WHAT POWER IS HERE!
 Claim 40,000 German Votes for Cleveland.
 The executive campaign committee of the German-American Cleveland Union met yesterday at No. 4 East Twentieth street. Reports of the organization of German Cleveland campaign clubs in many cities throughout the country were received. Over 9,000 names of German democrats are now in the books as members of the Central committee for this city. Every assembly district has a separate organization, and it is said that the enrolled number of German democrats in the city already foot up 40,000. — New York World.

GLORIOUS "OLD ZEB."
 Testimony of the Progressive Farmer as to His Patriotism and Worth.

Glorious "Old Zeb," true to his great patriotic heart and true to the farmers and laboring men of his State and of the Union, is ever at his post in the Senate and ever ready to fight for them. He is one of the few public men in this country who talks in the Senate as he talks in the hustings. Whenever and wherever the rights and interests of the people are endangered he is always ready to champion their cause, and he does it boldly, manfully and fearlessly. — Progressive Farmer, Dec. 25, 1888.

HILL TO THE BROOKLYN DEMOCRACY.

What the Success of the Cause Means.
 Within these few words there is compressed the entire Democratic creed:
 "The Democratic cause is the cause of the people. It represents their interests, and is identified with their welfare. Its success means the recognition of the dignity of labor, the prosperity of the country and the preservation of our liberties. It means equal rights, honest elections without force, bills, taxation for public purposes, economy in public expenditures and honesty and efficiency in the Executive chair of the nation. A Democratic victory this fall will settle the future control of the country for many long years to come. The cause is worthy of the best efforts of every Democrat who loves his country and his party."

TWO MEN - TWO STATES.
 The Most Influential Man in New York and in Indiana, the Latter a Republican Oppose Harrison and Support Cleveland.

Two men happened to be in the peculiar position of controlling their respective States in the present national contest. They are Senator Hill, of New York, and Judge Gresham, of Indiana.

These men have each a political following that takes its inspiration directly from its leader, and the following of each is quite ample to hold the balance of power between the two great parties.

Had Senator Hill decided to refuse the laboring oar for the Cleveland ticket in New York, Harrison's success in that pivotal State would have been assured beyond doubt. With his cordial support of Cleveland, the democratic candidate can't be defeated in the Empire Commonwealth.

Had Judge Gresham given a cordial support to Harrison this year as he did in 1888, it would have been possible for Harrison to win its electoral vote, but with Gresham openly against Harrison and for Cleveland, only a political earthquake can give Harrison the victory in his own State. — Phil. Times.

GEORGIA AND FLORIDA.
 Their Elections Make It Certain That the South is Anchored Safely to Her Democratic Moorings.

Georgia is a State where the farmers' alliances are very numerous but Wednesday's elections shows that most of them refused to be drawn out of the democratic ranks.

With all the help that they got from the republicans the third partyites were defeated by at least 40,000 majority, and their discomfiture is complete.

The news from Florida and Georgia, with all that has gone before, admonishes Weaver and Field, and the republican leaders as well, that it is useless to expect the solid South to break from her democratic moorings. Count it for Cleveland. — Richmond Dispatch.

Circulation Statement of the Treasury.
 The circulation statement issued by the treasury department shows a net increase of $3,206,601 during the month of September, leaving the aggregate on the 1st inst., $1,596,049,983. A year ago the circulation was $1,530,682,036. The circulation per capita is $24.23. The principal items showing a decrease were gold certificates $7,176,980; silver certificates $1,439,318; currency certificates $4,920,000, while increases were shown in United States notes of $5,004,758; and in Treasury notes $2,887,764.

The different amounts in circulation on the 1st instant were as follows: Gold coin, $111,524,329; standard silver dollars, $59,569,103; subsidiary silver, $64,916,209; gold certificates, $121,210,399; silver certificates, $326,849,827; treasury notes, act July 14, 1890, $107,001,850; United States notes, $322,603,158; currency certificates, act June 8, 1872, $17,290,000; National bank notes, $165,085,108; total, $1,596,049,983.

Come Together North Carolinians.
 That was a strange telegram we published from Weldon, N. C., in which our correspondent states that some of the white people who left the Democratic party to connect themselves with the People's party are refusing, through pique and revenge, to return to their old party associates, now that they see the so-called Third party is only a myth and can never accomplish anything real. These gentlemen should never have strayed away from their natural moorings and belongings. They should have realized and known that in the ranks of the Democratic party lies the road for redress of all grievances that are real grievances, since the cardinal principle of Democracy is equal justice to all men. But if they allowed themselves to be beguiled away temporarily, they should hasten to return to their brethren on learning that they have been deceived.
 Come together, North Carolinians and Virginians. We have a common enemy to fight, and this is no time for disagreement amongst ourselves. — Richmond Times.
