WHAT HAS IT DONE?

Following the line of our editorial on, why stand by the Democratic Party, we come to consider, what has it done? It reclaimed a continent from savage barbarity and filled it with Christian civilization. It established a Government on the purest principles of liberty and formed a Constitution that has stood the test of a century, and is everywhere recognized as the perfection of human wisdom and the corner stone of an indissoluble Union of indestructible States.

This much has Democracy done—and more—to extol the American system and extend its influence to the world at large.

We come to the supreme good: the influence of Democracy in the States. Here, it is the guardian of prosperity, and the protector of life and liberty.

Look at North Carolina. Paving over her colonial history, the part she acted in the formation of the Government, her progress and development from the adoption of the Federal Constitution to the downfall of the Confederacy, we come to the dark period of reconstruction. It was no fault of North Carolina that the despot's heel was on her soil. The ordeal of war was not of her choosing, but she held her colors on the perilous edge of battle until the giant mind of Davis was impotent to plan and the matchless genius of Lee could no longer execute. Leaving on the field the proud record of her deathless fame, her citizen soldiers returned to their homes and renewed their allegiance to the Union. But the avenger was on their track. Instead of being regarded as fellow citizens of a common country they were subjected to oppressions that Russia never knew.

No man with the common instincts of humanity can look upon North Carolina in the days of reconstruction, and suppress his indignant emotions. Bankruptcy universal, and all save honor lost. Her freeborn citizens outlawed, her home, dissipated, and their sacred relations violated—an ignoble race rioted in her ruin, and all we can know or dream of wretchedness was hers. From this condition Democracy rescued her. At its command the people rose in the majesty of freemen and shook radical bondage from their like dew drops from a lion's mane. The federal soldiers that had hovered like birds of evil omen over the brooding desolation folded their tents and marched northward, and then came in their stead white winged legions, the advance guard of a higher civilization and a more enduring prosperity.

Behold the old North State now! Churches and school houses on every hill—"peace, plenteousness and prosperity within her borders, and her temples vocal with unrestricted piety.

Who would restore Republican rule in North Carolina, with the revival of the days of reconstruction? "If any, speak for him have we offered."

O, it would be base ingratitude in North Carolina to abandon the Democratic party. She will not, she cannot do it. "Sooner far, may midnight blush to own her Star."

WINSTON, N. C., July 9.—Col.

Thomas Sutton, president of Salem Cleveland club, received a letter to-day from ex-President Grover Cleveland in response to one sent him by Col. Sutton, enclosing resolutions adopted by the Salem club. The letter is in Mr. Cleveland's own hand writing and is as follows: Gray Gables, Buzzards Bay, Mass., July 9.—My Dear Sir: I am glad to hear that there has been organized at Salem a democratic club and since I am always pleased to be related in any way in a movement to advance democratic principles, I desire to thank the new organization for adopting my name. I believe fully in the usefulness of such clubs and it seems to me that just at this time a "Cleveland Club" can be of great service to the democratic cause in its locality. The democratic cause in the present emergency is so fully identified with the welfare and prosperity of North Carolina that the work of your organization if effectually performed can not be otherwise than a patriotic service. This gives to its mission the greatest importance. Nothing will make me believe that our Southern people will allow themselves to abandon the shelter and protection which they know so well is afforded by upbuilding the principles of true democracy. Wishing for your club the greatest prosperity and usefulness, I am yours very truly. (Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND.

Self Praise. Self praise is no recommendation, but there are times when one must permit a person to tell the truth about himself. When what he says is supported by the testimony of others, no reasonable man will doubt his word. Now, to say that ALLOCK'S POROUS PLASTER is the only genuine and reliable porous plaster made is to self praise in the slightest degree. They have stood the test for over thirty years, and in proof of their merits it is only necessary to call attention to the cures they have effected and to the voluntary testimonials of those who have used them.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

THE STAGE AND THE PULPIT

Rev. F. M. Shroul, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight." Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at F. S. Duffy's drug store. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.
