—MR. LEASE: "Sarah is that water warm?" Servant: "No sir." Mr. Lease: "Then heat it, so I can clean this baby. With tending this Kid, washing the dishes, milking the cow, and darning the socks, I haven't time to say my prayers. But here goes anyway: "Good Lord deliver us."

"But what is the meaning of protection? It means an additional expense for each loaf, that is the Irish of it. If he had not the protection, the loaf would sell for a shilling; but if he has protection, it will sell for one-and-sixpence. Protection is the English for sixpence; and what is more, it is the English for an extorted sixpence. The real meaning of protection, therefore, is robbery—robbery of the poor by the rich."—Daniel O'Connell, September 28, 1843, in his fight against the high tariff corn laws.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Howard.

Wm. L. Palmer—Something beautiful. Nunn & McSorley—Royster's candy and mountain apples.

Fine weather today.
The subject for the Y. M. C. A. devotional meeting next Sunday afternoon will be "Drunkenness."
Nancy Hanks, the world's greatest trotter, has again lowered her record at Terre Haute, Ind., trotting a mile on a regulation track in the wonderful time of 2:04.

The worst of the cholera epidemic in Europe appears to be over. Reports generally from the various points where it has been raging is that it is decreasing in violence.

The testing of the Fire Alarm System yesterday was thorough and satisfactory. It proved that its working is admirable. The alarm will again be tested today for the benefit of the city council. Yesterday's test was for the contractor.

Next Sunday being Communion Sunday in the Presbyterian church, there will according to custom be a couple of extra services preceding it. Tonight's service will be held at 7:30 o'clock, and the one tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The registration books are now open and it behooves every Democrat to see that his name is on them properly and also to watch out and call his neighbor's attention to the performance of this useful duty also. If you fail to register your vote is lost.

Mr. Isaiah Wood an old and respected citizen died at his residence in this city yesterday morning, aged 70 years. He was a native of Jones county but he spent a good portion of his life in Kinston afterwards moving to New Berne. He was a member of the Church of Christ from early life. His wife and several children survive him. The funeral will be from the residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The examination of Messrs. C. C. Cannon and Thos. Hall of Havelock yesterday on the charge of shooting John Bryan, col., who was found dead in the woods, resulted in their being discharged. They were out deer-hunting the same day that Bryan left his home to hunt also, but the most that could have been made of the testimony would have been simply suspicion, and the attorney for the defendants, Mr. L. J. Moore, would not admit that there were grounds even for that.

A False Report as to Quarantine.
There is very little sickness of any kind in New Berne now, and no apprehension is felt of any contagious disease reaching the city, consequently we were somewhat surprised to learn yesterday from one of our Onslow county subscribers who called at the office that a report is in circulation in his neighborhood that New Berne had put on a quarantine and that it had obtained belief from some of his neighbors.

There is no truth in the report. Upon investigating the matter we found how it started. Some young jokers told a party from down that way who were in the city last Saturday that quarantine regulations were to go into effect the next morning at five o'clock, and that if they were in town until then they would have to stay as no one who was in the city then would be allowed to leave for twenty days.

Very likely when the young men made the story up as a little pleasantry they never thought of the probable after effects, or even that it would go beyond those they were conversing with, and yet hold its show and some who otherwise would have been here trading held back from coming on account of it. Joking about a dreaded disease is rather out of place at any time and ought to be very sparingly indulged in.

Y. M. C. A. Annual Meeting.
An annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held Monday night, Oct. 4, at 8 o'clock, in the building on Middle street.

Wednesday, Sept. 28, at 3 p. m., at Little Swift Creek, at the residence of Mr. Alfred Gaskins, father of the bride, Mr. W. H. Winfield of this city, to Miss Ida L. Gaskins.

After the ceremony the twin made one left for their future home in New Berne.

WEAVER.

Has a Flat Meeting at Greensboro—His Record Confronts Him but He Keeps Silent About It.

Tuesday, Hon. F. M. Simmons, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, telegraphed to the Atlanta Journal for the loan of Mr. Thad. Horton and the affidavits which he collected in reference to Weaver's cruelties and stealings from Southern citizens during the war. There was a prompt response. Mr. Horton started with the affidavits on that night's train. He arrived at Greensboro in time for the speaking. The crowd was largely Democratic. One thousand copies of the issue of the Atlanta Journal which contained the original expose of Weaver had been distributed among the people and as they were being read they were the most conspicuous objects in the room, not excepting Mrs. Lease herself.

When Weaver was introduced fifteen or twenty people clapped their hands in welcome to him, the others remained silent. While Weaver was speaking many of the audience were poring over the write up of his Pulaski performances which seemed to depress the speaker so that he went through his performance with a little enthusiasm as his hearers and his speech was received almost with the solemn silence of a prayer meeting. Only three or four times were there any symptoms of applause. He entirely ignored the Pulaski charges though they were staring him in the face from all over the hall. The crowd listened without the slightest interruption and as Weaver set down they broke out into loud cheers for Cleveland. There was not one shout for Weaver.

Exum introduced Mrs. Lease. She told some stories which provoked laughter, but she got no cheers until she accidentally mentioned the name of Allen G. Thibault. Then the crowd yelled, Mrs. Lease also carefully dodged Weaver's war record. She also was listened to with respectful attention.

At the point, just as Exum was about to be introduced, the crowd, which was under the impression that the meeting was over, again cheered for Cleveland and broke into loud calls for Horton, the Atlanta Journal correspondent.

Exum's speech was lost sight of. Horton took the stand, declared every statement presented in the Journal to be supported by oath, and producing the affidavits he challenged the Third Party men to let them be read. Instead of acceding they commenced howling him down, and when he stepped back in the audience three cheers were given for the Journal.

It is said that no pancake was ever flatter than Weaver's reception, and that he looks humped, heart-sick and weary. He is billed next for Raleigh.

Coming and Going.
Mr. S. D. Jones left yesterday morning for Greenville, Miss., on a business trip.

Mrs. Leonora White, sister-in-law of Mr. Jas. Maxwell, left for her home at Tuscarora.

Miss Gertrude Bagby left to visit her aunt, Mrs. Katie Maternack of Danville, Va., from where she will go to Greensboro and enter the State Normal and Industrial school.

Mr. J. M. Richards, who has been in the city a few days representing the Newby & Evans Piano Company, left for Kinston accompanied by Mr. A. Colm.

Mr. C. E. Foy returned last night from Winston, where he has been on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ulrich returned from Baltimore, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Howard.

THE CANADAY TRAGEDY.

Coroner's Inquest—The Alleged $2,000 Robbery Discredited.

An inquest was held Wednesday afternoon over the body of the late Wm. P. Canaday, in Washington. The jury confined itself to establishing the cause of death, and did not go into the relation between Canaday, his partner Haughton and other persons. Police officer Gilbert testified that he asked Canaday several times if the alleged burglars had taken any money from the opened safe, and that Canaday had said no money was taken. Capt. Haughton asserted that he put $2,000 in the safe the preceding afternoon, but no mention was made of this fact until after Canaday's death, and this part of Captain Haughton's story the police discredits. The burden of testimony with reference to Canaday's allegation that burglars had tied him, while necessarily not positive, was all against the truth of the statement.

The following is the verdict: "That said Wm. P. Canaday came to his death at No. 714 Tenth street northwest, about 7:30 a. m., September 27, 1892, from a pistol shot wound in the brain, inflicted by his own hand."

B. G. Credle reported $10 additional money collected.

No report was received from registration and campaign literature committees.

The President appointed the following committee on music: B. S. Guion, F. E. Morton, J. W. Watson and Herbert Willis.

Gen. C. A. Battle, on behalf of John Dunn, Esq., presented the flag to the club in his usual eloquent and graceful manner, which was received by J. S. Long, LL. D., with words of patriotism and cheer.

Short but telling addresses were made by W. B. Lane, Washington Bryan, Shepard Bryan and W. T. Cahoon. Upon motion the club adjourned.

A. H. POWELL, Sec'y.

The Falsity of His Statements as to His Treatment Showed.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 27.—Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, chairman of the Democratic Executive committee of Georgia, says in reply to the published address of Gen. Weaver and the various special telegrams which have been sent out from Georgia by Mrs. Lease, that they do great injustice, not only to the Democrats, but to the people of the State. He says: "According to his own admission, Gen. Weaver received respectful hearing at Waycross and at Albany his speech was listened to by several hundred people, and no effort whatever was made to prevent him from speaking. A prominent negro of that place, at the conclusion of Weaver's speech took the stand to refute what he had said and bitterly attacked Weaver and the Third party. Weaver was so indignant that a negro should attempt to answer him that he immediately left the platform. The only possible foundation for the greatly exaggerated story spread broadcast by General Weaver and Mrs. Lease is that a small boy in an open air audience at Macon threw the egg and he was promptly arrested and punished for it."

As to Mrs. Lease's statements, that the disgraceful scenes of Macon were repeated twice in the presence of the Governor of Georgia at the State capital, Atkinson says: "Gen. Weaver or Mrs. Lease did not appear as advertised in Atlanta. They would not go up to the Capitol, where a large crowd had assembled to hear them. Governor North himself hearing that Weaver would not speak, claiming that he would not be listened to, went to insure him a hearing and the meeting by vote guaranteed that he would be respectfully listened to. I called on the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Peoples' party of the State early in the evening to extend him this guarantee, and he told me that General Weaver had made up his mind not to speak. His claim of persecution is nothing more than an over-worked effort to pass as a martyr. His statements, deliberately misrepresent the people of Georgia, and are cunningly devised for campaign purposes. He did not want to speak in Atlanta and would have had just as fair a showing as any man who ever spoke here. He cancelled his engagements in Georgia because he saw that he had been imposed upon by his own party managers, who had led him to believe that there was a chance for the Peoples' party in Georgia. He found that such was not the case and was greatly disappointed by his visit here and glad to get out of the State. While here he could not conceal his chagrin and disappointment, engendered by the weakness of his party in this State. Georgia will go Democratic next Wednesday by from 40,000 to 50,000 majority."
