THE grand naval display in New York was a magnificent display and grand success.

DEMOCRATS carried the municipal election of Chattanooga, Tenn., for the first time in twenty years.

The farmer is learning that the prices of his products are fixed in foreign markets, where he suffers from a competition invited and built up by the (protective) system he is asked to support.—Grover Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

The democratic victory in Georgia emphasizes the victory in Florida and verifies its significance. A strong democratic tide is running in the Southern States, and the indications are that the third party is not to be feared by the supporters of Cleveland and Stevenson.—New York World.

As the prospects for Cleveland's election become brighter, the price of cotton jumps up. Cotton sold well when he was President before, and we hope it will do it again. The price was low under Harrison, who proclaims that all the people are enjoying unusual prosperity. Nothing like having Cleveland for President.

In one month more the die will be cast, the result accomplished. What shall be the effect here in North Carolina? Are we to have a mongrel legislature, controlled by a combination of Republicans and despicable Weaversites, communists, and men of that stamp? Are we to have the wise legislation which patriotic Democrats have devised during the last twenty five years overthrown and destroyed? Are we to see the public charities, the penitentiary, the institutions again turned over to the keeping of such men who had them

The Tribune says that " candid and fair-minded men must recognize the general soundness of Justice Miller's judgment; he was a man of fine discrimination." Well, Justice Miller declared, in one of his most famous opinions, that—to lay with one hand the power of the Government on the property of a citizen and with the other bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprise and build up private fortunes is none the less robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms. Nor is it taxation. Beyond a cavil there can be no lawful taxation which is not laid for public purposes. This is the Democratic doctrine proclaimed by a Republican Justice whose judicial conscience was above his partisanship.

Today's weather: Fair in the east, showers in the west.

Mr. J. C. Scales received a painful injury last night by having his hand caught between the wheel of the Atlantic horse carriage and the brake on it.

As a result of Mrs. Carpenter's meeting at Aylen, in Pitt county, 19 professed faith and joined the church. The congregations were large and the church is much revived.

All voters should remember the importance of registering before it is too late, and that because your name is on the city book is no assurance that you are registered for this election.

Rev. J. F. Butt and wife returned from Faison's Mr. Butt reports a gracious revival in the church in which he has been preaching. We will speak more fully of it to-morrow.

Yesterday was the main day of departure for the delegates who have been attending the Atlantic Baptist Association. Rev. H. C. Moore of Morehead, went up to Weldon where he will preach next Sunday. Mr. Moore's pulpit will be filled by Rev. Mr. Tapp, a recent graduate of Thurman University.

Come up to the Y. M. C. A. Hall tonight and enjoy the social gathering. It will begin at 8 o'clock. There will be some pleasant singing and instrumental music, also Indian club swinging by young ladies and plenty of opportunity will be given for enjoying the parlor games, social conversation, &c. All are invited.

Very attractive posters are up in our city for the Albemarle Park Fair, Elizabeth City. It takes place next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. A visit to the Fair will be a delightful trip and we are told of five of our citizens who have announced the intention of going. There will probably be a good representation from New Berne to the Fair.

We notice that our former townsman, Edward Graham Daves, chairman of the committee gives notice that the monument erected by members of the Maryland Historical Society on the battle field of Guilford Court House, will be formally handed over to the custody of the Guilford Battle Ground company on Saturday, Oct. 15th, with addresses and other appropriate ceremonies.

It appears that the exorbitant rates on insurance are pretty general throughout the city. They are double that in many other towns and cities in the State and some investigation should be made and the discrepancy unearthed. The statement is true and our citizens owe it to themselves to see if there is not some means whereby this imposition cannot be removed.

The alarm of fire last night was a false one sent in purposely and unexpectedly to all by Mr. J. K. Willis, chief of fire department, from box 48, at the junction of George and Queen streets to thoroughly test the workings of the Gamewell system just put in. It proved entirely satisfactory. Though it was about six blocks distant the engines were there ready for work in four minutes. Did you notice that after the alarm was given, three strokes followed? That meant "The fire is out."

The rapidity with which the sewerage system is being constructed makes it pretty evident that hot weather will not again find the work unfinished. The workmen have now got to the foot of Broad street and when the portion now being worked on is finished, the system on Broad street and all parts of the city south of it will have been completed. It is expected that the system was

Third Party Speaking.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson, of Onslow county, the Third party candidate for Senator from the 8th Senatorial district has the following appointments for speaking in Craven county:

Tuscarora, October 26, at 11 a. m.; New Berne at court house, Oct. 26, 7:30 p. m.; Riverdale, Oct. 27, 11 a. m.; James City, Oct. 27, 7 p. m.; Havelock, Oct. 28, 11 a. m.; Morton's School House, Oct. 18, 7 p. m.

It is also announced that Mr. Thompson "will divide time with any fair-minded," respectable democrat. All parties are invited to attend these meetings."

Murder and Suicide at Kenansville.

Kenansville was the scene of a bloody tragedy Wednesday. C. B. Hasten, a young business man of marked ability but who has been ruined by dissipation shot H. M. Bodenheimer, a highly esteemed young lawyer, and then shot himself twice near the heart. Hasten died in twenty minutes. He had a bad reputation. He leaves a family. It is feared Bodenheimer's injuries will prove fatal. Hasten was tried for embezzlement a few weeks ago and his anger against lawyer Bodenheimer was because the latter criticised him so strongly when he appeared against him on the trial.

Knights of Harmony.

The Knights of Harmony, a new order for benevolent purposes has secured the lodge room over Mr. J. M. Howard's store for their meetings which will hereafter be held the second and fourth Wednesday in each month. This order originated in New Berne a few months back, and the lodge here is the only one in existence yet, but the order is likely to spread; this lodge now numbers about 60 members. One feature of its work is the payment to the family of a deceased member a sum equal to $1.00 apiece for each member of the local lodge to which he belongs. There is no waiting for the money; a large enough sum is kept constantly on hand devoted secretly to this purpose and as soon as the death of a member is heard of the money is turned over to his family so it can be used to provide for the funeral expenses or other immediate wants.

The Oyster Commissioners Trial. The concluding evidence in the case of the shell fish Commissioners was taken by Mr. A. W. Haywood at Washington, N. C., Wednesday. The first hearing will be remembered, was held in New Berne, it being the most convenient place for Messrs. Winslow and Lucas who instituted the proceeding; the next hearing was at Vandemere, that place being chosen by Col. W. H. Lucas who declared his desire to have the matter sifted to the bottom, it being the place where he was alleged to have delivered an incendiary speech, and the third hearing was at Washington at the desire of Capt. Adam Warner.

In the examination at Washington, about 15 witnesses testified. Mr. W. W. Clark, of this city represented the complainants and Mr. John H. Small, of Washington represented the defendant. We will probably hear in a few days from Raleigh what the outcome of the matter will be.

Closing Work of the Atlantic Association. The pledges for State and Association mission work given by the churches embraced in the Atlantic Association Wednesday night, after the able address of Rev. Dr. C. Durham and the strong appeal of Mr. J. C. Whitty, amounted to $554.44. Of this amount the New Berne Baptist church gave $125.

By a resolution passed this amount is to be augmented by further donations from the members of the different churches after the duty has been prescribed to them by their pastors. The pledges of the churches to Foreign mission work amounted to $196. The report of the Executive Board was read by Mr. J. C. Whitty and adopted. The report on State Missions was read by Rev. H. C. Moore.

A motion was passed that the pastors of the churches recommend to their congregations to take up a collection within the next 60 days to aid Rev. C. J. Nelson in paying for the church at Eureka. A resolution offered by Rev. J. H. Edwards was adopted that the Association views with pleasure the holding of a representative meeting of the Women's Missionary Society in connection with the Atlantic Association and it invites them hereafter to furnish the Association a brief report of the annual meetings for publication in the minutes.

It was resolved that the thanks of the Association be extended to members of the church and the citizens of New Berne for their cordial hospitality. Seven Springs was chosen as the next place of meeting. The date at which it will commence is the Tuesday after the 3d Sabbath in October 1893.

A slight inaccuracy occurred yesterday morning in our allusion to the sinking of the gunboat Underwriter at New Berne. She was captured and sunk by the crew of the Privateersman Tallahassee for which Mr. D. Hassell was one—not sunk "accidentally" speaking, by the Tallahassee as she was supposed to be. The gunboat was sunk by a shell fired from the Tallahassee.

The Warren county Fair will be held four days beginning Oct. 25. The Onslow Fair, at Weldon, will be held five days beginning Nov. 1st.

OUR APPROACHING FAIR.

$2,000 IN RACE PREMIUMS—SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS.

The Grandest Preparations Ever Made and the Brightest Outlook—Let Every One Lend a Helping Hand.

From its earliest organization, the New Fair has always been prominent for its excellence in all its numerous departments. Grand as its achievements have been in the past, there is no inclination to rest upon its laurels or to be satisfied with the eminent position already attained. Ever onward and upward is its motto and there is to be no departure from that rule this year.

Year by year, as the Fair grew older, better and more prosperous, the amount of its premiums has been increased and for three years in succession it has been able to proudly boast that the race premium list it was then offering was the largest ever given in the State. This is true of the approaching Fair. As munificent as the racing premiums were last year they have been increased $700, making these premiums alone foot up the snug little sum of $2,000. This assures some of the most spirited and warmly contested racing that has ever taken place in the State. Admirers of fleet horses will certainly have a good opportunity for gratification by attending this Fair.

An entirely new feature will be bicycle races by expert riders according to approved rules. When the fact is brought to mind that a wheelman has made a better record than was ever made by a horse the extent of the entertainment that these races will give will be appreciated.

A tournament of a very high order—not an ordinary one in any sense—is being arranged for. The prizes that will be contested for in it will be of such a character as to enlist strong emulation between the contending Knights.

The display of fireworks will be the best ever shown at the Fair. A lady aeronaut of established reputation will make daring balloon ascensions and startling parachute leaps.

All games of chance, even to the cane rack, will positively be excluded. Special and comprehensive arrangements have been made for the sale of season tickets. The time in which they will be on sale is of such long duration that all who wish will have ample opportunity to supply themselves. Their sale will commence the first of January and will extend through the Fair week. Quite an inducement is offered for parties to supply themselves previous to the opening of the Fair. From the time the tickets are placed on sale until midnight of Saturday the 18, last business day before the opening of the Fair, season tickets for children will be sold at 75 cents each, and those for adults at $1.50 each. The charge for a season ticket bought during Fair week will be $2.00.

Now it behooves all the people of Eastern Carolina to remember that four months will quickly pass and that all citizens of Eastern Carolina should awake to the work of advancing the Fair's interests with all the zeal that has characterized them in the past, yet, with increased zeal to correspond to its growing magnitude. More than that the working interest in the success of the Fair is not and should not be confined to the Eastern part of the State. It should permeate every portion. Past achievements render the Fair worthy of the hearty co-operation of every North Carolinian and the exhibition that is to be held four months from now is being watched for with eager interest by many. The Fair will be a magnificent one and leading newspapers do not fail to give strong favorable expressions to such opinions. The staff correspondent of the Raleigh Chronicle in its issue of the 8th inst speaks as follows in reference to it:

"In conversation today with Mr. Chas. Reizenstein, the clever and energetic Secretary of the Eastern N. C. Fish, Game, Oyster, Agricultural and Mechanical Association, he said that while it is four months from the time of holding the Fair, his correspondence from all parts of the county and the plans and arrangements going on here all indicate that with good weather for the Fair it will be far, in every department, eclipse any Fair ever held in New Berne, and that in my opinion, is saying good deal, for it is a conceded fact that the New Berne Fair is a grand success above any other Fair ever held in North Carolina. [Italics ours.] It draws yearly to the State hundreds of people from the North, East, South and West, which certainly if worked right means a good deal for the future growth and prosperity of our beloved old North State, with her hundreds of sources yet to be developed."

Such is the present testimony of one of the ablest, most progressive and patriotic papers ever published in the State. The reciprocity of such recognition gives the most hopeful encouragement for continued expansion and advancement. All friends of the Fair, to the work; the time is drawing nigh.

The Warren county Fair will be held four days beginning Oct. 25. The Onslow Fair, at Weldon, will be held five days beginning Nov. 1st.

The Warren county Fair will be held four days beginning Oct. 25. The Onslow Fair, at Weldon, will be held five days beginning Nov. 1st.

Miss Ellie Morris, of Kingston, is in the city canvassing for "Columbus and Columbia," an most excellent historical work, the production of four noted authors, which gives many interesting facts in reference to this country that is not brought out in regular histories.
