

SWANSBORO CORRESPONDENCE.

A Big Singing Class in New York. The Sun. The big Sunday singing class which has been organized here by Dr. Frank Danforth made its first appearance last Sunday afternoon at Cooper Union.

Improvements—Religious and Matrimonial News—Fine Fishing. Mr. J. E. Ward has moved to near Harlowe and taken charge of the farm of the late Jno. W. Stanton.

Mr. Tom Bartley seems to be in favor of improving Swansboro, he has fixed his lots up in fine style. He has built one or two houses and a fine fence (the ground work of which is brick) a nice sidewalk, fine gates and steps, etc., all painted white and looks so though Mr. Tom meant business in a more ways than one.

Rev. T. C. Croker is sent back to this circuit again from the Blue Ridge Conference Northern M. E. Church, and he surprised us, when last Friday he put in his appearance, and instead of being by himself as he was heretofore, brought his bride along. We wish both a happy year in our village. We wanted Bro. Croker to come back here, and we have got him, but instead of one Croker we have got two and we are better satisfied as it is so.

There are three schools in Swansboro now all lady teachers. Miss Childress from Howardsville, Va., Miss Mattie Pearce from Duplin, Co., and Miss Ida Gaskill from Carteret Co., and still we are not enough children around not going to school at all to make a fourth one larger than any of the others. Mr. G. W. Ward is teaching school on New River, near A. T. Farnell's.

The fishermen are catching large quantities of gray trout outside of New with hook and line. Dan Ward, W. E. Mattocks, Dave Ward, George Littleton and others are the most successful, they catch from 100 to 1,000 a day, and sell them to Mr. G. W. Smith at his Hammock place.

Mr. Smith is a fish buyer now, he has a fish house, ice house and packing in all its branches, he is regularly in the fish market and buys any kind of fish.

We are sorry the steambest business couldn't succeed in steaming from here to New Bern.

Mr. Geo. Winberry, near here, Mr. Charlie Wells, Absolun Kinney and a few others have taken themselves a new party, so we learn, but don't know the particulars.

Messrs. Jere Yopp and Richard Taylor, of Stump Sound, two very old men, the former, Mr. Yopp was the oldest man in Onslow county, so said. He was 63 years old. Mr. Taylor, a few years less.

Mr. Rudolph Duffy of Richlands, made some of the best Democratic speeches in this county that was made during the campaign. Mr. Duffy is the best informed man in our county upon most anything and will be the rising man hereafter if he lives.

Mr. R. G. Ward is very sick. He is not expected by some to live long, typhoid fever we hear. We should be very sorry to hear of Mr. Ward's death, we believe with every one, that he is one of the best, and most honest citizens in our county, a very prominent farmer and christian gentleman.

Look out for the "wheel narrow walking race." It is coming on next week or week after.

A PRETTY SURPRISE. A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining, in delicate colors, blue and white and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art. By special arrangements with the publisher we are able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper as follows: EVANGELINE and DAILY JOURNAL, one year, $6.75; six months, 3.75; three months, 1.50; WEEKLY JOURNAL, one year, 1.25; six months, .75. Under no circumstances does this proposition hold good except where payment is made in advance.
