THE Chicago Convention meets a week from today.

In the language of Senator Wolcott of Colorado, the convention surrendered to the "Federal brigade of office-holders."

HENRY C. COWLES, of Statesville, has been elected the member of the national Republican committee from North Carolina.

WE do not anticipate a love feast at Chicago, but we feel confident that there will not be so much hair in the air as at Minneapolis.

HARRISON was nominated on first ballot, receiving 550 votes. North Carolina voted 18 for Harrison, 2 for Blaine, 1 for McKinley 1 absent. Mott voted for Blaine.

THE special famine committee of St. Petersburg has issued a report reviewing the condition of affairs in the stricken provinces. A high tribute is paid to the charity of private individuals, the American gifts receiving special praise.

A MEETING of wholesale grocers, representing most of the States in the Union, was held in New York, to make arrangements with the Sugar Trusts whereby reasonable and uniform prices of sugar may be established. A committee was appointed to formulate a plan.

U. S. SENATOR WOLOTT is evidently under the impression that National conventions are not the proper place for Federal office holders, while some of the fo's reciprocate by expressing the opinion that they are not altogether the proper place for U. S. Senators. The opinion of a man on the outside might be that both are right. But what would a Republican convention be without office holders?—Star.

THERE was no contest over the Republican nomination in the conventions of 1864, 1868, and 1872. The nomination in each case was by acclamation. In the convention of 1876 this was the vote on the first ballot: Blaine, 287; Morton, 124; Bristow, 113; Conkling, 99;

Hayes, 61; Hartranft, 58; Jewell, 11, and Wheeler 3. The nomination was made on the seventh ballot. In the convention of 1880 this was the vote on the first ballot: Grant, 304; Blaine, 284; Sherman, 93; Edmunds, 34, nomination was made on the thirty-sixth ballot. In the convention of 1884 this was the vote on the first ballot: Blaine 334; Arthur, 278; Edmunds, 93; Logan, 63; John Sherman, 30; Hawley, 13; Lincoln, 4, and William Tecumseh Sherman, 2. The nomination was made on the fourth ballot. In the convention of 1888 this was the vote on the first ballot: Sherman 229; Gresham, 111; Depew, 99; Allison, 87; Alger, 84; Harrison, 80; Blaine, 25; Ingalls, 28; Rusk, 25; Phelps, 25; Fittler, 24; Hawley, 13; Lincoln, 3, and McKinley 2. Harrison's nomination was made on the eighth ballot.—New York Sun.

IMMENSE TRUCK SHIPMENTS.

THE BIGGEST DAY THE RAILROAD HAS EVER HAD.

Four trains Necessary to Move the Truck, Besides what the Steamers Did.

Great quantities of truck are now leaving New Berne and the country near, Tuesday, the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad carried about thirty car loads and the steamer Neuse took out 41,000 packages—23,000 barrels of potatoes and 18,000 boxes of beans.

Saturday was a still greater shipping day. The steamer Enola took out 2,838 packages and the railroad—well, it had by 50 per cent the largest shipment it has ever had in one day since the trucking began. It had between 15,000 and 18,000 packages and nearly all of them were barrels of potatoes. It took four separate trains, aggregating sixty two cars to carry them, and the cars were large ones, of 40,000 to 60,000 pounds capacity each, which makes them equal to 120 of the cars that were in ordinary use ten years ago. Notwithstanding the immense quantity the railroad made all connections with the entire shipment.

Now a word as to the value of this shipment. In the last similar estimate we made, our desire not to exceed the reality in stating the enormous figures caused us to value potatoes at the lowest price that any have sold for this season, below the lowest quotations for several days. To have had the estimate that thousand dollars higher would have been only simple justice.

Truck prices now vary considerably in the different northern markets to which New Berne ships. Potatoes range from $3.25 to $4.00. Thus it will be seen that to base an estimate on $3.00 per barrel will be conservative. At these figures to Saturday's shipment, it will give fully $50,000 as the result of the one day's shipment. Not much "small potatoes" about that amount of money for one day.

The shipment of the previous day was also an immense one.

TRINITY SUNDAY AT TRENTON, JONES CO.

Sunday, June 12th, 1892, being the Feast of the Holy Trinity, commonly called Trinity Sunday, was an unusually interesting day in the small but zealous congregation of Grace church mission, Trenton, Jones county. It was the day long looked for and earnestly worked for, the consecration of the neat little church edifice which has been erected in that ancient but growing town.

The consecration was by the Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, Bishop of East Carolina, assisted by Rev. T. M. N. George, of Christ church, New Berne, and Mr. George H. Roberts, lay-reader of the same parish.

During the day the sacraments of holy baptism and the Lord's supper were administered within its newly finished walls.

Brief extracts from the register of this mission reveal the following facts: The first service of the Protestant Episcopal Church ever held in Trenton in the memory of any of the present inhabitants was on Saturday evening, March 28th, 1885, when the Rev. Israel Harding, at the request of a few zealous women, visited the town for the purpose of holding service and preaching to them. A service was held that evening and also the next day, morning and evening. After this service a meeting was held and a committee appointed to endeavor to procure a lot and to build a church. This committee was Mrs. Emma Street Green, Mrs. Olivia Elizabeth McDaniel Page, Mrs. Annie Cobb Franks, Mrs. Laura Pritchard Brogden, Mrs. Ida Olivia Smith, who, with the promised co-operation of their husbands, Messrs. Charles C. Green, Edward R. Page, W. W. Franks, J. P. Brogden and Joseph A. Smith, assumed the undertaking with a pious devotion worthy of the highest praise.

So well did this committee succeed that the lot was obtained, the name selected, and the corner-stone laid by Bishop Watson, assisted by Rev. V. W. Shields, of Christ church, New Berne, on the 23d of May following the first service on the 28th of March.

The little band of workers were encouraged by occasional services by that holy man, now gone to rest, Rev. Israel Harding, and laymen W. E. Mewborne, Col. S. L. Fremont, and more recently by Rev. T. M. N. George and Mr. Geo. H. Roberts, of Christ church, New Berne.

The building committee, Messrs. J. A. Smith, C. C. Green and E. M. Focoue, suffered by the loss of Mr. Green by removal, and the death of Mr. Focoue, but with the efficient aid of Mr. Brogden and Mr. Smith the work has progressed to the final termination and consecration on Trinity Sunday.

Christ church, New Berne, sent besides its rector and lay-reader a goodly number of its members to participate in these exercises. The New Berne delegation were summoned by Mr. and Mrs. Brogden to the hospitality of their house, and over thirty in number were there. Mr. Sylvanus Barker used every effort to entertain all whom he could persuade, and a goodly number were his guests.

Other citizens were doubtless as hospitable, but these two mentioned were notably conspicuous in that line.

It was gratifying to the Bishop to be called upon to administer the rite of confirmation to a class of six, and among them Mr. Brogden himself, who has been of valuable aid in the building of the church.

An Old Bible Society Constitution. We have been shown by Major Graham Daves, a printed constitution of the New Berne Bible Society, 74 years old. Its provisions are pretty near the same as those that govern like organizations of the present day. The society sold bibles and also distributed them gratuitously among the poor and destitute. All subscriptions and donations received were used in procuring bibles to be given away. The business was in charge of the officers and ten other managers and was transacted by an agent appointed for the purpose. The report of this officer on June 1st 1818, shows a gratuitous distribution of 633 bibles and 95 testaments and cash sales of 263 bibles and five testaments.

We give the officers then in charge: John S. West, President; Wm. Dunn, 1st Vice President; James G. Stanly, 2d Vice President; Frederick Jones, Recording Secretary; J. B. Buxton, Corresponding Secretary and Agent.

Board of Managers: B. C. Gillespie, John M. Roberts, Thomas H. Daves, James M'Kinley, Moses Jarvis, William Ward, John F. Smith, Esq. James Carney, Isaac B. Croom and Jeremiah Brown.

Some of these names will be at once recognized. Some of our leading citizens of the present day are descendants of men mentioned above.

A curiosity of the orthography is that in it New Berne is spelled Nowbern and New York, Newyork.

The need of a perfectly safe and always reliable remedy for the peculiar disease of summer is universal. As a remedy for the household, office, on the farm, on shipboard and for travellers by land and sea, Winkelman's Diarrhoea and Cholera Remedy has proved its inestimable worth in the prompt relief and cure of all disorders originating in the stomach and digestive system, such as Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Cramps, etc. Serviceable under all conditions, always ready for use, and perfectly safe.
