THERE was fun in the Senate. Senator Mitchell usually wears an immense beard, but he appeared Monday shaven and shorn. He rose from his seat for some purpose and Senator Fry, not recognizing him, asked if the gentleman was a member of the Senate.

JOHN RANDOLPH TUCKER has written a letter to the Governor of Virginia commending the plan of choosing presidential electors by districts. Mr. Tucker's word on constitutional questions has weight with the Supreme Court of the United States.

CONGRESSMAN BRYAN, of Nebraska, the young, handsome, and talented champion of tariff reform talks frankly. He gives it as a result of his brief experience that "politics is not an iridescent dream." Jes' so, Mr. Bryan. Politics per se never was. It is a veritable night mare. The "iridescent dream," however, lieth in the dispensation of the offices.

NORTH CAROLINA.
We are not of those who discredit the patriotism and conservatism of North Carolina.

He who declares that the Democratic party will not be successful in North Carolina, is either mistaken in his estimate of the people, or is himself wanting in those elements of manhood demanded by the exigencies of the situation.

That to be successful will require the exercise of every element of strength is not to be denied, but North Carolina has never yet failed to do her duty in times of great emergency, and the campaign upon which we have entered will give fresh proofs of her invincible spirit.

The platforms of the parties contesting for the suffrages of her people are so radically different as to leave no room to question the principles involved in the contest. No man can doubt the issues of the campaign, and it is little less than treason to the unstained honor of North Carolina to admit for a moment that she can, in any contingency, prove recreant in this, the supreme hour of her destiny.

The Democracy of North Carolina can achieve a glorious victory, but we must work! To merely wish the accomplishment of a great object is as idle as to whistle to the wind. Work, resolute and organized work, is the inexorable demand made upon every citizen of Carolina who is devoted to Home, Liberty and Right.

It is high time that the Fourth of July became the national holiday in a sober and earnest manner, without a Chinese accompaniment. It was a beautiful idea, that of our fathers, in assembling to hear the Declaration of Independence read. It was like those patriarchal customs of the ancients, in which the oracles and the law were returned to with veneration and gladness at stated times. Make the day an occasion when the best eloquence, the best character, the best of all patriotic gifts shall celebrate; when woman shall bring her garlands and her graces, when art shall decorate and the Fourth of July will not die out. But leave it in the hands of the pyrotechnists and the small boys, and the best patriots we have will flee to the mountains.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

THOSE of the enemy who are calculating on the strength of the third party in the South in the hope that it will seriously injure the Democracy will find themselves badly mistaken. There is no white man in the South who has arrived at that stage of idiocy as not to know that a Republican victory means Force Laws and negro supremacy, and they are hardly ready yet to put the feet of the negro on their heads by abandoning the Democratic party.—Richmond Times.

THE German force under command of Baron Bulow has sustained a serious defeat in Central Africa and has been compelled to evacuate an entire district of which it had taken possession. Emperor William, who is constantly thirsting for some new sensation, might find one by taking a trip to that country with one of his favorite regiments.

LEADING ex-politicians of the Republican party declare firmly that Harrison cannot carry New York. Equally leading and ex-politicians of the Democratic party declare with equal firmness that Cleveland cannot carry New York. The plain people, who are not saving a word, will probably be the ones after all to carry that State.

JIMMY SHERIDAN, of Elizabeth N. J., has the making of a successful Republican leader in him, if he live. Although only seven years old he has stolen $2,000 worth of property, his last haul being a Missouri State bond valued at $1,150.

Electropoise.
SIMPLE IN CONSTRUCTION. PERMANENT IN DURATION. EASILY APPLIED. ITS SKILLFUL USE QUICKLY LEARNED.

The Electropoise is an Instrument for the CURE OF DISEASE WITHOUT MEDICINE.

BASED on new theories of the cause and cure of disease, it deals with the electrical and magnetic conditions of the body and the gases surrounding it in the atmosphere, controlling these conditions at will. It is not electricity, DISEASE is simply impaired vitality. The Electropoise constantly adds to the vitality and only assists Nature, in Nature's way, to throw off the disease.

A 40-page book, describing treatment and containing testimonials from all sections, and for the cure of all diseases, mailed FREE on application. Address: ATLANTIC ELECTROPOISE CO., Washington, D. C. Charleston, S. C. Atlanta, Ga. W. M. WATSON, Agent, New Berne, N. C.
