CLEVELAND and tariff reform, Harrison and the Force bill.

THE Pinkertons must go, and the Republican party should go with them.

HURRAH for Cleveland and the working men; down with Harrison and monopoly.

THE latest returns from the British elections show a majority for the Government of forty-five.

A JOINT resolution has been introduced in the Senate for adjournment of Congress on the 20th.

THE Railroad Commission has caused the Richmond and Danville railroad to purchase new steel rails for the Murphy branch of the Western North Carolina road.

MR. CROKER says New York will give an immense Democratic majority. This is the same Mr. Croker who recently made some predictions concerning the Chicago convention.

MR. SIMMONS has not yet accepted the Chairmanship of the Democratic State Executive Committee but he is not the man to decline any duty imposed upon him by the Democratic party.

A LITTLE Miss asked, "who is elected, Cleveland or Harrison?" W— answered, "The election has not come off," and then she said "If I had to choose between two men I could do it in a minute."

THE issue lies in the record of the parties and in the character and sentiments of the candidates. And it is upon this that the World bases its confident assurance that—The next President will be a Democrat.

THE Republican organ calls upon its party leaders in this State for "a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together." In vain! Platt's "pull" is gone, Fassett had his fingers rapped and let go, and Miller—well, he never had any "pull."

THE Western farmers who want free coinage of silver may be fooled into voting the Republican ticket by the passage of a Republican free-coinage bill by the Republican Senate. It is passed merely to fool them, knowing it cannot become a law while Harrison is President.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

THERE is but one way to maintain the public peace, and that is through the regularly constituted authorities. If the city, the county, the State, as the case may be, is unable in any emergency to protect the lives and property of its citizens, let the General Government be called upon rather than a gang of armed mercenaries, unknown to the law and themselves its violators, for the help that is needed. But the Homestead incident, while it does not seem to have brought the existing trouble any nearer to a solution, may be of benefit in expediting the suppression of an institution that should long since have been called to a halt.—Washington Post.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Bargain Store—Half Hose. Agricultural and Mechanical college. The Leslie E. Keeley Co. J. F. Taylor—Watermelons.

The weather bureau promises fair weather today.

The club headed by Mr. T. C. Daniels was victorious in the base ball game played at the Fair grounds yesterday afternoon. The score was 10 to 14.

The painters are nearly through with their work on the exterior of Mr. J. J. Howard's new residence and it is presenting quite a beautiful appearance.

The schooner L. Warren, Capt. Hall, was attached yesterday for seaman's wages and papers put in the hands of Dept. Marshal Hill for execution yesterday.

As you pass by cast your eye at Big Blue's new awning in red, white and blue. Mr. F. Ulrich has also erected an excellent awning. Both were up for the first time yesterday.

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. G. Vardell, who will preach tomorrow in Goldsboro, there will be no services in the Presbyterian church in this city. Sunday school as usual, at 5 p. m.

There will be a lecture on the evils of intemperance and the morphine habit from a scientific standpoint in the Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow; by Mr. Andrew Joyner of the Keeley Institute at Greensboro.

Two eminent Methodist ministers, Dr. L. N. Nash, of Wilmington, and Dr. L. W. Crawford, who occupies the chair of Biblical Literature in Trinity college, passed through last night en route to the New Berne district conference at Beaufort. There is a spontaneous expression of desire on the part of those who know of Mr. Crawford's being down this way for him to stop and preach while in this vicinity. There is a possibility that the wish may be gratified next week.

A member of the State Democratic Executive Committee reports that there was a full attendance and much interest exercised. Mr. Chambers Smith was re-elected but declined to serve a second term. Other nominations were Messrs. Pugh, Peebles, ex-Governor Jarvis, Richard Battle and F. M. Simmons. Mr. Simmons was elected on the second ballot. The position means hard work and that is what the new chairman is noted for. Our Cleveland and Carr club is getting in good trim. A wigwag on the lot opposite the Salvation Army barracks is proposed for headquarters.

Choice canteloupes, the shipment of which commenced over a week ago are now going off in increasing quantities. Barrels of very fine onions are also going forward. We noticed some from the farm of Mr. Geo. J. Dudley, numbers of which would weigh over two pounds each. This latter crop has not had the attention paid it that many others have but there is no reason why it should not assume large proportions for it is a remunerative one and results show they can easily be grown here. In fact it seems that there is scarcely any crop of the temperate zone but what can be raised in perfection in this favored locality.

Chocowinity Township and the N. W. & C. R. R.

We learn from the Washington Progress that Chocowinity township, Beaufort county, held a railroad meeting June 30th. Capt. A. W. Bryson made known to the meeting what had been done in New Berne and Washington in reference to securing the N. W. & C. R. railroad and said it would be useless to submit any proposition to Chocowinity until the company and Washington had agreed upon terms as the passing of the road through the township would depend on its going through Washington.

In view of the proposition that satisfaction terms would be made between the parties above named, a committee of nine representative men of the whole township were appointed to confer with Capt. Bryson and formulate a proposition to the N. W. & C. R. Co., which proposition was submitted to a mass meeting of the whole township held Friday, July 6th, 1892, at 11 a. m., at Trinity school house. We are glad to see this display of interest. The importance of securing the railroad renders it worthy of all the attention that it will receive.

The Firemen's Tournament.

The firemen's tournament of the State will take place at Asheville, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Besides the parade, etc., there will be sixteen contests of various kinds, mostly showing the skill with which the companies work, though some will be simply to add to the jollity of the occasion. The cash prizes aggregate $635. The Atlantic steam fire engine company of this city will be present with their Silsby engine which has just been brightened up and will enter for the quick steaming and distance throwing contests. The prizes offered are $125 for the winner in the quick steaming, and $25 for the distance throwing contest.

A Powerful Thunderbolt.

The Lamp Light and the Free Press give remarkable accounts of the work of lightning at the home of Mr. L. A. Cobb of Grifton. It is said that an accurate description of the scene would scarcely be believed by many.

The lightning struck the chimney and scattered the brick all over the yard. A window near by was torn all to pieces and a bed in the room converted into splinters. The lightning ran down the front wall of the house and tore up windows and doors.

After passing through the window it tore a hole through the wall, passed down the hall way from the front to the rear of the house into the kitchen, tore the stove to pieces and went through the floor into the ground.

The house is a $2,000 one and the damage to it is estimated by the agent of the company in which it is insured at $500.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Cobb was lying in the cradle not over a foot from the wall where the lightning went to the floor but he miraculously escaped without the slightest hurt, though heavy pieces of timber passed over the cradle and were driven through the door on the opposite of the room and the plastering and glass fell in the cradle sufficient to wrap him up.

Coming and Going.

The following who have been spending some time at Morehead passed through yesterday morning: Mr. D. J. Whitehead, editor of the Greenville Reflector and his family; Capt. J. S. Lockheart and Mr. T. J. Martin, of Durham; Dr. Cogwell and Mr. J. Boykin, of Oxford; Mr. S. P. Mayo, of Richmond; Miss Almada Eppes, of Virginia; Mrs. H. O. Wilbur, of Philadelphia; and Miss N. Douglas of New York.

The family of Mr. Geo. Green left to spend the summer at White Sulphur Springs at Mt. Airy.

Mr. Fred Richardson left to visit relatives in Greensboro.

Miss Addie Claypole left for Durham to visit Mr. Leo D. Hart.

Misses Hennie and Virginia Patrick, Mrs. S. M. Harding and Miss Carrie Harding who have been visiting at Mrs. A. B. Ferebee's, left for their homes in Kinston.

Mr. A. Cohn left on a business trip to Kinston, Greenville and other points.

Misses Daisy and Etta Ostenger, who have been staying at Mr. O. Marke, returned to their home in Kinston.

Miss Maggie Watkins, who has been visiting at Mrs. C. E. Slover's, left for Morehead last night.

Judge H. R. Bryan and wife left on the steamer house for Washington on a trip combining business and pleasure, and Miss Sadie Eaton left on the same steamer for the North on a pleasure trip and to visit relatives.

A Mid Summer Night.

ENTOR JOURNAL.—In a gondola under a May moon on the grand canal at Venice has been sung by poets as the most delightful "sweet doing nothing" this earth affords. The poet of today is offered a boat upon the river Neuse, the stars of summer, the "sweet South" breathing upon the sails and songs of love and romance softly sung into his ear.

Such a scene was "we in some nights ago, led thereto" by Mr. John Stanley Thomas, who is already credited with more than many men's share of generous acts of hospitality. The inspiration of the hour was the return to town of Miss Estelle Dall, and the presence of her guest, Miss Lena Hudgins of Greensboro.

The other ladies of the party were Miss Humphrey of Goldsboro; Miss Leah Jones, Miss Rosa Dall and Miss Dall of Snow Hill; Miss Fanny Willis and her guests Miss Howell of Goldsboro and Miss Edwards of High Point; Miss Nellie Walker, Miss Maude Moore, Miss Sophie Jones, Miss Emma Henderson, Miss Edna Nunn, Miss Carrie Claypole and Miss May Hendon.

Mrs. W. P. M. Bryan by her gracious presence gave assurance to solicitous parents that we would "come back early." The evening was full of music from the merry echoes of the University glass given by Mr. John A. Arthur to the plaintive ballads sung by Miss Hudgins. Miss Hudgins has a charming voice, clear and full of feeling.

Mr. Thomas who never does anything but on the most liberal fashion converted the fore-castle of our craft into a butler's pantry and served to his guests a delicious repast of ices and confections.

We returned to the Yeast Club house at the hour when genius and the stars mount their zenith, and said our few more last words under the deeper shadow of the elms along the homeward path.

A Blissful Anticipation!

Being very grateful to the people for their past patronage and support, and thinking they would like to know something of my former history, I have concluded to write a short sketch of my life. I do not do this with any self pride or conceit, but hoping that some good may come out of it. Many a poor boy whose circumstances are strained and surroundings are such that the future looks only dark may be encouraged to make an effort bearing what a poor country boy has done. So while this may cost me some considerable effort and loss of sleep, yet I shall spare no pains or time in giving a true history of what my life has been so far. Of course it is useless to mention my name for all know that there is not another man on earth that would attempt so much for his friends, that the same Big like whose purchases at 40, 50, and 67¢ cents on the dollar bring so much profit and causing so many smiles to the poor of our land.

The Population of New Berne is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection on the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c, and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Croup, Croup, and Hoarseness. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal Ejector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge.

THE CONTENTED SHEPHERD.

WRITTEN FOR THE JOURNAL.

By the side of a mountain ever shadowed by trees.

With thick clusters of vines intermingled and waved.

I behold my thatched cottage, dear mansion of love.

The seat of contentment of friendship and love.

In the morn when I open the latch of my door.

My heart throbs with rapture to hear the birds sing.

But at night when the dance in the village is over.

On my pillow I strive the best rest of spring.

When I lie to the fountain from noise's scorching rays.

While the torrens deep murmurs far reaching sound.

While the birds quit the pasture to quaff the clear stream.

And the locks in the vale lie extended around.

I muse but my thoughts are contented and free.

I regret not the splendor of riches and pride.

The lights of retirement are dearer to me.

Than the proudest appendage to greatness allied.

I tag and my song is the carol of joy;

My cheeks glow with health like the wild rose in bloom.

I dance, yet forget not, though blithe some and gay.

That I mourn the footsteps that lead to the tomb.

Contented to live yet not fearful to die.

With a conscience unspotted I pass through life's scenes.

On the wings of delight every moment shall fly.

And the end of my days be resigned and serene.

—CROWLEY.

A Note Of Warning TO THE PUBLIC.

AS a matter of justice to ourselves and to the reputation of Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's Double Chloride of Gold Remedies for the cure of the Liquor, Opium, Morphine and Tobacco Habits, and Neurasthenia, we warn the public that these remedies are not sold by any institution or sanitarian in the United States, except those established by our company under the uniform name of "THE KEELEY INSTITUTE."

All others claiming to use our remedies are frauds and impostors, and we warn the public that these remedies are not sold by any institution or sanitarian in the United States, except those established by our company under the uniform name of "THE KEELEY INSTITUTE."

We have now sixty Keeley Institutes established in various parts of the United States, where the Keeley Treatment is administered, and the Keeley remedies sold. We, however, caution all to examine well and know that they are dealing with GENUINE REPRESENTATIVES, authorized by us, before taking treatment or purchasing remedies.

The fraudulent establishments use the name of "Bi-Chloride of Gold" or similar titles. The newspapers do not discriminate sufficiently to know that they are impostors, and so put down all accidents occurring at such establishments as being brought about by the Keeley Treatment. This is a matter of much concern to us, and hence this warning.

Respectfully Yours,

A TRUE STORY.

Said Baby Ruth Cleveland to Baby M. Rex. You will sail up "Salt River" in March.

When that happy event shall come to pass, Remember, to keep off the White House lawn.

I'm real sorry your nose will be out of joint.

Let's tell tales; I can cheer you with one that has point.

It isn't a fable, but I never would say it, if I were not told and said as a young boy.

Once on a time—there lives in New Berne.

A town that is booming in every way you can see.

They are building new and better streets and works.

Electric cars, aqueducts, and gas works.

In this town lives a man, a real one, by birth.

And a wonderful thing he has done.

His name is Dr. Leslie E. Keeley.

Who has said Baby M. Rex, why of it, what a whopper!

It isn't, said Baby M. Rex, for he keeps his story.

With goods cheap as people near heard of before.

The Farmers' Alliance more it their headquarters.

And take with them home for their own and their daughters.

Such beautiful hats, boots, shoes, clothes and things.

Remember, all one name, and one place, in every town.

Because of the fact that he has put his name down.

Well, said Baby M. Rex, when I see a man.

I shall be like the Black bear at Fern.
