C. T. HANCOCK - Local Reporter.

Entered at the postoffice at New Berne N. C., as second-class matter.

"WANAMAKER says he will not be in the next Cabinet." Wanamaker made a center shot and hit the bull's eye that time.

THE people have had two year's experience of trying to tax themselves into prosperity, and they don't want any more.

REPUBLICANS console themselves with the thought that the Tribune, the greatest of all papers, will continue under the control of Whitelaw Reid, the greatest of all editors.

MRS. PRISCILLA SCROGGINS, of Hall county, Ga., is visiting her daughter. Mrs. Mabry, is a society item of the local paper of that county. Mrs. Scroggins is one hundred and fifteen years old and her daughter eighty-seven.

CHAIRMAN SIMMONS, of the State Democratic Executive Committee, proved himself a Napoleon in politics in the recent campaign. He did his work thoroughly and systematically, and he is entitled to the thanks of every Democrat in North Carolina. The STAR some time ago saw the effect of and complimented his splendid campaign work. It would be a fitting acknowledgment of his zeal and devotion in the cause of good government for the Democrats of North Carolina to present him with a handsome testimonial. A small subscription in each county would make an aggregate sum sufficient for the purpose. Will somebody second the Star's motion?—Wil. Star. The JOURNAL seconds the motion.

OFFICE.

The Presidential election being over, it becomes a question, "How will the subordinate offices of the Government be filled?"

Who will constitute the President's Cabinet? This question must wait until the 4th of March for a solution. It is enough for the present to know that Mr. Cleveland will call to the council board of the Nation men of the soundest principles and highest character. All sections of the country will be represented in the Cabinet, by their ablest, purest and best men.

The Diplomatic Corps will also be representative of the true Democrats of the Union. Mr. Cleveland may not again come into North Carolina and take Thomas J. Jarvis, to be the representative of this country at the court of Brazil, but there will be no departure from the Cleveland policy of equal honors to all sections, special privileges to none.

It was objected to Mr. Cleveland, during his incumbency of the Presidential office, that he did not "turn the rascals out." He permitted Republicans to retain positions of honor and profit to the detriment of the Democratic party, and, in doing so handicapped his administration.

"To the victors belong the spoils," is as true in politics as it is in war. We do not believe in rewarding with high office men of questionable fitness simply because of services rendered the successful party in the campaign, but we insist upon a Democratic administration as essential to the best interests of the country, and Mr. Cleveland's administration cannot be Democratic with Republicans in office. But, we are not over anxious on this point. The lessons of the past will not be forgotten by Mr. Cleveland.

The epigrammatic expression "Office is a public trust" has become associated with the name of Cleveland, and the sentiment will ever be held sacred by the people of these States, but we trust that it will never be necessary to go outside of the Democratic party to find men capable and honest in the discharge of official duties.

It is said that the civil service law will restrain the Executive, we answer let it be repealed, or so amended as to permit reforms in office as well as reforms in legislation. It is monstrous to suppose that reform are to be prevented by the retention of men in office who are opposed to them, and who would be gratified by the miscarriage of Democratic measure.

The people have declared in favor of the Democratic party, and whatever stands in the way of Democratic administration must be swept away. This is Democracy: this is patriotism: this is duty!

The need of a perfectly safe and always reliable remedy for the peculiar disease of summer is universal. As a remedy for the household, office, on the farm, on shipboard and for travelers by land and sea, Winkelmann's Diarrhoea and Cholera Remedy has proved its inestimable worth in the prompt relief and cure of all disorders originating in the stomach and digestive organs, such as Cholera, Cholera Morbus Diarrhoea, Cramps etc. Serve when under all conditions, always ready for use, and perfectly safe.

A Waspish Sting.

What some wag terms "the business end of a wasp" stings with scarcely more acuteness than the acid eructations of gas from the stomach to the gullet that are characteristic of the heartburn. Never was there a case of indigestion without this symptom. Both cause and effect are removable by the one carminative tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which counteracts irregularity and vigor upon a disordered and enfeebled stomach with certainty and despatch. Besides checking the pranks of a rebellious stomach, the Bitters wakes up a dormant liver, and causes the bowels to act like clockwork. An immense reputation has also been won by this professionally approved medicine as a means of eradicating and preventing malarial trouble, and counteracting a tendency to rheumatism and kidney complaints. Neuralgia and nervousness are also remedied by it.

There are counterfeit almonds.

The Population of New Berne

Is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection on the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c. and $1. Sold by all druggists.
