Do today's duty, fight today's temptation. Do not distract your self looking forward to things you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw.

A MAN who can go into a national convention of 900 delegates, and carry 617 votes, with every delegate from his own State against him, must be a strong candidate.

By placing, ourselves, whether great or small, into the bank of heaven as a deposit, we become a partner in the firm where all drafts made in His name will be honored; where no bankruptcy occurs and the vaults are not in the hands of designing men, but all are eternal members bound by the seal of calvary which is stamped once for all.

LIKE the air, the church must press equally on all the surfaces of society, like the sea, flow into every nook of the shore-line of humanity, and like the sun shine on things foul and low, as well as fair and high, for she was organized, commissioned, and equipped for the moral renovation and salvation of the world.—Bishop Simpson.

We continue our review of the platform of the Democratic party. The first two sections, relating to Centralization and the Force bill, have been considered, and we come now to the remaining paramount issue of the campaign, the Tariff.

The section is as follows: "We denounce republican protection as a fraud, a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties, except for the purpose of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the Government when honestly and economically administered."

There is no room for quibble. The repeal of the McKinley Tariff and the substitution of actual free trade reciprocity will be consequent upon the reestablishment of the Democracy in the control of the Government.

The platform declares for the use of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal.

Mr. Sherman, and other leaders, declare that the Republican and Democratic parties occupy the same position on gold and silver, and that consequently the discussion of the silver question will not enter largely into the present campaign. Admitting this for the time being, it is to be remarked that the Democratic platform demands a sound paper currency, and recommends that the prohibition ten per cent tax on State banks, be repealed.

Many other subjects are considered, but these we have mentioned are "the backbone" and substance of the platform. On the issues so made the fate of the election depends.

To epitomize; the Republican party is in favor of consolidation, the Force bill and a protective tariff. The Democratic party is opposed to all of these, and insists that the rights of the States shall be preserved, the perfect freedom of the citizen to the full and unobstructed exercise of the elective franchise shall not be infringed, and no more tax shall be imposed upon the people than is absolutely necessary to defray the expenses of the Government economically administered.

ADLAIE STEVENSON.

We are gratified at the nomination of Gen. Stevenson for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Cleveland. He is just the man for the place. Old enough to be wise, young enough to be active, he will throw into the canvass every element of personal strength in the advocacy of the purest principles of government.

"Mr. Stevenson is of North Carolina parentage. His father moved from the section near Statesville to Illinois just before the birth of this son. Mr. Stevenson has filled many positions of trust and honor in Illinois, and served with great acceptability in Congress.

"When Cleveland was elected President in 1884, Mr. Stevenson became his First Assistant Postmaster General and won many encomiums on the efficient discharge of that difficult position."

He is very strong in the West. Cleveland and Stevenson will sweep the field.

THERE is much so called religion that reminds one of boys with wooden guns and tin swords playing soldiers. They go through many evolutions, but draw no blood and have no enemies. There is just such a type of religion which encounters no sin and which affects the kingdom of Satan as little as the boyish make believe.—The Christian Witness.

DON'T trouble yourself about the Adamic sin, but think serious over the wrongs committed by self. The visited sin of Adam is wiped out when you accept Christ as the atonement for that sin and after that you are made a child unto salvation through trust and as heir by faith.
