Bishop Watson will preach at Stony Branch church, near Jasper, on Tuesday the 14th instant.

The old board of commissioners were re-elected in Jones county and Mr. W. H. Rhodes was elected superintendent of public instruction.

Benny Wecke, a small boy who lives in the upper part of the city, was thrown from a horse Saturday afternoon and his forearm fractured.

Mr. M. Hahn has gone West after a couple of carloads of horses and mules. He will be back about the middle of the month with a number of fine trotters.

Hon. Jas. G. Blaine is in to it sure enough. He has tendered his resignation and President Harrison has accepted it. The plumed knight may capture the Minneapolis convention to day.

It is estimated that over three thousand people will attend the Teachers Assembly at Morehead in June. The estimate is made by Mr. E. G. Harrell, Secretary of the Assembly from correspondence he already has in hand.

The internal revenue collections at Durham for the month of May, since the Sun, amounted to $88,168.08. Since August 1889 the office has taken in for the Government $1,871,000.03. A pretty big tax to be paid out on useless not to say harmful luxuries.

President Geo. T. Winston, of the University who is to deliver the Literary address at the New Berne Collegiate Institute exercises Friday night, will also deliver the Literary address at the closing exercises of Richlands High school on June 23d at 10 o'clock a. m.

The weekly weather crop bulletin issued by the N. C. experiment station and State weather service will be sent out in the future on Mondays instead of Saturdays as heretofore. The change will be more convenient for the majority of papers that make use of the reports.

Rev. Father Wm. H. Hayes, of Ohio, who had consumption and came to this city a little over a month ago for his health, died at the Marine hospital (kept by the Sisters of Mercy) yesterday evening. He was about 55 years of age. The remains will be taken to the train this morning and sent to his home in Newark, Ohio.

We see in the Savannah Morning News an account of a unique entertainment at Rev. Dr. L. C. Vass' residence, the masses of the First Presbyterian church of that city. Each member of the Ladies' Aid Society earned a dollar by their own efforts and told how she made it. Some causing considerable merriment by their recitals. Other enjoyments of a social nature enlivened the meeting.

We see from the Savannah Morning News that efforts are being made to secure reasonable through rates and proper railroad connections for truck from Georgia to Chicago. Charleston already has such. The arrangements were made this spring. A western outfit for truck raised farther South than New Berne will give this city that much better opportunity in Northern markets.

Superior Court.
The following cases on the civil docket were disposed of: Baker vs. Steinhilper; judgment in favor of plaintiff.
M. Hahn & Co. vs. O. D. Lewis; judgment in favor of plaintiff.
J. C. Harrison, admr., vs. Ham.
Toler vs. Winslow. Judgment for plaintiff.
Mollwean vs. Rodgers. A contest for possession of a colored church in the upper part of the city. Judgment for defendant. Question submitted: Are the plaintiffs the duly elected trustees of Wilson tabernacle. Answer: No.

Insurance Paid.
The Knights of Honor and Chosen Friends each met an obligation in the city yesterday. Mrs. L. C. Angell received a draft from the former order for $3,000, being the insurance on the life of her husband, lately deceased.

The Chosen Friends have a provision in the policies they issue obligating to pay half the amount the member insured for in case of permanent disability. Judge Geo. Green held a policy of $3,000, and on account of his feeble health half the amount, $1,500, was paid to him yesterday. It is well for men in health to make such provision for the future.

MAGISTRATES' MEETING.

Election of County Commissioners.

Resolution Asking Better Representation for the County in the Management of the A. & N. C. R.

The magistrates of Craven county held their regular biennial meeting yesterday at the court house for the election of county commissioners. The meeting was well attended. Out of the 54 justices in the county 42 were present.

The commissioners elected are Jas. A. Bryan, J. A. Meadows and E. W. Smallwood of the city, M. H. Carr of Fort Barwell, No. 8 township, W. C. Brewer, near Vanosboro, No. 1 township. Dr. Jno. S. Loug, LL. D., was re-elected Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The new board of commissioners do not enter upon the performance of their duties until December.

The following resolutions, seeking due recognition in the A. & N. C. R. E. appointments, were passed unanimously:

We, the magistrates of Craven county, in regular session this 6th day of June, 1892, respectfully ask the Governor of North Carolina to recognize the claims of Craven county in the appointment of directors of the A. & N. C. Railroad. We being the largest stockholders of any of the counties through which it runs, we feel that we ought to have a representation according to our interest in said road.

Coming and Going.
Rev. J. G. Johnson, of Craven circuit, passed through to assist Rev. G. W. Starling, of Straits circuit, in a protracted meeting.

Judge A. S. Seymour left yesterday morning to hold circuit court at Raleigh.

Mr. J. J. Wolfenden left for Edgecombe county on a business trip.

Miss Annie Willis left for Trinity College to attend the commencement, that she might be present to see her brother, Rev. W. H. Willis, graduate.

Miss Verna Dixon, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. I. L. Chestnut, left, returning to her home in Greene county.

Mr. Jas. Redmond left on the steamer Neuse for a business trip to Baltimore, and possibly Philadelphia.

Miss Nannie West, of Cross, came down last night to visit Misses Bessie and Bertha Tucker.

Miss Ella Swindell, of Hyde county, who has been visiting relatives in the city, left for Wilmington to visit the family of Presiding Elder F. D. Swindell.

Mrs. W. R. Barrington returned from a visit to her father at Lenoir Institute.

N. B. C. I. Musical.
The musical tonight, the first of the Collegiate Institute Commencement, will be an excellent entertainment, the best of the kind the Institute has ever had. No pieces except good ones will be rendered and every pupil who is to participate is thoroughly qualified by the careful instruction and practice to do full justice to the part assigned.

Past experiences having proven that the theatre will not hold all who go when the admission is free, it has been decided to charge a small admission fee. This fee has been fixed so low as scarcely to be felt, but small as it is will doubtless have the effect of limiting the attendance to those who can duly appreciate the exercises and thus give them a good opportunity for enjoying them by not being overcrowded, and also by reason of the better order that can be maintained.

It was proposed to make the charge for admission 25 cents, but even that has been reduced. It will be only fifteen cents for adults and ten cents for children.

The exercises will be given at 8:30 o'clock. The opening number for it will be "Prest's March in Athalia."

Two pianos and four performers. Do not miss it; it will be a gem.

N. W. and C. R. E. Directors' Meeting.
The directors of the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad will hold a meeting in Philadelphia next Wednesday. One of the most important questions that will come before the meeting will be the location of the route. Our townsman, banker Thos. A. Green, who was recently elected a director of the road left on the steamer Neuse of the E. C. D. line to attend the meeting. He understands both sides of the question, what a benefit the road will be to New Berne and how much we desire it, and likewise the benefits it would be to the road to come to New Berne, and we are confident that Mr. Green will use his influence to cause the road to run through both New Berne and Washington. We will await the results of the meeting with interest.

Mr. O. P. Hower, President of the Virginia corporation of this road is here for the purpose of making a survey between Washington and New Berne in connection with the trunk line with a view of coming to New Berne.

Episcopal Church Consecration.
Bishop Watson will be in Trenton on Sunday next, the 13th inst., and will on that day consecrate the Episcopal church. It is expected that many of the congregation of Christ church, in this city, together with the rector, will go over to Trenton to take part in the services on next Sunday.

Methodism in Beaufort.

Rev. C. F. Sherrill, pastor of the Beaufort Methodist church writes to the Raleigh Christian Advocate in regard to the flourishing religious condition of the territory under his ministry as follows:

"I have received into the church since Conference sixty one members, baptized thirty-four persons and made 345 pastoral visits. We have a large and growing Sunday school and a church membership of 400."

"We have organized an Epworth League, and besides our regular services we have weekly a cottage prayer meeting, young men's prayer meeting and ladies' prayer meeting."

"We are building a neat and handsome church four miles in the country. We expect to remodel and refurnish our Beaufort church at a cost of about $3,000."

"The New Berne District Conference will be held in Beaufort the second Sunday in July."

"Beaufort is a beautiful town at the foot of the Atlantic. A more orderly town I have never lived in. Breezes from the ocean turn our summer into October."

"We paid Brother Lee about $200."

Mr. Fife at Goldsboro.

At the close of the discourse Mr. Fife called upon all unconverted sinners who desired the prayers of God's people and the baptism of the Holy Spirit to come forward and give him their hand, and fully two hundred from all parts of the tent went eagerly forward, while the vast congregation, Christian and sinner alike, swayed with emotion as the wind waves the songing trees of a mighty forest. The scene beggars description. It was God's work: in whom we all "live and move and have our being."

It was His countenance turned with loving invitation unto sinners convicted, converted and seeking His mercy. Old feuds were forgotten; all malice was extinguished, and on the tide of tears many souls floated into the haven of God's love.—Goldsboro Argus 4th inst.

A Grand Resort.
The articles of lease of the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City by the Chicago Inn Company were Friday duly signed before Mr. R. W. Craton, Notary Public, in this city, by Mr. Jno. O. Plank, for the Inn Company and by Messrs. Julian S. Carr, Ashley Horn and Frank Barrow, owners of the Atlantic Hotel. The indications are that the Atlantic is going to be the seaside resort of the whole country—from Chicago and all intervening points this season. Well, why not? It will successfully bear comparison with any resort on the whole Atlantic coast. Look out for the throngs of visitors as they pass through Goldsboro.—Goldsboro Argus.

Claude—Bryan.
Miss Bessie Heyward Bryan, daughter of Hon. William Shepard Bryan, of the Maryland Court of Appeals, was married in Staunton, Va., at noon, on Wednesday, June 1st, at the summer residence of her parents, to Mr. Dennis Claude, a well-known lawyer, of Annapolis. The wedding was attended by a select gathering of the friends of the family. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. L. Hullen, rector of Trinity Church. The drawing-rooms of the Bryan residence were tastefully decorated with palms, cauli, ferns and out flowers. The bridal party consisted of Miss Lizzie Handy, of Annapolis; Mr. Wm. Shepard Bryan, Jr., of Baltimore, brother of the bride; Miss Lizzie Claude, of Annapolis, sister of the groom; Mr. George P. Bryan, of New York; Miss Ella Claude, of Annapolis, sister of the groom, and Mr. Cary L. H. Bryan, of Baltimore. A collation was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Claude left in the 1.40 p. m. train for their wedding tour, South and East.
