TALK of extravagant dressing! A Minnesota man and his three sons furnished a Mrs. Boyd with a suit which cost them six thousand dollars. It was a coat of tar and feathers, and the jury fixed the price.

It is pleasing to know that Mr. memorial day was generally observed in North Carolina, and that the addresses on the occasion were remarkably good, especially those of Colonel Greene at New Berne, Captain Ashe at Wilmington and Dr. Long at Fayetteville.

MEMPHIS presents the remarkable spectacle of three girls, all under sixteen years of age, on trial for murder. They are Mary Brown, Susie Williams, and Jennie Gibson, all colored and all indicted for driving over Capt. David Hukill, an aged steamboat man, who subsequently died of his injuries.

THE New York Advertiser says: Not only the Methodist in Omaha, but the Baptists in Atlanta, are after the President for signing the Chinese exclusion bill. This is serious. If the Methodist and Baptist combine in this matter we do not believe the Presbyterian President will be in it.

HON. JERRY SIMPSON says "the Third Party will carry a half dozen States and throw the Presidential election into the House of Representatives." If this was all no mischief would be done, for the House would at once elect the Democratic candidate. We want more than this. We want a Democrat to preside in the Senate. A complete Democratic administration to the end that the burdens may be lifted from the necks of the people, and reforms inaugurated in all departments of the Government.

A Confederate Memorial Association was organized at Beaufort, Tuesday, and the graves of the soldiers decked with flowers. A flag displayed on the occasion had seen warm service and several men had been killed while carrying it in battles of the war.

Mr. Hill Humphrey, who has been away for several weeks, got back yesterday and brought with him from England a large stock of goods in his line, which he had purchased there at bankruptcy prices. In addition to his other purchases he secured a fine gray bay trotter, which was much admired by his friends, some of whom were out riding with him yesterday afternoon.

The Methodist Sunday school of Riverdale will have a picnic tomorrow at Mr. Clifford Simpson's of that place. They also expect the Presbyterians and Baptist Sunday schools of Croatan to participate with them and an invitation is extended to any friends in the city or elsewhere to come provided with baskets. All will be welcomed. The more the merrier.

Rev. C. F. Sherrill, pastor of the Beaufort Methodist church, and Evangelist J. W. Lee, of Charlotte, who has been laboring with him during a protracted meeting in his church some up to the city yesterday to be present at the beginning of Evangelist Fefe's meetings. They will both be back at Beaufort on Sunday and Mr. Lee will preach there again both morning and night.

Mr. O. H. Sanborn, who solicited subscriptions from some of our citizens to bear the expense of moving Captain Somers (who was shipwrecked and has been in the marine hospital here for some weeks) to his home in the North, called at our office and wishes us to express thanks, on behalf of both himself and the captain, for the ready response with which the appeal was met. The amount needed was readily secured, and the captain has left for his home.

The Meeting Begun.

The evangelistic meeting last night was attended by fully a thousand people. It being the first meeting, Mr. Fife did not preach a regular sermon, but simply made a well-timed talk.

The meetings will be held twice a day. The song services will begin at 10:30 a.m. and 8 p.m., and continue for half an hour, and at the close the regular services will begin—at 11 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. Mr. Fife earnestly requests the audience to come promptly.

The choir is a fine one and the hymns are beautiful.

All are requested to bring their bibles, pencils and paper at every meeting.

Crazy About Insurance.

Willie Banks, a crazy white boy, was taken up by the police yesterday. As far as can be judged from his talk he has no home. He says that a few months ago he worked in Jones county, but that his home while his parents were living was about forty-five miles from New Berne on South river, but they have been dead for some years. He had just come here on a vessel from Washington, the last place he was at.

He seems particularly crazy on the subject of insurance and fire, and it is considered by Dr. Leinster Duffy, who examined him, dangerous for him to be at large, as he is liable to set fire to property. The safest and most humane course that can be pursued is to gain admittance to the Insane Asylum for him.

INDIGNATION MEETING.

Vigorous Denunciation of Occurrences in the Late City Election and of Participants—Large Crowd in Attendance.

A large number of our prominent citizens met at the court house last night to denounce and condemn the methods by which the organization of the present board of city council was effected.

Dr. Geo. Slover was made permanent chairman, and S. H. Lane, secretary. The chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to take action in regard to Mr. J. J. Baxter being deprived of his election as councilman in the first ward.

On motion, a committee consisting of Gen. C. A. Battle, P. H. Pelletier, J. J. Wolfenden, Wm. Dunn and Dan. Jones were appointed on resolutions.

The committee presented the following report:

The Democratic voters of the city of New Berne in public meeting assembled to denounce certain wrongs relating to the election of a councilman in the first ward of this city, and solemnly enter our protest against them, as irregular, illegal, revolutionary, and detrimental to the harmony of the Democratic party and the good name of the city of New Berne.

In justification of this protest we submit the following facts:

A primary meeting of the Democratic voters of the first ward was regularly called for the purpose of nominating a candidate for councilman to be voted for at the election on Monday next. Mr. Baxter and William Ellis were known to be candidates for the nomination.

When the hour for meeting arrived, Mr. Charles Roizenstein, chairman of the ward committee, called the meeting to order, and immediately thereafter Mr. J. J. Baxter was elected permanent chairman, and immediately said, "All in favor of the motion say Aye." A large number responded "Aye," and Mr. Roizenstein was declared elected.

The negative side of the question was not put at all, and Mr. Baxter's friends had no voice in the matter. Mr. Baxter and his friends protested, and demanded that the chairman of the meeting be elected by ballot, but the demand was disregarded. Confusion and disorder ensued, and in the midst of it Mr. Albert Patterson was put in the secretary's seat by the same method.

Resolved, that we denounce the act of Basil Manly in joining with William Ellis and the negro councilmen of fourth and fifth wards in organizing the new board, and thereby defrauding and defrauding the duly and so declared by the only power having authority to so declare, elected councilman from the first ward out of his rights as unmanly, undemocratic and ungentlemanly in the highest degree.

Resolved, that we denounce Hugh J. Lovick in his actions in selling his birth right for a mess of pottage.

Resolved, that we commend the action of S. R. Street and Daniel T. Roberts, and earnestly request them to remain in the board of City Council to watch and guard the interest of the City against all improper conduct of those who have counted themselves in and formed an alliance with Republicans to carry out their devilish designs.

Resolved, that we regret that policeman Joseph E. Gash and Moses T. Roberts felt it their duty not to accept their old places in the city service, and command them for their past manly service to the city and faithfulness to their trust.

Resolved, that this protest and resolutions be published in the DAILY and WEEKLY New Berne JOURNAL.

Results of the Beaufort Revival.

We announced the addition of 41 to the membership of the Beaufort Methodist church last Sunday as a result of the revival there being conducted by Evangelist Lee in connection with the pastor, Rev. J. F. Sherrill. Since then five others have united with the church, swelling the total number to 46, and others still have handed in their names to join next Sabbath.

The last meeting was held Wednesday night. It was a glorious revival, and the most successful series of meetings Evangelist Lee has held in this section of the State.

Great congregations overflowed the church, and many went away for want of room. The religious feeling was deep and solid, pervading not only the church but the entire town. The stores were closed, and men of age and influence were brought under the power of the meeting. Those who joined the church ranged from ten to eighty-five years of age.

The good people of Beaufort who fell in love with Evangelist Lee for his untiring labors and grand sermons, presented him a purse of about $200.00. The people of Beaufort say that their place was never blessed with such a meeting before. Rev. J. F. Butt, of this city, assisted four days at the beginning of this meeting, at which times the fires were kindled which burned so brightly for nearly three weeks.

MECKLENBURG'S CELEBRATION.

Three Gala Days—Magnificent Preparations.

Large and showy posters of various colors have been put up in the city advertising the celebration at Charlotte of the 117th anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence made the 20th day of May, 1775. They announce that the celebration extend over three days—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 18th, 19th and 20th.

The orator of the occasion will be Senator David B. Hill, of New York and there will be addresses by Senators Vance, Ransom, Voorhees, Daniels and other distinguished men of the nation.

A sham battle by troops of this and other States including the Naval Battalion of Charlotte with four Gatling guns each throwing 1,700 shot per minute will be among the interesting features.

There will be foot-ball games by interstate college teams and base ball contests for the championships of the South Atlantic League between the Columbia S. C. and Charlotte professional clubs. Three games will be played.

There will be a Charlotte gun club shooting for cash prizes.

Music will be furnished each day by celebrated bands.

Miss Grace Shannon will make a parachute leap from a height of 2,000 feet, the balloon ascension will be under the authority of the largest aerodrome company in the country.

The grand tournament, the particulars of which we published a few days ago will be participated in by knights of the southern states, winding up with a grand coronation and ball.

The prizes are said to be the handsomest ever offered in the South and the display of fireworks the grandest ever attempted in the South.

And lastly it is announced that those arrangements so indispensable to success—low rates and ample hotel facilities have been secured.

It will no doubt be a grand time and one that will reflect honor on the State.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend.

"It is with our judgment as our watches; none go just alike, yet each believes his own."

We wish we could get you of the same judgment as some of our friends. They think that Howard's is the place to buy their clothing, hats and shoes. Now give us a trial and may be you will be of the same opinion. Our aim is to give you your money's worth.

We have just received a line of samples of this Summer Suits at 11, 12 and 13 dollars. See them.
