CIRCUMSTANCES alter cases. When a woman is young and pretty she is in the nominative case, when she has a sweetheart she is in the possessive case, and when she marries she is in the objective case.

THERE is a dead lock in the Louisiana Legislature on the Senatorial question which it seems cannot be broken. Day after day the vote stands, Jones, 22; Gibson, 12; Adams, 21; Cottery, 12; Blanchard, 6; Bougeois, 3; Mahoney, 1.

"WHAT of Vilas?" Good, very good. Equal to either place upon the ticket. He would be a good running mate for Cleveland. Don't be distressed about the ticket. The Democratic party is rich in material.

THE President will be officially notified of his nomination at Minneapolis on next Monday. As this important event takes place the day before the Chicago Convention meets we hope it will not scare any horse off the track. If Harrison gets in the way run over him. That's all.

NEVER was there a greater hump than the tariff protects labor. Carnegie is the great iron king, the imperial friend of the McKinley bill, and now that the tariff is in full operation, Carnegie, Pepps & Co. propose a reduction of from ten to forty per cent in wages.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION. The Democratic National Convention meets at Chicago on next Tuesday, the 21st of June.

Even now the claus are gathering, and the neighing of the war-horses is heard in the distance.

The Democratic party has no News, Platts, Clarksons and Dudleys to arrange the cards, but it is said that Hill and Gorman know a trick or two, and that Tammany's Royal Bengal Tiger has never been tamed.

Conventions are usually manipulated by professional politicians while the wondering people look on, and with every move on the boards say, "Did you ever see the like?"

Whatever may be the history of past conventions, we shall be very much surprised if the approaching Chicago Convention is not representative of the people. There will be no such triumph of the office holder's brigade as was witnessed at Minneapolis.

Who will be nominated at Chicago? "You can't prove it by me." The most uncertain of uncertain things is the action of a political convention. Just now five days before the Convention is to assemble, it seems as if Grover Cleveland will be nominated by acclamation. It only required the slightest toss of the milk-maid's head to destroy all her dreams, and so it may be with us. The State of New York is not so quiet; the silver men of the West are not satisfied, and a combination of untoward circumstances may render his nomination impolitic and unwise.

"If it is not to be Cleveland who will it be?" Don't ask us, we are no soothsayer. Go and consult the astrologers, watch the flight of birds, observe the phases of the moon, and if none of these give assurance of "a better man to win a fairer day," let the winter of our discontent be made glorious summer by this son of York."

Really, it matters very little who is the candidate, so he be a man in whom the people have confidence; one whose ability is admitted and whose Democracy is unquestioned.

If anybody is curious to know why we don't get a new hat, he should leave the financial condition out of the question and kindly remember that everybody is expected to wear the party hat, and no body knows whether it will be a Cleveland beaver, a Gorman derby or a Morrison slouch. Nor does it make any difference. We are ready for either, and don't care how soon it comes.

Men are mere straws. Principals are granite mountains. One may be turned by the shifting breeze; the other is as immovable as the everlasting hills.

Inscribe the right principles on the flag, and it matters comparatively little who is the standard bearer.

"REWARD your friends and punish your enemies" is a political as well as a military maxim. It is rumored that Geo. V. Massey, of Delaware, who so strongly supported Harrison at the Minneapolis Convention, has been officially notified that he will receive the judgeship of the Supreme Court made vacant by the death of Justice Bradley.

A CHARLESTON special to the State Chronicle says: A careful survey of the melon territory tributary to the South Carolina and south-bound railways, which furnishes the bulk of melons to the north and west from this section, shows a total acreage of 5,000, about 25 per cent. less than the acreage in the same territory last year. The crop is reported in splendid condition and shipments will begin in about two weeks.

Headache and Dyspepsia. William E. Rookwell, No. 512 West 57th Street, New York, says:

"I have been a martyr to bilious headache and dyspepsia. Any indigestion in diet, overfatigue or cold, brings on a fit of indigestion, followed by a headache lasting two or three days at a time. I think I must have tried over twenty different remedies, which were recommended as certain cures by loving friends, but it was no use. At last I thought I would take a simple course of purgation with BRANDRETH'S PILLS. For the first week I took two pills every night, then one pill for thirty nights; in that time I gained three pounds in weight, and never have had an ache or a pain since."

Disease in one part of the body will eventually fill the whole body with disease. Every year or two some part of the system grows weak and begins to decay. Such part should be removed at once, and new matter be allowed to take its place. There's no need of cutting it out with a surgeon's scalpel. Purgate away the old, diseased and worn-out parts with BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A pure medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and Kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. The faith which you keep must be a faith that demands obedience, and you can keep it only by obeying.

Some Foolish People Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c. and $1 Trial size free. At all druggists. mar22 deod wew
