JUSTICE SHEPHERD has been advanced to Chief Justice to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Chief Justice Merrimon, and Armistead Burwell has been appointed Justice in place of Shepherd promoted.

GENERAL WEAVER has issued an address in which he congratulates his followers on the splendid showing made by the Third party and sounds a note of warning as to what vicious legislation may be expected from the party in the ascendancy.

A SPECIAL from Nashville, Tenn., to the State Chronicle says: It now seems that Governor Buchanan will be governor for two more years. Governor-elect Turney is dangerously ill. The constitution says the governor shall keep his seat until another has been elected and inaugurated and then if the latter dies, the senate shall appoint his successor. Turney has not been inaugurated, and therefore he is dead, Buchanan will remain in the governor's chair another term.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS Howard.

Wanted—First class cook. C. E. Slover—Pig pens, etc. N. Whitford—Stalled beef.

New Jersey's Democratic Presidential majority is 14,887.

Duplin elected a Democrat to the Legislature by two majority. A close shave but it does the work.

There will be a meeting of the Cleveland and Carr Club Monday night. A full attendance requested.

A cold wave is at hand. The weather signal report says the temperature will fall 20 to 23 degrees by 8 o'clock tonight.

Have you got your resin barrels, etc., in readiness for burning Tuesday night and preparations O. K. for illuminating your residence.

Rev. D. H. Petree, pastor of the Disciples Church will conduct the Young Men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

It now appears from the returns that Cleveland will have one elector from Ohio and Harrison the rest. The average plurality for the Republican electors is 1,097.

The New Berne bar is requested to meet at the law office of M. D. Stevenson, Esq., this morning at eleven o'clock for the purpose of arranging a calendar for the present court.

Any one wishing to contribute to the Democratic celebration Tuesday night, who has not been waited on will please leave his contribution with John Dunn chairman of the Finance Committee.

A splendid crowd attended the Y. M. C. A. social gathering last night. Every one enjoyed it greatly. The entertainment gotten up for the occasion was one of the most delightful that has yet been given.

Ladies are invited and expected at the speaking Tuesday night. The stand will be at the north end of the wigwam, and the body of the wigwam will be reserved for the ladies, where they can be comfortably seated.

At a meeting of the Cleveland and Carr Club last night a resolution was adopted to request merchants and all business men to close their houses Tuesday night at six o'clock so as to allow their employees to take part in the Democratic celebration.

The following order will be observed with regard to carriages in the parade Tuesday night: Carriage with President of the Club and the speakers of the evening, members of the State and County Executive Committees, the Mayor and City Council, Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce.

The Cleveland & Carr Club preparations for the joyful demonstration Tuesday night are being made on an extensive scale. There are now being got ready for use 300 torches, 200 Japanese lanterns and 30 transparencies and there will be burning barrels of resin and fire works along the line of march. Join in the fun.

The speakers who have been announced for Tuesday night, are Chairman Simmons, Senator Ransom, Senator Vance, Gov. Carr, Gov. Jarvis, Congressman Grady and Electors Aycock and Rouse. The speaking will be at the wigwam after the procession. It is proper to say that Senator Vance is not expected.

Democratic jollifications are the order of the day all around. Washington's comes off at the same time of New Berne's, next Tuesday. There happened to be a lady aeronaut at hand, she was engaged to make a balloon ascension and parachute leap as a part of the festivities. They expect a procession of hundreds of burghers from adjoining counties in the morning, speaking at midday, the balloon ascension in the afternoon, and illumination, torch-light procession, etc., at night.

A Novel Mill.

A floating shingle mill is a New Berne enterprise that is on the eve of beginning operations. Messrs. Frank & Raspberry, C. M. Kehoe and Wm. Pearce are the proprietors. They are having equipped the steamer Sadie M. Hand with all needed machinery, with the saw that takes the large logs of the forest, to the smaller saws that get the material in the proper shape for the shingle machine and the shingle machine itself. The same boiler supplies the power that runs the boat and that runs the mill.

The advantages from having the mill so easily portable is that it can be readily put wherever the logs are and thus save rafting them long distances, while the shingles can be shipped to any point desired as rapidly as they accumulate by the boats constantly plying the rivers. Moreover the boat will give excellent accommodations to the hands employed.

The idea of the floating mill originated with Mr. Franck. The plan looks so feasible that it seems success is bound to attend it. It would not surprise us for the plan to be adopted by others.

Coming and going.

Mr. S. K. Eaton left yesterday morning for the North to purchase a new stock of jewelry. Mrs. Eaton accompanying him to visit their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Webber, of Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. W. F. Kornegay, of Goldsboro, who has been visiting at Mr. W. B. Boyd's, left returning home.

Miss Minnie Bryan left to visit her sister, Mrs. J. B. Broadfoot, of Fayetteville.

Mr. Leitch, of Graham, who has been spending some time at Carteret Lodge, passed through yesterday morning returning home.

Mr. C. Felix Harvey, of Kinston who attended the Cleveland and Carr ball here, left for his home.

Dr. J. H. Benton has returned from attending Johnson court.

Official Senatorial Vote.

In accordance with law, the sheriffs of the six counties composing this senatorial district one of the New Berne magistrates and five electors, met yesterday and canvassed the vote of the district. The official vote they announced, shows a Democratic majority of about 900. The candidates were L. A. Potter, of Carteret and Geo. F. Parrott, of Lenoir, Democrats, opposed by W. H. Smith, of Craven and Cyrus Thompson, of Onslow, Third party nominees endorsed by the Republicans. The vote stood as follows:

CARTERET.
Potter, 1251; Parrott, 1240; Smith, 650; Thompson, 651.

CHAVEN.
Potter 1474; Parrott 1474; Smith 1907; Thompson 1975.

GREENE.
Potter 1014; Parrott 1015; Smith 811; Thompson 813.

JONES.
Potter 650; Parrott 645; Smith 540; Thompson 563.

LENOIR.
Potter 1391; Parrott 1400; Smith 1286; Thompson 1329.

ONLOW.
Potter 1,136; Parrott 1,136; Smith 699; Thompson 710.

TOTAL.
Potter 6,916; Parrott 6,910; Smith 5,971; Thompson 6,040.

It will be noticed in the above that Craven is the only county in this district that failed to go Democratic.

She gave a Republican-Third party majority of 501.

Expand.

The appearance of Mr. L. H. Cutler's house that is being erected on the corner of Pollock and Berne streets shows that it will be a very creditable improvement when finished. While we like to see dwellings going up in any part of the city, it specially pleases us to see good ones being built at distances somewhat removed from the main business centre. New Berne specially needs to spread out and there is no reason why the upper part of the city should not be made as desirable residence parts as anywhere.

With the building of the better class of dwellings it will become so. As they are built occupants will be ready to take them, especially if they are left with commodious lots around them.

The amendment to the State constitution which requires the election of solicitors by the whole State instead of districts as now, was carried by a large majority.

The Goldsboro Headlight says it is hard to find a man up there who will own up to having voted the Third party ticket, even the negroes who were connected with the movement now being ashamed of their course.

The first number of the Carteret Times comes to us this week. It is the successor of the Atlantic Seaside. The editors are Messrs. Early Y. Mason and Geo. B. Copes. It gives a good variety of news and deserves hearty support.

From the Washington Gazette we take the following item: "It is reported from Oronoke that Capt. Sam Bragg and brother, Moly, left Swan Quarter in a boat on Thursday night at 10 o'clock, and have not been heard from since. The weather was bad, and they are probably drowned. This will be sad news to their many friends."

THE KINSTON RATIFICATION.

One of the Grandest Jubilees That Has Been Held.

Lenoir county Democracy demonstrated in a lively manner its joy at the recent deliverance from bondage, on Thursday night last. There were many people participating as there are inhabitants in Kinston. Citizens from the county districts and from the neighboring counties came in early in the afternoon, to be ready.

Under the efficient leadership of Mr. J. C. Wooten, Jr., chief marshal, the people were gathered at 7:30 around the Caswell monument. A circle of torch bearers encircled the enthusiastic assembly. The steam whistles from the mills on the river, the booming of cannon, the cheers of the crowd were enlivening in the extreme. To these was added inspiring music from the Level City Brass Band, which occupied a handsome carriage, decorated with large transparencies having appropriate mottoes.

On a stand, erected against the north side of the monument, were seated the orator of the occasion, Hon. F. A. Woodard, Congressman elect, Mr. Ed. Brooks, recently elected to the Legislature, and other citizens. Mr. J. W. Grainger, in a short, ringing speech, introduced the speaker. Mr. Woodard entertained the great throng for about twenty-five minutes in his best style. At the conclusion of this part of the programme, rockets rushed into the sky, the band played a stirring tune, and the procession passed on to the court house, preceded by the torch-bearers.

From the steps of the court house, Mr. N. J. Rouse, our Cleveland elector, addressed the audience. He always speaks in that pure English style that falls so pleasantly upon the ear. Mr. H. E. Shaw followed with brief remarks. The line of march was then up King street to the College. This street was brilliantly illuminated—nearly every house having its windows ablaze and Chinese lanterns swinging from the porches. One house had a portrait of President Cleveland suspended in the entrance, illuminated by lanterns.

From the portico of the College, Mr. O. H. Allen and Mr. Jno. F. Wooten made lively speeches. And, again, the rockets went lissing skyward. The multitude then marched down Caswell street to Mr. J. Loflin, where he gave a short address. Music again—torches ahead in a long, glittering line, marching now to Mr. J. W. Grainger's residence on Peyton street. There that old favorite, Mr. Swift Gallo, made a rousing speech. Mr. J. Q. Jackson followed with solid words of wisdom and comfort. At times he reached heights of true eloquence and enthused the crowd.

Again on the march—up Queen street to court house; and here they dignified. At every crossing of streets were blazing barrels of turpentine, throwing a soft glow of bright light on all surrounding objects.

The affair was a complete success. We have heard of nothing that happened to mar the enjoyment of the occasion. Let us be happy now, for four years at least.

ARACHIEL.

State Treasurer Bain.

Donald W. Bain was born in Raleigh in April 1848 and had been in continuous public service longer than any other man in the State.

In 1857 he entered the office of the State Comptroller and remained until 1865, when he became chief clerk of the State Treasurer, serving continuously until 1884, when he was elected State Treasurer.

He succeeded his father in 1867 as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons and held that position until his death.

For years he had been secretary of the Methodist State Conference and was one of the leading Southern Methodists.

He was for several terms Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of the State. He was also an Odd Fellow.

Never was there a more faithful public servant or one who more thoroughly commanded the regard of the public.

He had been, only seven days before his death, re-elected for a third term as State Treasurer.

The bell of the city hall, which, before dawn last Monday, tolled at the death of Chief Justice Merrimon, at sunset today rang out the signal of Treasurer Bain's death. It was the sixth time during the present administration. In November, 1889, Chief Justice Smith died, in April 1891, Secretary of State Saunders and in Governor Fowle, in August of this year, Associate Justice Davis, and now this week Chief Justice Merrimon and Treasurer Bain. Never was such mortality known during one administration.

The remains will lie in state and the funeral will be held from the same church from which that of the late Chief Justice was held yesterday.

The funeral of Treasurer Bain was held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

New Berne Theatre, Saturday Nov. 26.

Do not fail to see the duple bander courting under difficulties in "A Quick Match," as presented by The Noss Jollities.

Any one about to paint the town should take a lesson or two from Jacob Liver-wurst, who paints nightly in The Noss Jollities musical comedy, "A Quick Match."

The spontaneous laughter and sparks of humor kindles and ignites a blaze of fun, and flashes of merriment, ending in wreaths of smoke when lighted by "The Noss Jollities" musical comedy, "A Quick Match."

A Tremendous Cargo.

Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son cleared yesterday for Liverpool, the British steamer Headlands, Capt. Holman, with a cargo of 9,710 bales of cotton, weighing 4,623,900 pounds and valued at $429,700. This is the largest cargo of cotton ever cleared from Wilmington. The Headlands is a big ship, registering 1,933 tons net, and carries over five bales to the ton. She received her cargo at the Champion Compress wharves, Wil. Star.

Mt. Calvary Temple.

No service there on Sunday. Some work on it, white-washing, putting in floor, etc., to make it more comfortable for winter, could not be finished this week. So the 9 o'clock Sunday School, and 4:15 meeting will be held in Hancock street church commencing at 4:15. Every body invited to attend.

Notice Naval Reserve.

The regular business meeting of the Naval Reserve organization will be held at the Cotton Exchange, on Monday, Nov. 21st. The roll will be called at 8 p. m. sharp. The attention of officers and men is called to the provisions of the by-laws relating to attendance at regular meetings.

BIG DEFICIENCIES.

The Bad Fix in Which Republicans Left the Country.

The Difficulties Democrats Will Have to Meet.

The Republicans have left the country in a bad fix, and the Democrats have to bear the burden. A condition, not a theory, confronts them. The Washington Star explains that there is an immediate prospect that the revenues of the government will not be enough to meet the expenditures. They have got to set to work at once to increase the revenues or else make a heavy reduction in the expenditures. The river and harbor contracts and the pension appropriations are two big items of the count, and they cannot get rid of either. The pension expenditures have increased about sixteen millions for the quarter of this year over the first quarter of last year, and there is liable to be a deficiency of thirty-six millions to be provided for at the coming session. The pension expenditure for the next year, which must be appropriated for at this session will probably amount to nearly two hundred million dollars. If it is not appropriated for there will be another deficiency at the beginning of the new Congress.

It is acknowledged at the Treasury Department now that the weight of heavy appropriations is being felt, and that if there is no increase of the revenues the accumulation of deficiencies and the maturing of obligations will make it worse next year.

Notice to Taxpayers!

Under the acts of the last General Assembly I am compelled to account for the collection of taxes by the second Monday in January next, under a severe penalty for failure to do so. I therefore notify all taxpayers that I must strictly enforce the prompt payment of their taxes.

The law allows me no extension of time, and I earnestly request one and all to save me the embarrassment of collecting by distress, by making immediate settlement.

Come to my office and settle at once. W. B. LANE, Sheriff Craven County.
