

There are people in the church who hurt the cause of God when they say a word in his favor. There are people who claim to love the Lord who would apologize to the devil if they thought they were in his way.—Sam's Horn Blasts.

There is a roebush at Hilderheim, in Hanover, that was planted more than one thousand years ago by Charlemagne. The bush is 26 feet high and covers 32 feet of wall space. The stem is but two inches in diameter.—New York Recorder.

Mr. BLAND refuses to consent to the appointment of a Democratic joint caucus committee to control party measures of legislation during the present session of Congress. He says nothing will satisfy the free silver men but the early passage of the Free Silver bill.

The Bible speaks more than once of the wings of the Almighty. These wings are broad wings. They cover up all our wants, all our sorrows, all our sufferings. He puts one wing over our cradle, and he puts the other over our grave. Yes, it is not a desert in which we are placed; it is a nest.—Talmage.

It is not the gifts so much as the giving for which God cares. The cattle on a thousand hills are His. If He were angry He would not tell us. Better ten cents given with earnest prayer and faith in the power of the Holy Spirit, than ten thousand dollars given from a wrong motive.—Western Citizen.

COUNT TOLSTOI, who has been relieving the distress in the famine stricken districts of Russia, has, it is said, been ordered by the Government of that country to return to his estate, on the ground that a letter on the famine published in London was written by him, and that it was unpatriotic. If the Russian Government should overcome its super-sensitiveness, and set itself to the task which has been taken up by outside benevolence, it would deserve better of public opinion. In its present mental condition it strains at gnats and swallows camels.

Lang Troubles, Rheumatism, Etc. Frequently a person is supposed to have consumption when in fact it is some other disease altogether that is reducing his flesh and making him look pale and thin.

J. W. Yates, Tallahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an abscess on the lung and other troubles in two weeks and that other remedies failed to benefit." So you see it is sometimes well to try constitutional treatment. No remedy is so good as B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) for rebuilding wasted tissue, and giving health to every portion of the system, and that great circulating stream of life, the human blood. Again, it is often supposed that colds and exposure are the only causes of catarrh, rheumatism, etc. Such is not always the case. It is frequently caused by impurities in the blood.

Wm. Price, Lottsville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with catarrh for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botanic Blood Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity. Observe, seven winters, renowned Hot Springs failed. B. B. brought relief. Remember, no matter what blood remedy you have tried or intend to try, B. B. is the only one that will give you complete satisfaction."

The best dairy man is not one who knows it all, but one who is constantly learning.

GEORGE J. GRIFFIN. From far off he sends the news dear. The tea King leads his hosts of gold; Pierce as King wolves his cohorts' woe; O'er heaven, home and fold. Dead are the uplands, dead the less. The singing fields of yesterday; Song is a drift 'mong leafless trees; For broods have flown a way. Speed fast, true birds, now here, now there. Nor bids ye 'll your tale is done; Let bugles ring from the Southron air The royal hosts of Sun. O hear the burst of tender hymn! The fields throw off their whitened pall, And from you stark and skyward limb The fluting robins call. Courage, tired heart! Light love and song. A memory of the tuncful past, Shall food the nights so drear and long, And thou' shalt sing as last. Some men are more beholden to their bitterest enemies, than to friends who appear to be sweetness itself. The former frequently tell the truth, but the latter never.—Cato.

It was perhaps ordained by Providence, to hinder us from tyrannising over one another, that no individual should be of such importance, as to cause by his retirement or death any chasm in the world. The proportion of genius to the vulgar, is like one to a million; but genius without tyranny, without pretension that judges the weak with equity, the superior with humanity, and equals with justice, is like one to ten millions.
