In a few short years Trinity College has taken rank with the foremost and changed the whole policy of higher education in the State. With her new buildings and superior equipments; with her progressive spirit, and public services there is no end to the noble part that she has yet to play in the development of the life and thought of the South.

The next term opens Sept. 1st. at Dur-ham, in the best buildings of the kind in the State, if not in the South. The seven departments with regular courses of four years each, together with several courses for special students, ranging from one to two or more years each in length, are open. The course in electrical engineering is a new thing in the State, and Trin-ity has one of the best plants installed on her own premises for the purpose of lighting the grounds and buildings and for teaching this new science.

The College Inn is a model college dor-mitory of 100 rooms. Ample provision has been made for the welfare of students that are really needy and worthy. The catalogue announcing the scope of in-struction carried out last year indicates that the college has been arrying out a larger educational program than the his-tory of education in North Carolina has ever yet seen. A Blissful Anticipation!

Being very grateful to the people for their past patronage and support, and thinking they would like to know something of my former history, I have concluded to write a short sketch of my life. I do not do this with any self pride or conceit, but hoping that some good may come out of it. Many a poor boy whose circumstances are strained and surroundings are such that the future looks only dark may be en-couraged to make an effort hearing what a poor country boy has done. Bo while this may cost me some considerable effort and loss of sleep, yet I shall spare no pains or time in giving a true history of what my life has been so far. Of course it is useless to mention m name for all know that there is t another man on earth that would atsame Big Ike whose purchases at 40, 50, and 67) cents on the dollar bring so much profit and causing so many smiles to the poor of our land.
