels have recently been burned at sea and all on board lost.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis has been elected an honorary vice-president of the Daughters of 1812.

THE United States has a population of 65,000,000, and Chili but 3,000,000; or about as many as the colonists had in the days of the Revolution.

THE Democratic National Convention will meet two weeks after the Republican convention. This gives the Democrats some little advantage in knowing who they have to beat.

GOV. RUSSELL, of Massachusetts, has a salary of $5,000 and the mayor of Boston receives $10,000 a year. There is a movement to remedy this inequality by increasing the salary of the chief magistrate.

THE tallest trees in the world are said to be the gum trees of Victoria, Australia. In some districts they average 300 feet high. The longest prostrated one measured 470 feet and 800 feet in girth near the roots.

JUDGE BRADLEY, of the Supreme Court died on the 22nd instant. He was one of the electoral commission that gave the Presidency to Hayes when Tilden was elected. He was a learned lawyer, but a partisan judge. He died of grip.

AN unpaid tailor's bill of the Emperor Maximilian I., of Germany, who reigned some four hundred years ago, has been discovered, but the tailor is not around to collect. It was the monotonous story of "call again" that killed him.

QUAY brought a libel suit against a small Democratic paper in Penn., and got small damages. The World charged him with nearly every crime in the calendar, and then besought him with tears in its eyes to sue for damages, but the wily Quay knows when to kick. Tackle the World Mr. Quay or throw up the sponge.

HARRISON is fighting mad with Chili, and Blaine is said to be fighting mad with Harrison. That is reported to be the Chilean situation in Washington at this time. A fight between Harrison and Blaine is a better settlement of the trouble than a fight between the United States and Chili.

ANOTHER case of talent having to support a title comes to light in the news that the Count Cass Miranda, husband of Christine Nilsson and Spanish Minister to Sweden, is in such straitened circumstances that he has to depend largely upon his wife's fortune to support his dignity and uphold his position.

CAROLINE SHIPP was hung last Friday. This is the woman in whose behalf so many petitions were sent to Governor Holt. He was asked to pardon her because she was a woman, but the Governor very wisely concluded that killing by a woman was just as effectual as if it was done by a man, and, then, cooks have rare opportunities for poisoning, and most cooks are women.

THE following shows the distribution of the North Carolina Senators and Representatives on the committees of their respective houses: Mr. Ransom—On the committees on commerce, fisheries, private land claims (chairman), Potomac river front of Washington; Mr. Vance—On the committees to audit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, District of Columbia, finance, privileges and elections, woman suffrage (chairman); Mr. Branch—On territories and expenditures on public buildings; Mr. Cheatham—On agriculture, education and expenditures on public buildings; Mr. Grady—On education and expenditures in the Interior Department; Mr. Bunn—On claims (chairman), and expenditures in the War Department; Mr. Williams—On manufactures and public buildings and grounds; Mr. Alexander—On agriculture and expenditures in the State Department; Mr. Henderson—On post offices and post-roads (chairman), and pensions; Mr. Cowles—On mines and mining (chairman), and expenditures in the Department of Justice; Mr. Crawford—On mileage, private land claims and expenditures in the Treasury Department.

The steamer News of the E. C. D. line which has been off a short time for repairs will go on again next Friday, starting from New Berne at 5 o'clock.

It is said that Chili sent a telegram to the authorities at Washington refusing to accede to any demand and that the President has submitted the matter to Congress.

Next Friday night has been selected for the performance of New Berne's amateur minstrels. It is composed of some of our best young men and an enjoyable evening may be assured.

The beautiful weather we are now having is a source of delight to our truckers and they are making good use of it being busily engaged in getting in peas and radishes and in making preparations for other crops.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association, Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. It is very important that every member should be present, as it is the election of officers.

Messrs. G. H. Waters & Sons carriage factory will soon be in new quarters. Yesterday they commenced the erection of a building for their future use between Mr. J. W. Stewart's livery stables and the Salvation Army barracks.

Rev. Edward Bull having billed the whole State and a small part of Virginia and South Carolina for the New Berne Fair passed through last night en route to Morehead which will finish his work and he expects to return to New Berne to day.

A leading editorial in the Norfolk Ledger is an extensive write-up of what the JOURNAL has been saying in regard to our fishing interests, and the great success attending them this season, which incidentally leads on at the close to a complimentary notice of our Fair.

The devotional meeting in the Y. M. C. A. room Sunday afternoon was participated in by some of the city pastors. The address of the leader, Prof. G. T. Adams on having an aim in life was fine and inspiring both in application to worthy secular aims and spiritual aims. It was an elevating and highly enjoyable meeting and it seemed to us that every one present must have departed with stronger aspirations for high, pure, noble Christian life.

The Washington Gazette gives the following item: One of our farmers living a few miles from Washington last year bought a pony, and with him cultivated 83 acres. He raised 60 barrels of corn, 300 bushels of potatoes and 5 bales of cotton. He says he can make as much on cotton at the present prices, having the improved implements to work with, as he could five years ago at the prices cotton brought at that time.

UNION MEETING.

Annual Sermon Before Benevolent Society—Remarks on its Work.

The Baptist, Disciple, Methodist and Presbyterian congregations assembled in a union service at the former church, Sunday night, and the annual sermon before the Female Benevolent Society was preached by the pastor, Rev. Rufus Ford, the report of the operation of the Society for the past year read, and a collection for the benefit of the Society amounting to $35.00 taken up.

The meeting was a delightful one, the singing was good, the voluntary by the choir was beautiful and admired by all, and the sermon good, appropriate and filled with solid argument.

The report of the Society is as follows: Report of Female Benevolent Society for the year of 1891.

Collected during the year.....$302.44
Expended for wood.....$124.84
" provisions, rents, etc.....143.45
" medicines, etc.....22.91
Bal. in treas. of Society.....$11.24

It would be almost impossible to form a proper idea of the suffering that has been alleviated through the working of this admirable organization during its fifty-four years of service. It is a regularly chartered institution. It was organized July 4th, 1837, and incorporated February 23, 1855, and has known no cessation in its work of mercy except as it was caused by the vicissitudes of war.

It is a very good plan to have the work of relieving the needy carried on through such a Society. If application is made to an individual, it is extremely difficult as a rule for him to determine whether the case is a worthy one or not, but if bestowed through a Society which makes investigation and finds out the circumstances and character of those it assists, and keeps a record of its transactions, this difficulty is by the easiest method and to the greatest possible extent removed, and the donations likewise made to do the largest amount of benefit.

The society secures the bulk of the money for its operations from gentlemen who contribute small amounts with regularity, the ladies usually collecting from the contributors monthly. As the result of the meeting Sunday night one or two additional names have been voluntarily added to the list, and it would be a worthy and creditable act for every one in our city whom God is blessing with abundant comforts to remember less fortunate ones, and according to their means assist these Christian ladies in carrying good cheer to needy homes.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. T. and Miss Janie Klutz who have been visiting Mrs. C. G. Vardell returned to their home in Salisbury yesterday.

Mr. S. H. Rountree, of Kingston Grand Masonic Lecturer arrived last night to deliver a series of lectures during the next two weeks to St. John's Lodge.

Miss Collins, of Maryland, arrived to visit her sister Mrs. W. B. Blades.

Four of our citizens united with the Presbyterian church Sunday, two by letter and two upon profession of faith. Eight others who reside at Dover were received the same time upon profession of faith. The latter, however, will in all probability, be connected with this church but a short time as they are expected to be the nucleus for the Presbyterian church at Dover when it is organized. The preparation for the erection of the building now being in progress.

THE CHILIAN WAR CLOUD.

An Ultimatum Sent to the Chilean Government.

SANTIAGO DE CHILE, Jan. 23.—It was learned today that the question at issue between Chili and the United States had assumed a most acute phase. Information is to the effect that the Chilean government has received from the government of the United States an ultimatum which, in the strongest possible terms, states that the diplomatic relations between the two countries will cease unless the offensive circular note recently sent out by Senator Morton, the Chilean foreign minister, in regard to the Baltimore affair is withdrawn. Further the ultimatum demands the Chilean government to make reparation for the attack on the Baltimore sailors in Valparaiso, and that she make an apology for those attacks. The ultimatum concludes with a statement that the United States will tolerate no further delay on the part of Chili in answer to the demands of the American government.

NEW BERNE HISTORY.

GRANDEST BALL EVER HELD IN THIS CITY.

Copied From the North Carolina Standard Wednesday, May 5th, 1858.

The Great Railroad Festival at Newbern.

The dinner passed off to the entire satisfaction of all. At its conclusion the military paraded the streets in companies till dark, when they were dismissed to prepare for THE BALL.

This took place on Thursday night in the passenger depot of the railroad which was admirably adapted to the purpose. The ball room was lighted in a novel manner by different colored shades and railroad lamps, suspended from pillars and ceiling which gave a beautiful verigated appearance. Indeed the scene was lovely. This was the old depot building, originally the woolen factory of E. R. Stanley, Esq., and Dr. John A. Guion.

In the early part of the evening the room was densely crowded by an eager throng, so that dancing was out of the question. The number thinned off, however, and about ten o'clock the ball commenced, and was spiritedly carried on, till after midnight, to the strains of the United States ship Pennsylvania's band. The company included a large number of ladies from all parts of the State and many distinguished gentlemen.

A supper was provided for all present at the ball, in the upper story of the passenger depot. It was a most magnificent affair, embracing every imaginable variety of light refreshments, got up, contributed and arranged, like the famous New Bern's fair, and it fully justified the title but expressive exclamation of a friend who was looking on, "The ladies of Newbern will do to tie to," and amen was a response from somewhere.

The following is a list of the managers of this ball, they are entitled to credit:

John D. Whitford, Hon. John R. Donnell, Hon. M. E. Manly, William H. Oliver, John D. Flanner, Alonzo T. Jenkins, George S. Stevenson, George Green, James W. Carmer, John H. Haughton, William G. Bryan, Sen., Charles C. Clark, P. G. Evans, J. M. E. Harrison, Moses W. Jarvis, F. C. Roberts, J. V. Jordan, David S. Willis, John L. Gardner, Fred. Lane, John N. Washington, Col. H. J. B. Clark, E. R. Stanley, John M. Oliver, I. Dossaway, R. S. Primrose, Jos. J. Robertson, S. Attmore, W. C. Whitford, John F. Jones, E. K. Bryan, A. G. Hubbard, F. T. Hawks, James B. Hughes, James B. Averett, B. B. Lane, J. W. Stevenson, B. Brown, J. P. Dillingham, John D. Hornblow, T. J. Mitchell, G. W. P. Custis, William P. Mette, William Hollister, Thomas Allen, J. M. Harrison, W. C. Singleton, Graham Daves, John C. Coart, William P. Moore, Jun., William G. Bryan, Jun.

The departure of the military next day was characterized by great excitement. Breakfast was furnished at the scene of yesterday's dinner to everybody. The line of trains extended from the water's edge in town, away out beyond its limits and included trains for the Western N. C. road, the North Carolina road, the Raleigh and Gaston and the Wilmington & Weldon road, and the Atlantic and North Carolina road. The number of coaches, cars and etc., I could not estimate, but the scene presented as they all moved off together will not soon be forgotten. The people of the town concentrated at the depot to witness the departure and when the trains began to move on, cheers on cheers arose, mingled with music and the roar of cannon and musketry.

Fire works had to be omitted as it was seen their could be time allotted for the exhibition. There was another committee of fifty citizens for the management of the celebration. But amid all the excitement, the roar of cannon, the rattle of musketry, the bang of drums, the blowing of horns, the shouts of the multitude—there was not an unpleasant word, not an accident of any kind, not a single instance of misbehavior by any one. This may appear more remarkable when, as we are told in the report, there were "oceans of wines and spirits, offered as freely as water, and a free treat too, by all the saloons in Newbern, throughout Thursday on the Wilmington & Weldon train alone the reporter says there were eight hundred. He came on it on Wednesday night and "found at the depot a committee to attend to lodging, each person and this was done for all other visitors."

We would say here for our colored citizens they having entered into the spirit of liberty would accept no fee for their services from the guest of the town. The barbers threw open wide their shop doors, all was free. Robert Green, one of the ancient prelates is left among us and still respected. If he were a widower we would say he had at the period of which we refer seen some more years than he has since and among them all none to his own discredit. Political ambition never led him to attempt to eclipse William Gaston and John Stanley in the thing as it did some of his colored brethren around him. His personal knowledge of those distinguished lawyers might have prevented the effort. Be that as it may of Robert if wise he will profit by the experience of his old friend and brother barber, Moses Kennedy. When in years he had turned eighty or more, contrary to advice sought by himself, he concluded to marry and a day or two afterwards he awoke in the morning broken hearted to find his pocket change gone and his youthful bride with it, so much for love you see. "The train from the different roads the reporter observed was very handsome prepared for the occasion, the Newbern road can boast of the most beautiful coaches in the State."

The first date selected for the celebration was Tuesday, the 27th April, which was snowy and rainy. The 29th 1858 was finally fixed and it was beautiful and balmy, not a cloud specked the sky.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—The North and Northwest during the winter months do not call for money by the hundred of thousands. So any one who could use to an advantage one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine or ten thousand dollars, would find it to his interest to borrow it from the Eastern Building and Loan Association of Syracuse, N. Y.

The Eastern has already loaned several thousand dollars to its members in N. C. In my presence December 21st, 1891 it granted all applications on file from North Carolina members.
