LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Lost—Kid glove.
Orow Medicine Co.
Lucas & Lewis—Just arrived.
Bargain Store—For three days only.
Disoway & Churchill—Machinery, mill supplies, etc.

The sale of the Old Dominion wharf, a valuable piece of property, will take place tomorrow.

The Y. M. C. A. Physical Training School will close next Friday night with a public exhibition for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

The closing exercises of the Graded School, consisting of recitations and dialogues, will be held in the theatre this morning at 10 o'clock. Parents and friends of the pupils are invited to attend.

A letter from Hyde county to Mr. Jones Wahab brings the pleasing information that his uncle and our townsman, Mr. H. W. Wahab, who has been critically ill near Makelyville is now so much improved as to be out of danger.

Now is the time for immediate action in regard to the Norfolk and Charleston Railroad. A subscription of $10,000.00 in construction bonds is wanted at once to commence a survey between New Berne and Washington. It starts off today with $3,000.00 from our citizens. Hurrah for a Grand Trunk Railway.

The time is here for listing taxes but people are not going forward and attending to the matter with such alacrity as they should. Do you realize that unless you give them in by the 30th of this month that you will be subject to a double tax? Such is the case. The tax-lister will have no power to take them after that day, so the safest plan to avoid giving yourself trouble and expense is to give them in at once. Mr. Jonathan Hayens, list-taker, is now at the court house for the business.

Commencements.
Turlington Institute of Smithfield, N. C., has its commencement on the 16th inst. A debate between six students will take place on the question of the hour, "Should the United States have Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver." The annual address will be delivered by Hon. Kemp P. Battle, LL. D.

Pamlico Male and Female Institute commencement will be held on the same date. Our townsman, Hon. F. M. Simmons will deliver the address on the 16th at 10 a. m., and the exercises and concert will take place at 8 p. m.

Coming and Going.
Rev. Robert Stranage, of Wilmington, arrived last night and preached the baccalaureate sermon of the New Berne Collegiate Institute. He is the guest of Rev. T. M. N. George.

President Geo. T. Winston, of the University, arrived to deliver the Collegiate Institute Literary address. He is stopping at Hotel Albert.

Mrs. L. Haas, of El Paso, Texas, and her two children, arrived last night to visit her father, Mr. M. Hahn.

Mrs. Jessie Bowden, of Rocky Point, arrived on route to Columbia strait to visit her brother, Rev. Henderson Cole and she is spending a short time with the family of Rev. J. F. Butt.

Death of Miss Nellie E. LaRoque.
The numerous friends of Miss Nellie E. LaRoque, daughter of Mr. J. D. LaRoque, will hear with surprise and with a shock, of her death. It occurred at noon yesterday at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. R. C. Oldfield, seven miles beyond Pollockville, after an illness of only five days. She had been visiting Mrs. Oldfield about a month.

The sickness having assumed an alarming form the previous night, Mrs. LaRoque was sent for and she left her yesterday m. r. r., but she arrived just five minutes after Miss Nellie's death occurred.

Miss Nellie was a lively and charming young lady, nineteen years of age, with promise of a long life before her. Her death is another proof of the truth that in the midst of life we are in death, and another warning to be always in readiness. Her grief-stricken parents and brother have the sympathies of our citizens.

The remains will be brought to New Berne today, and the funeral services will be held soon after the arrival from the Centenary M. E. Church (of which she was a member), and be conducted by Rev. J. F. Butt.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MINNEAPOLIS CONVENTION.

Committee on Credentials Ready to Report—The Fight Fully On.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., JUNE 9. Convention called to order by Chairman McKinley at 11 a. m. but remained in session only a short time. Committee on credentials will be ready to report to night.

A general belief prevails that an attempt will be made to remove the committee and have it counted and voted on the floor in order to get it out of the way to the strength of the local friends.

Convened at 7 o'clock to-night.

Considerable bitterness exists between the Harrison and Blaine factions.

Supporters of Blaine are holding back endeavoring to retard the progress of the convention while the Harrison followers are determined and confident.

Some leading politicians advise a new man which seems probable.

The Washington Post says it may be McKinley. Other reports mention Alger. E. H. Tilton will probably begin this morning.

Notice.
DAKE COUNTY.
To whom it may concern:
I, the undersigned, a county commissioner of Dare county, can honestly recommend the medicines of The Original Crow Indian Medicines, of the Original Crow Indian M. E. ## THE HARRISON MEN ARE SAYING.

"Blaine is a trickster." Nothing new in that. Tell us something.

A MINNEAPOLIS dispatch, June 8, says Senator Sherman has written a letter favoring McKinley.

CONGRESS is too much interested in the Minneapolis Convention to give much attention to legitimate business.

It seems that the working hours of the leaders at Minneapolis are from four in the morning to four hours after midnight.

THERE are many contesting delegations of Minneapolis. The leading question to each of them is "How will you vote?"

BLAINE understands the art of catchy advertising; and therein lies much of his prestige. Advertising is a beautiful art in politics as in other business.

MR. BLAINE freed from official cares and responsibilities, is off for a season of rest and recreation. The date of his return to Washington cannot be definitely stated.

EMMONS BLAINE, being asked if his father would accept, replied, unabatingly: "It does, indeed, look like rain." His answer tended fact and fact; and what it was a lay hint to the doubtful delegates to come in out of the wet.

THE New York Tribune says: "The negro emigrants who have gone from the United States to Sierra Leone have not found that far-away coast an earthly paradise. In fact, some of them have just returned hither in a decidedly discouraged frame of mind."

THE HARRISON MEN ARE SAYING.

"Blaine is a trickster." Nothing new in that. Tell us something.

A MINNEAPOLIS dispatch, June 8, says Senator Sherman has written a letter favoring McKinley.

CONGRESS is too much interested in the Minneapolis Convention to give much attention to legitimate business.

It seems that the working hours of the leaders at Minneapolis are from four in the morning to four hours after midnight.

THERE are many contesting delegations of Minneapolis. The leading question to each of them is "How will you vote?"

BLAINE understands the art of catchy advertising; and therein lies much of his prestige. Advertising is a beautiful art in politics as in other business.

MR. BLAINE freed from official cares and responsibilities, is off for a season of rest and recreation. The date of his return to Washington cannot be definitely stated.

EMMONS BLAINE, being asked if his father would accept, replied, unabatingly: "It does, indeed, look like rain." His answer tended fact and fact; and what it was a lay hint to the doubtful delegates to come in out of the wet.

THE New York Tribune says: "The negro emigrants who have gone from the United States to Sierra Leone have not found that far-away coast an earthly paradise. In fact, some of them have just returned hither in a decidedly discouraged frame of mind."
