THE cholera is increasing rapidly in parts of Asia and Europe.

THE Queen has asked Gladstone to form a cabinet. Hall to the chief!

GOVERNOR NORTHERN, of Georgia has been renominated by the Democratic State Convention.

CHEERING news comes from New York, Indiana and Illinois. Democrats are confident of carrying all of them in November Hurrah for Cleveland!

IT IS the opinion of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, of England that the son of a duke is as good as a common workingman as long as he behaves himself.

KILLED by a mosquito! Is that not Yeggie, killed by a mosquito and no mistake. Peter Kennedy, of New York, was bitten and died at Bellevue hospital.

AT the Lumberton convention last Wednesday Hon. S. B. Alexander was renominated for Congress by acclamation, and Sol. C. Well, Esq., of Wilmington for elector on the first ballot.

THE JOURNAL does not care to champion any man's claims to the seat on the supreme court bench made vacant by the death of the lamented Davis, but we take occasion to express our high admiration of Judge Conner, as a man, a Democrat, a lawyer and a Christian gentleman. He would be an ornament to the supreme court of North Carolina.

ELIAS CARR was nominated by the Democratic Convention because he was believed to be the best representative of the farmers generally and Alliance men especially in the State. Mr. Carr is a true Democrat and most excellent gentleman, worthy the support of all Democrats, but he especially deserves the support of every farmer in North Carolina.

THE Third party commends itself to the support of Southern men—in a horn. They nominated the boss South hater for President and in Edgecombe they have nominated a negro for the Legislature! Rattlesnakes and oon skins!

THE Minnesota miller who says it would be better for the people of the country if they had to pay a couple dollars more a barrel for their flour, agrees with the protected manufacturers that the more tribute the people pay and the higher they are taxed the better they are off.—Star.

THERE was great excitement in Memphis when it became known that Governor Buchanan had commuted the Sentence of H. Clay King, who was by the Supreme court sentenced to hang on the 12th, of August. The Governor was hung in effigy, and King was removed from Memphis to avoid lynching.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Howard, J. L. McDaniel—Figs.
J. W. Wood—Removal.
Hachbim & Willett—A challenge.
J. E. Latham—Commissioner.

There will be a big Democratic rally and flag raising at Goldsboro on Saturday, August 27. Ex-Governor Jarvis and Mr. Elias Carr will address the people on that occasion.

Big like his had carpenters at work this week ceiling the upper portion of his store, fixing shelves and making other improvements, with the intention of removing the remainder of the stock from the store which he recently bought out down to his regular place, that he may have all immediately under his eye. The union of the two stocks, he informs us, will give him a $15,000 stock in the one store, purchased way down at less than original cost, which he intends to give his customers the benefit of. One of the new arrangements at the centre of the store will be an arc electric light for regular use on the first floor, but which he can raise at once the same as the street lamps are raised, to the second floor at any time required.

The Fish Buildings. Mr. J. B. Lane has finished the three first buildings that he has just put up for Mr. J. F. Taylor below his store in remarkably quick time. In 2 1/2 weeks from the time the work commenced they were completed and the tenants moved in. Mr. B. B. Lane occupies the first one, Mr. Purney Gaskill the next and Mr. Haywood Toaker the lower one.

These are the best buildings ever put up for this purpose in the city. They have plenty of room with sloping floors and suitable arrangements for drainage where the fish are packed and there is an office in each at the front part. There is also ample room space up stairs for the storage of boxes or crates of any kind, nets or any thing that the needs of the business require to have on hand.

Mr. Lane is already at work putting up four more for Mr. Taylor below these.

FACTORIES

FOR VARIOUS LINES OF COTTON GOODS.

How They are Multiplying and Enlarging in the South—Their Success Should Furnish Inspiration to our people.

It sometimes happens that the easiest way to incite people to action on any line is to get them informed as to what others are doing along the same line. Therefore we take from a recent issue of the Tradesman published at Chattanooga, Tenn., the following portion of a list of cotton working factories that it gives which are being established or enlarged.

A suspender factory will be built at Athens, Ga., by local capitalists.

A company is being organized at Ellerton, Ga., to build a $75,000 cotton mill.

A movement is on foot to secure the establishment of a cotton factory at Madison, Ga.

The Coosa Yarn Company, of Piedmont, Ala., contemplates erecting another cotton mill.

The Greenwood Cotton Mills, Greenwood, S. C., will double the capacity of their plant.

A cotton mill will be erected at Hampton, S. C. N. H. Hamilton and others are interested.

At Columbia, S. C., McCreey & Robertson will establish a $10,000 wadding and batting mill.

The Humboldt Suspender Company, of Humboldt, Tenn., has increased its capital stock to $12,000.

The Porter Dale Manufacturing Company is erecting rope works at Porter Dale, near Covington, Ky.

Orders have been placed at an Eastern machine shop for twenty-eight Foss & Perry cards for the cotton mill at Spartanburg, S. C.

The Pownant Knitting Company, of Norfolk, Va., has been chartered to manufacture cotton and woolen goods. Capital $100,000.

The West Huntsville Cotton Mill, now in course of erection, at Huntsville, Ala., will be larger than was at first contemplated. The capital will be over $100,000.

The Crown Cotton Mills, of Dalton, Ga., intends to erect a new building next fall 225x50 feet, one story high, to be used for a weave shed. The plant's capacity will be doubled.

The demand for ball thread manufactured by the Newman (Ga.) Cotton Mills, has increased at such a rate that it has been found necessary to double the spinning capacity of the mills in this department.

The Mountain City Woolen Mills, McMinville, Tenn., will build a new dye house, also a two-story building to be used for the office and cutting department. This plant is doing a good business. Forty hands are employed.

It is now announced that the Clinton Cotton Mills, Clinton, S. C., are assured. The money has been raised by subscription among the citizens of Clinton and vicinity, and work will begin at once.

The Eufaula Cotton Mills, Eufaula, Ala., have closed the contract for an addition to their building of 80x40 feet. They will increase their power by adding another engine of 150 horse power, and will also add fifty more looms with necessary preparation for the same.

The site for the new cotton mill, "The Catawba," at Chester, S. C., has been selected just outside the corporate limits of the city. The Georgia, Carolina & Northern will build a track from the mill site to the road, and active work on the plant will be commenced at once.

The Pulaski Knitting Mills, one of the new enterprises at Savannah, Ga., are now in full blast. The company is engaged entirely in the production of yarn socks. There are thirty-nine knitting machines in operation, and fifteen more are being put in. The yarn used is the production of the Savannah Cotton Mills, and is of good quality. The entire output of the mills is sold in New York, the socks being heavier and a better quality than the Savannah market demands. The machines are made after a new patent, owned by the Pulaski company and two Northern companies, and are believed to be superior to any knitting machines in the market.

The Anderson Cotton Mills, Anderson, S. C., have let the contract for their new factory building. Watson & Cecil, of North Carolina, secured the contract. Work will begin at once. The mills have been running a year or two, and have been paying a nice dividend ever since put in operation. The idea is now to double the capacity of the mills.

The above is only a partial list of those it mentions in different parts of the South. "Oh well" some objector may say, "they tell of what is going on in other States and it may be that they are better fixed in some respects for carrying such enterprises than agricultural North Carolina."

If there are among our readers inclined to take such a view of it we would call special attention to the fact that the number of North Carolina enterprises mentioned in the list is larger than those of any other State, and there is not a shadow of reason why it should not be so, for this State is abundantly supplied with all things essential to success. Here is the way factories are driving ahead in this State:

The new addition to the cotton mills at Henrietta, N. C., will be in operation in August.

The Pearl Cotton Mills is the latest enterprise at Durham, N. C. The capital stock is $100,000.

M. E. Blalock & Co. can give information concerning the erection of a cotton mill at Norwood, N. C.

The knitting mill of Spoon Bros., at Gray's Chapel, N. C., is nearing completion and will soon be ready to begin operations.

A committee has been appointed at Winston, N. C., to solicit subscriptions for the erection of a $500,000 cotton mill.

Alfred Burgess, of Greensboro, N. C., has leased the Hamburg Cotton Mills, at Mt. Airy, N. C., and has put them in operation.

Manufacturing Company, of Asheville, N. C., and the Huguenot Mills, of Greenville, has received an order for 900,000 yards of plaid.

The Rocky Mount Cotton Mills, Rocky Mount, N. C., are putting in another water wheel and arranging to raise the dam, it is said, for the purpose of largely increasing their plant.

Does not the reading of such items give a realizing sense of New Bern's backwardness along this important line of industry? Not a cotton working factory of any kind in the city or county! Let not time to throw off this reproach and take a stand with the most wide-awake of North Carolina manufacturing cities. It can be done and should be done.

COLORED FAIR NOTES.

The Fair is Over.

There was a pacing race for a purse of $20 in the morning, Kallid belonging to W. J. Faison, of Clinton was the winner.

Seven base ball clubs have held daily contests for the liberal premiums offered. The Charlotte Quicksteps won the first prize, $75, the Kinston club the second prize, $25. The New Bern Mutuals played several clubs and won more games than any other club, but they were themselves overcome at last and both prizes as stated go to the clubs of other cities.

There was a wire-walking contest yesterday afternoon between the Raleigh and the Washington walkers that awakened considerable interest and pleased those who viewed it.

The "talking machine" has astonished many of the visitors. Besides letting the machine give its regular recitations, Mr. Parsons, the exhibitor, showed yesterday how the impressions were taken. After placing one of the blank wax rollers in position, he spoke in his usual tone of voice through a tube communicating with a delicate two-pointed needle that touched the roller, one point cut a very fine groove and the other made the indentations, so small as scarcely to be perceptible and yet corresponding to the sounds as the words were uttered. Immediately on being passed through again the words were reproduced with the same rapidity, tone and distinctness in which they were spoken. Mr. Parsons will remain in the city a few days giving parlor exhibitions, in which by placing a trumpet on the phonograph the use of the ear tubes is discarded and a room full of people can hear without being in connection with the phonograph.

All were kept lively by the races, games, wire walking, concerts, etc., and by the speaking, fireworks and grand electric light march of the brass bands, clubs, etc., at night, which were the closing exercises of the Fair.

Revels in the Country. Rev. J. W. Gurganus has had a very interesting meeting at Providence church, Vanceboro circuit. There was a glorious revival and several united with the church.

A grand camp meeting will begin at Bethel church, Vanceboro circuit, another one of Mr. Gurganus' charge, next Wednesday, the 17th inst. Five ministers are expected to take part in carrying on the meetings.

A glorious revival is now going on in the Free Will Baptist church at Cronan under the preaching of Rev. Mr. Lewis of Core Creek, Carteret county. There have been a number of conversions and several have handed in their names to join the church. We are informed that there were over a dozen penitents Thursday night.

A Supervisor Says One Cause of Bad Roads is the Failure to Enforce the Road Laws.

I see a good deal just now in the papers with regard to better roads. People generally need information as to the law of the State bearing on this subject, and I think a few points just here is in order. The law is explicit and complete. Every Justice of the Peace is a member of the Board of Supervisors. This Board has absolute control of the working of each road in their respective township. The remedy of bad roads is in the enforcing of the law. This cannot be done unless the magistrates act in concert and require, under penalty of the law, every overseer to have his road worked as the law requires. There is gross neglect of duty everywhere on the part of Supervisors, and how can they expect the overseer to do his duty when they neglect theirs?

Consider how impossible it is to keep a farm in order when the overseer of the farm never sees or makes inquiry of the whereabouts of the overseer, or condition of the farm, nor cares anything about his property. This the precise condition of public roads in North Carolina. I mean that the Justices in one township in this county were indicted at our last court. Let the good work go on. I think there are but few Justices in the State who are gentlemen.—Supervisor in Rocky Mount Argonaut.

Third Party Advocates Worst.

At Seven Springs last Friday Mr. N. J. Rouse made an able speech in favor of Democracy and Governor Cleveland, in reply to Mr. Council Woodson. Mr. Rouse had the facts and arguments on his side and completely downed Mr. Woodson on whose side he was only prejudiced. Prof. Maxwell, the phonologist, attempted to speak after Mr. Rouse and was followed by Mr. H. E. Shaw who did up Mr. Maxwell in great style. There were a number of conversions from the third party here. It was a field day for Democracy, which it won on the assembly all over the State.—Kinston Free Press.

Proposals. Sealed proposals will be received for thirty days for the construction of a Boiler for the Atlantic Steam Pipe Engine.
