REPUBLICANS are crowding because Elkins says West Virginia will vote for Harrison and Reid. Elkins is in Harrison's cabinet and lives in West Virginia. It is very natural for him to claim his State for the Administration of which he is a member. West Virginia will hold her place in the Democratic column.

THE North Carolina Monumental association, the object of which is to erect a Confederate monument in the Capital square has perfected its organization. Mrs. Armstead Jones is president, Miss Margaret Cowper secretary and Donald W. Bain treasurer. There is also a board of management composed entirely of ladies and an advisory board, of which General Robert F. Hoke is chairman.

EDUCATION!

"I want to get an education." "If I can give my children nothing else I want to give them an education."

By the word education, used in this way, is meant the learning of the schools. A knowledge of the rules of arithmetic—An acquaintance with the construction of language and an insight into the mysteries of science and philosophy.

It is an accomplishment to write elegantly, and speak fluently and correctly. A cultured man finds an easy passport into society. He charms others with the ease, grace and magic of his conversation.

There is no oppressive solitude to the man of letters. If there are no congenial companions around; no woman whose soul answers to his; no children appealing to his heart for its tribute of sympathy and love, he can turn to the inner chambers of his wonderful being, close the blinds that shut out the busy world, and with the progeny of soul and brain people it with beings of beauty whose thoughts are love's and whose words are sweet as honey and the honey-comb. If his thoughts mount to a higher sphere he has but to throw open the window and hold converse with the ethereal, range the heavens and explore most distant worlds. A supreme majesty wraps in the man of letters, when through the lenses of his imperial intellect he looks through nature up to nature's God, and feels the diversity stir within him.

Philosophy and science have equal charms. If we discuss their relative merits we but exhaust ourselves, and in the vestibule of our temples wait for the Great Teacher to give us light from heaven. If it is asked why unaided man cannot scale the heights of science and sound the depths of philosophy, the answer comes, Man is not a God!

But, after all there is not one man in a thousand who aspires to be a master of letters, not one in ten thousand who dreams of being a scientist or a philosopher. It is business that concerns the multitude. There must needs be "seed for the sower and bread for the eater." Is education necessary for this? Yes. Every employment requires the exercise of the mind. Education disciplines the mind, develops its powers, and so tempers it as to make it adjust itself to the requirements of every hour of business life. There is sense in the importance attached by the rustic sage to the three R's—"Reading, Riting and Rithmetic." Elemental it is true; but essential elements. How poor a man feels in this day who cannot read, is unable to write and has no knowledge of arithmetic! Such a man is handicapped at every step.

We have been led into this line of thought by having heard a man of intelligence say that the present distressed condition of affairs, owing to the failure of crops, would injure our educational institutions by causing a large withdrawal of patronage from them. Economy is imperatively demanded by the exigencies of the times, but it would be better to economize in other directions. Cut off family and individual expenses; dispense with personal luxuries rather than deprive our boys and girls of an education. Sacrifice home comforts, if need be, but let the children be educated. The success of a lifetime is involved.

ONE of our exchanges says that the names of Cleveland and Stevenson suggests one of them "Tariff Reform" and the other "Turn the rascals out." That is to say that the Democrats will elect the next President and Vice-President who will, in their official acts, respect and reflect the wishes of the people. Mr. Cleveland may have a Republican Senate to deal with as he had during his last term, but the opposition of that body to his tariff principles will only result in making him turn out more of the rascals. However, there is a possibility that the Senate may have a Democratic majority before so very long.—Richmond Dispatch.

A BANKER WRITES:

From experience in my family, Dr. H. Mosley's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicine, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels.

W. H. MAGNELL, Pres. Nat'l Bank, McMinnville, Tenn.

A CARD.

For nervous and sick headaches, indigestion, biliousness and constipation (of which I have been a great sufferer) I have never found a medicine that would give such pleasant, prompt and permanent relief as Dr. H. Mosley's Lemon Elixir.

J. P. SAWYELL, Griffin, Ga., Publisher Daily Call.

Good actions crown themselves with lasting days; who deserves well, needs not another's praise.

Swamps.

Are not the only abode of malaria. You find it everywhere, even in localities where atmospheric and sanitary conditions would seem to be unfavorable to its development. The universal remedy for and preventive of the dire complaint is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Wherever the malarial miasma assumes its most virulent form, and whether it be chills and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague or ague cake, the Bitters is most popular and constitutes the best means of protection and cure. From Maine to the Isthmus of Panama, in Guatemala, Mexico, South America and the tropics this truly famous medicine has won "golden opinions" from all conditions and classes in more than a metaphorical sense. For debility, indigestion, constipation, rheumatism, insomnia, neuralgia, liver and kidney trouble it is highly efficacious. Use it with persistence.

The usual fortune of complaint is to excite contempt more than pity.

The need of a perfectly safe and always reliable remedy for the peculiar disease of summer is universal. As a remedy for the household, office, on the farm, on shipboard and for travelers by land and sea, Winkelman's Diarrhoea and Cholera Remedy has proved its inestimable worth in the prompt relief and cure of all disorders originating in the stomach and digestive system, such as Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Cramps etc. Serviceable under all conditions, always ready for use, and perfectly safe. Price 25c. at all druggists. June 4d & wly.

We have a speedy and positive cure for catarrh, diphtheria, canker mouth and hoarse-ness, in BILLORE'S CANTHARID REMEDY. A nasal injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50c. Sold by New Berns Drug Co.

BIG IKE'S COLUMN.

From two to three thousand people drink lemonade free of charge at Big Ike's Clothing Store every Saturday.

The store opposite the Baptist Church, on Middle street, with a Nine Thousand Dollar Stock, has been closed out to Big Ike at 55c. on the dollar, and still there are some people who have so little judgment as to walk right by and pay a hundred and twenty-five cents on the dollar.

The Fool Killer will come around some of these days, boys. Look out for yourselves.

A man remarked to Big Ike that he saw lots of his advertisements in the JOURNAL, but did not believe them. Fool Killer will get him, sure.

I will give One Hundred Dollars to any man who can show one of my ads untrue.

The biggest fool trick of a merchant's life is when he makes an untrue statement to the public.

I am no dead man, and want the public to know it.

I can sell goods lower than any merchant in Newbern buys them, and want the people to know it.

Pro bono publico, and want the people to know it.

I have so many goods in my two stores, that I cannot mention the articles and prices unless I start a newspaper myself.

Some people say they take the JOURNAL as much to read Big Ike's advertisements as anything else.

The cry comes daily, Who writes Big Ike's advertisements? He lives in a little house around the corner. Watch his room from twelve o'clock at night till daybreak and some night you will find out.

I study my business so much until I dream most of my ads.

Big Ike weighs 350 lbs., wears No. 13 Shoes, nose six inches long, and a good looking man.

Big Ike bought out a party at Anrora, N. C., and a man walked sixteen miles to see him; fortunately for Big Ike he left the day before.

Here's your goods and here's your money. Not a dollar's worth goes out until it's paid for.

Big Ike does the largest cash business of any man east of Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Big Ike has bought over Twenty Thousand Dollars' worth of Goods at 50c. to 67 1/2c. on the dollar, factory cost, since Jan. 1st, 1892.

BE NOT DECEIVED by other merchants when they tell you that Big Ike's Stock is old, and you will get stuck if you trade with him.

When I buy a man out I sell the damaged stock at auction, have a separate table, and lay these old goods aside and run them off at any price I can get.

Tremendous crowds attend my auction sales. Men will tell you they get some of the best bargains they ever had, and some get stuck like the devil at all other auctions.

Well regulated families don't visit New Bern without getting Big Ike's price.

When you bring your memorandum down remember there is something on the list that you can buy 25c. cheaper at Big Ike's than anywhere else.

You will be presented with a book after September 1st containing the Life of Big Ike.
