THE cholera didn't reach us, but the crop of new cures has been enormous, and is still increasing.

THE man who sits on the fence during the entire campaign is invariably the loudest shouter for the ticket elected.

AIR-SHIPS that go on paper continue to multiply, but the first aerial through line is yet to be opened for traffic.

BISMARCK'S last interview indicates that all his talk about antagonizing the Kaiser in the German Reichstag was merely a "bluff."

EXUM used such vile language on a first class car last Friday that several ladies were compelled to move to a different portion of the car.

THIS "fair sex in politics" is a head-line that is becoming common. If she stays in politics the time is not far distant when she will no longer be fair.

THERE is no doubt about the intellectual progress this country is making. It is said that the number of fool election bets is smaller than in any previous campaign.

THE campaign professional-do-nothing will find temporary employment explaining how it came about; after that he will be qualified to take the road as a peddler.

IT was a New Yorker, of course who started the story that Chicago turned a real, live elephant loose on her streets in order to assure all intending visitors that "seeing the elephant" was common in Chicago.

IT may be odd in this time of political excitement, but it is true, that Gen. Greely addressed a New Jersey Club on the comparative value of arctic and tropical exploration, last week.

FUNNY things in politics. While ex-Congressman Langston was in New York securing the Republican National committee that ex-Senator Mahone had been eliminated from Virginia politics Mahone was in Washington securing a new United States Senator in Virginia.

EXUM boasts of his dastardly work with his knife. He ought to have a keeper. This is the second time he has been guilty of an assault; this time with an open knife. And yet he poses as the champion of reform and as a leader of the honest farmers of the country.

COL. WADDELL says, it is true, whatever may be said to the contrary, that the Third party cannot elect General Weaver, if they elect every elector which they have nominated, because they have in all but one hundred and sixty-nine electoral candidates in the country and it requires two hundred and twenty three to elect it very clear from the fact that the leaders of the Third party have one object in view other than Weaver's election. It can be nothing else than the election of Harrison. Every Third party man who votes for General Weaver, even though he be actuated by the most honest motives is only being made a tool of to help to elect Mr. Harrison, who is an enemy to the South and the farming interests.

A report reaches Raleigh that Clark, the Republican nominee for Congress, has withdrawn in favor of Keener, the Third party nominee.

A portion of the knitting factory machinery has arrived, and been placed in position. The remainder will probably arrive this week.

Mr. J. W. Stewart is now comfortably fixed in his new home. It is a remarkably beautiful and convenient residence. It would be a credit to any city.

The card of Mr. J. B. Martin to which on which we commented yesterday morning, was accidentally left out of that issue though it was in type, consequently we give it today.

Chairman Simmons' instructions to all election officers are to stand by the law as interpreted by Attorney General Davidson. No "monkeying" by United States supervisors or deputy marshals should be permitted or will be tolerated.

Salus Barrett, col., was arrested and brought to the city Friday night, by Dep-Sheriff, J. D. LaRoque on the charge of stealing seed cotton belonging to Mr. Henry Taylor, from the house on his farm near Spring Garden, in which it had been stored. He was examined before W. G. Brinson Esq., and bound over to superior court.

Mr. D. S. Jones killed a chicken hawk yesterday in one of the most thickly settled parts of the city. The hawk had the boldness to catch a chicken in Mrs. P. Holland's yard, only a few feet from her back door, and he was enjoyably making a meal of the aforesaid chicken in the adjoining lot where Mr. Jones tried a crack at him with pistol, and made a centre shot through his body.

It appears that needless alarm was felt about Mr. Claud Wilson, editor of the Wilson Advance, on account of his not being heard from at the time expected while he was away from home. What occasioned this unrenewed was the fact that a threatening letter had been received from Gideonites whose ire he had raised by remarks against them in his paper.

Mr. Jas. W. Biddle, Chairman of the Craven county Democratic Executive Committee, has received a note from Maj. Wm. M. Robbins written from Snow Hill, explaining the cause of the failure of himself and Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith to fill their appointment here. It was because their previous speaking was off in the country and when the meeting closed there was no means by which the city could be reached that night.

Rev. W. T. Jones, formerly pastor of the Morehead Baptist church, who with his wife has been spending a couple of weeks there visiting the family of Mr. M. C. Klein, came up yesterday to visit Mrs. Jones' sister Mrs. W. E. Clarke. The Morehead City News has the following good words to say for Mr. and Mrs. Jones: Rev. W. T. Jones and wife will leave us Saturday. They stay among us has been enjoyable. The work of Mr. Jones here some years ago will not soon be forgotten. He conducted during his pastorate here perhaps the most successful revival ever held in Morehead City. The prayers and good wishes of our people will follow him and his estimable wife wherever they may go.

ASTOUNDING FIGURES

Economy of Democrats--Reckless Waste by the Republicans.

A NATIONAL ALLIANCE OFFICER MAKES THE COMPARISON.

One Session of a Radical Congress Spent More Money Than the Democrats Did in 72 Years.

From J. F. Tillman, secretary of the Executive Board of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, to the truth-seeking citizens of this great nation, giving reliable statistics as to the financial legislation of the past two Congresses, and showing the effect of the same upon the productive interests of the country.

It is the farming and laboring people who feed the world, who fought the battles of this country, and to whose energy and patriotism this great and glorious land of ours is indebted for its richest blessings of liberty and peace. It is not their mission to tear down nor to further the disintegration of our honestly conducted industries, but to preserve them. Yet they do mean the death-knell to all illegitimate combinations and monopolists that tend to destroy the very spirit and intent of the Constitution.

Your attention is first called to the expenditures of the Fifty-first Congress. Its expenditures reached the grand total of $1,038,688,921.20, which is nearly two-thirds of all the existing United States money. More money was spent by that billion-dollar Congress than was spent by all the Congresses during the first seventy-two years of the history of this government. It is more than $2,177,000 for every day from the time the Fifty-first Congress met in December, 1889, till it adjourned March 4th, 1891. You can easily calculate it for yourself, and you will find it to be $60 a day for every day since the birth of the Saviour of mankind; $16 a minute for every minute since the Declaration of Independence. A billion and thirty-five million for two years is more than a half billion for one year. It is more than eight dollars for every man, woman and child in the United States. And counting the families to contain five persons each, it makes a tax of $40 a family to support the government of the United States alone; and remember this does not include one cent levied for State, county and municipal purposes. What would the people of the United States think of a tax of $40 upon the head of every family? Yet this is exactly what we have!

In the light of all the incontrovertible facts presented in the speeches of Representatives Holman, Sayers and Dockery, copious extracts from which are printed in the pages that follow, I deem it my duty to say to the people that they should no longer be deceived by any comparisons between the Fifty-first and the Fifty-second Congresses, which do not show that the extravagance of the Fifty-first Congress forced the heavy expenditures on the Fifty-second Congress, and that the tendency of extravagance of the Fifty-first Congress is to impoverish the country by sapping the life-blood from all productive pursuits, and reducing the producer to a condition of abject slavery.

J. F. TILLMAN.

Mr. Tillman then goes on in an article, that is very pointed but too long for us to give showing that the statements made and deductions drawn are true. If you want such extravagance continued, possibly in a still further exaggerated form vote directly for the Republican party or indirectly by wasting your ballots on the Third party whose candidates stand no showing for election.

But if on the other hand you are in favor of restored economy and good government throughout the Union vote the full Democratic ticket.

Coming and Going.

Sunday Service Hancock Street Methodist Church.

Sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Butt, (sacramental service at this hour) 7:30 p. m., Presiding Elder Rev. W. S. Rone. Sunday School at 3 p. m. Mt. Calvary Temple services to commence at 4:30 p. m. Short talks are expected. All well wishes to this work and invited to be present as spectators or participants.

Ladies of piety and prominence were present last Sunday who had not attended before and were so much pleased in the Godly work that one of them sent to Ev. Jno. F. Butt a letter of encouragement with good cash donation with a prayer added for the success of the good work. Sunday School 9 a. m., come help. All ministers are expected to attend and help in the work.

CAMPAIGN SONG.

Come, gather round your Chief, good men,
For Cleveland give acclaim,
No blot is on his record fair,
True Patriot is his name.

What's good for you he'll surely do,
He served you once before,
He'll guard your interest and will lift
High taxes from the poor.

He will protect your liberties,
No Force Bill shall ignore
Your franchise; 'tis your right to vote,
Prize it I would implore.

The Tariff tax will then relax,
His grip on honest toil,
And you may sing as happy king,
Secure on your own soil.

Let Justice be your brightest shield,
Against oppressive power,
Remember Heroes' died to gain,
For you a precious dower.

The Ballot free for you and me,
By which we can control
Injustice, and some other ills
By virtue of the Poll.

Come help the cause, maintain good laws
For you it is in store,
To regulate the Silver coin,
And weigh the golden ore.

The Pension Law—I never saw,
A flower of brighter bloom
That when carested and fondly pressed,
Could yield such sick perfume.

Another view we take with you
Of this too flowery verse
Is, we should use, and not abuse,
The Nation's generous purse.

Now raise your banners high and shout,
Inscribed with pledges true,
We work for Pure Democracy,
For Cleveland 'tis his due.

And Stevenson, the Warrior who,
Will give a helping hand,
No firmer friend you have for right
In this tax ridden land.

Reform, Retrench, and Reclaim
Will meet the great demand
To put down large monopolies,
And by the people stand.

The people's voice should have a choice,
Of measures they approve,
And every man do what he can,
Disincensed to remove.

The Third party will not agree
With us in all we claim,
But when enlightened they will hide
Their faces with their shame.

When in the past Democracy
Has ruled in this fair land,
The Nation prospered in its wealth,
And kept an honest hand.

Now wave your banners all, and shout
Ye men with Patriot souls,
We work for Cleveland and Adlai
At the November Polls.
