EVERY shot fired at a People's party man goes to the heart of a Republican.

DAY by day the political situation is improving. Democratic skies are very bright.

A New York woman who sued to collect a 30-year board bill has been awarded a judgment of nearly $10,000.

THERE will be a meeting of the State Executive Committee in the city of Raleigh at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, September 6, 1892.

GENERAL WEAVER told the people at Little Rock, Ark., that they would have plenty of money if he should be elected President.

THE New York Opera House the most magnificent and expensive play house of the age was burned and utterly destroyed last Saturday.

THE News and Observer published the speech of General Stevenson on opening the campaign in Illinois. It will appear in the True Issue.

The United States now holds 21 law firms made up of husbands and wives. In addition to these, there are at least 180 American women who practice law in the courts or publish legal publications.

EVERY good man and woman in North Carolina regrets the inability of Senator Vance to speak in this campaign. There is a drop of comfort in the assurance that the great Senator will write a letter for publication. God bless Zeb Vance!

"DON'T you see the Peoples party is making nominations every day?" Certainly. Any body can make a nomination, getting enough votes to carry an election is very different. There are not enough "Third" party men in this campaign to man a picket post.

THE Atlanta Journal was the first paper to place our campaign paper the True Issue—on its exchange list, and the Louisville Courier Journal was the second. With such magazines at command we will be able to point hot shot into the ranks of the enemy. Besides we will be furnished with solid arguments on the issues of the campaign, and reliable news of the day by the best papers in these centers of influence. Thanks to the Atlanta Journal and the Louisville Courier Journal.

"If there are so few People's party men why do you keep firing at them?" There are two reasons. Most of them are deserters from the Democratic camp, and by the rules of war deserters are shot. Then, again, they are the allies of the Republicans. By cutting off the allies we destroy the efficiency of the main army.

WHILE the health authorities of our large cities are adopting measures to prevent the introduction of cholera, every householder may do much toward creating conditions that will minimize the danger of an epidemic and its force if it should find an entrance. Clean alleys, yards, wells and cellars, and the use of disinfectants are preventives within the reach of all. There is also much truth in ex-Surgeon General Hamilton's remark that "the sanitary officers throughout the country are fully alert, but some of them seem to forget that one of the most important duties of an officer charged with sanitary administration is the prevention of panic. Panic which paralyzes the industries and dries up the channels of trade does almost as much harm as the epidemic itself."—Phil Record.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. B. Hill—Libel notice.

L. H. Cutler & Co.—To winners.

E. W. Carpenter—For rent.

Miss Leah Jones—School opening.

The Cleveland and Carr Club will meet at the court house again tonight, the wigwag not being quite ready for use.

Mr. R. P. Williams informs us that the work of excavating for the water works boilers and for the building will be begun this morning.

The grass on the Academy Green and Collegiate Institute campus is being mowed, preparatory to the opening of the schools next Monday.

The steamer R. E. Lee, which was burned until she sunk at Vanceboro a few months ago, was raised last week and her rebuilding is contemplated.

The Democratic wigwag is getting well under way. It is enclosed and is now being covered. Next week's meeting of the Cleveland and Carr Club will doubtless be held in it.

There will be a special meeting of the New Berne Yacht Club tonight to receive the resignation of the president, Mr. John Stanley Thomas, who is about to leave to finish his theological course.

Mr. E. T. Berry has almost finished repainting the interior of the Citizens' Bank in a lovely light color, with a pretty frieze and dado. The wood work is grained oak to correspond with the bank counters.

Another of our citizens, Mr. W. B. Boyd, has young bananas growing. It is several weeks since they made their appearance, and if we have a late fall there is a prospect that somebody will have a chance to eat New Berne raised bananas.

The evangelistic meeting at Lanes' Chapel, Vanceboro circuit, will begin on Saturday 10th. It will be conducted by Rev. J. F. Butt and the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gurganus. The church is about fifteen miles from New Berne by way of Street's ferry.

How about the band that was organized some time ago. We hoped ere this to have been having campaign music from them; but unless they move faster we are afraid they will not be ready in time to join in and help celebrate Cleveland's election.

Hon. Jas. H. Fou will address the people of Craven county on the issues of the day at the following times and places: Port Barnwell, Wednesday Aug., 31st; Alonzo Fulcher's store in No. 3 township, Thursday, Sept. 1st; New Berne Friday night, Sept. 2, and at Reelsboro, Saturday, Sept. 3d.

Rev. J. W. Lee, who passed through last night en route to Harlows, via Morehead, where he is to conduct a series of meetings lasting eight days. They will commence tonight. Mr. Lee has closed a series at Oak Hill of the Atlantic circuit on the eastern shore of Virginia, which resulted in fifty conversions to the church and several to other churches. There were seventy-five conversions in all.

October Fairs. The Elizabeth City Economist says: "The Stockholders of the Park Fair held a meeting here and determined on Oct. 2, 4, 5 and 6, as the time of annual meeting. The field is now open and without a rival and we see no reason why it should not be a complete success."

The Edenton Fair, of which Frank Wood is President and J. C. Bond is Secretary, will be held at the Fair grounds, Oct. 29, 30, 31 and 1st.

The State Fair for which special efforts are being made and for which fine special attractions have been secured will be held in Raleigh on October 18, 19, 20, and 21.

Proceedings Against Oyster Commissioners.

The charges of misconduct in office preferred some months ago against Chief Shell Fish Commissioner, W. H. Lucas and his assistant, Capt. Adam Warner, will be investigated tomorrow at the court house by Mr. A. W. Heywood, of Raleigh, who was appointed by the Governor for the purpose.

We are told that the steamer Bertie May has gone down to Ocracoke to bring up parties who will give testimony against the commissioners.

Col. Lucas, who arrived yesterday, says he wants the matter sifted to the bottom, that it may be seen what manner of men he has to fight to prevent the carrying out of their monopolistic schemes. He says further that as he understands it, the Shell Fish Commission was clothed by the law creating it with certain powers, and while in the possession of those powers he will protect the rights of those whose interests the law was meant to guard, and that the only way for those wishing to infringe upon them to carry out their points is to get him out of their way, that they cannot do it while he is commissioner, and that he would rather lose the office in the discharge of his duty, if their machinations should prevail, than to hold it and by neglect of duty keep in favor with them by not stopping the carrying out of their schemes.

Coming and Going.

President W. S. Chadwick of the A. & N. C. R. R. and Messrs. L. H. Cutler and Thos. Daniels went up to Raleigh yesterday morning. Messrs. Chadwick and Daniels will also visit Trinity college, Durham, and Mr. Cutler will keep on to Greensboro to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Watkins.

Mr. O. Marks and Mr. T. J. Turner left for northern markets to purchase fall stocks of goods.

Mr. W. T. Dunn left on a northern business trip.

Messrs. Robert, Willis, J. W. Daniels, and Albert Bangert of the city and Mr. Guy Lane of Bellair, left to enter Trinity college.

Miss Mattie Belo, of the city, and Miss Sallie Bonner of Aurora, left to enter Salem Female Academy.

Mr. Thos. Keene who has been visiting at Mr. S. R. Street's, left returning to his home in Danville, Va., and his cousin, Miss Nannie Street, left to visit Miss Mamie Tyack, of Danville.

Mr. Geo. W. Gaskill of the city, and Mr. John Mattocks of Pollocksville, have left to enter the State University.

Mr. C. C. Jordan, who recently moved to the city from Raleigh, left yesterday morning after his family.

Democratic Club Convention.

Circulars and posters are around advertising the great convention of Democratic clubs which meets in Raleigh on September 16th. It is intended to be the grandest rally of young Democrats ever held in the South, and every town and township in North Carolina is urged if it has not already been done, to organize at once a red-hot Democratic club and to send delegates to this great gathering of young Democrats. Each club is entitled to five delegates and five alternates, and one additional delegate and alternate for every 25 names on the club roster.

The grand feature of the occasion is that Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson, our esteemed candidate for vice President is to be there and address the great gathering. He will certainly be there and Senators Ransom and Vance and other speakers of national fame have signified their desire to be at the convention and are expected.

There will be a parade by thousands of club members through the principal streets of the city and at night torchlight processions and fireworks will be in order.

There will be reduced rates for the occasion on the various railroads and also at the Raleigh hotels.

Every one who can should be there and give an old North State welcome to the home of his fathers to the next vice President of the United States. It will be a grand gathering.

A Runaway Accident.

Dr. Webb Smith, of Vanceboro met with quite a serious accident Monday about noon. He had been out a few miles from the village to make a professional visit and on his return his horse became frightened at his raising an umbrella and the sudden unexpected fact that he made threw Dr. Smith, unprepared as he was for it, out of the buggy between the wheels, and the hind wheels ran over him. He was right badly hurt. His foot was painfully sprained and it is thought that one of his ribs is broken.

Notice.

A regular meeting of the Cleveland-Carr Club will be held at the court house tonight at 9 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. One of the Democratic canvassers, Mr. J. H. Fox will address the meeting. By order of the President.

EXCUM IN HOT WATER AGAIN.

Arrested and Fined for Profanity in the Presence of Ladies—Another Warrant out Against Him for Perjury.

Dr. W. P. EXCUM, Third Party candidate for Governor, was arrested in Goldsboro, Monday evening, at the instigation of the Republican postmaster, for using profanity in the post office in the presence of ladies. He was brought before Mayor Hollowell, convicted and fined $7.00. After this he departed for Raleigh.

EXCUM swore that he did not use the language attributed to him, and another warrant has been issued against him for perjury and will be served upon him on his return.

Poor EXCUM. It is said he took to the woods at the time of the great Democratic speaking in Goldsboro. Perhaps it would have been better for him had he remained there.

Following a Republican Swill-tub.

Two years ago I stood with Harry Skinner and Elbert Moyer in Gritton and talked good Alliance doctrine. They said then what I'm saying now. I stand now where I stood then, but where are they?

You who have been in cities have seen a negro driving an old cart containing a large swill tub. This thing smells bad to a fellow's nose. Now there lived some years ago a wealthy old miser in a city. He was hated and despised by all. He wanted a respectable funeral and so he gave all his money to a charitable institution in the city, on condition that they get some gentlemen to walk behind the swill tub cart. The officers to the institution were ashamed to go, so they hired two Irishmen for $5.00 each. The procession started with the Irishmen wearing silk hats and walking with bowed heads. Presently they turned a corner and the swill tub cart turned around the corner just ahead of the procession, and on they went, swill tub, hearse and Irishmen.

After a few minutes I said to Dennis, "Faith an' Dennis, I smell something off." Dennis replied "It's the man." "No, no," said Pat, "no man in the coffin ever smell like that, and by St. Patrick I'll see what it is." "But," said Dennis, "you'll lose your $5.00." "$5.00 or no $5.00, I'll see what it is," and raising his head, he discovered that the hearse was gone and that they were following the swill tub cart. And just as sure as there is a heaven, you misquid men will find on the 8th of November that you have been following only the swill tub of the Republican party.

I stood by the Alliance in its palmy days and I shall continue to abide with it even in this dark hour. I can't be driven out—Extract from speech of Hon. E. C. Boldingfield at Centennial Neck.

Experience of an Ex-Champion.

Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycling, jumping, swimming, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Harry Brooks writes:

"No 321 East 12th St., New York, April 2, 1886.

Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters have been brought to my attention. I take this opportunity to state that I have used ALCOCK'S PAINLESS PLASTERS for over 20 years and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and at tribute my recovery entirely to ALCOCK'S PAINLESS PLASTERS."
