LOCAL NEWS.

THE appearance of a body of distinguished railway officials before the inter-State Commerce committee or the House at Washington to advocate the repeal of the retraction of the inter-State commerce act which prohibits pooling marks but the beginning of a great agitation for the modification of this law as the result of a few years' experience in its application. The law was doubtless honestly intended to remove the evils of discrimination in freight and passenger rates and prevent the railways of the country from becoming the sole arbiters as to who should succeed and who fail in business as well as which towns should grow and prosper and which be remanded to a condition of decay.—Pho Times.

The Fayetteville Gazette says on information from its country friends that a much larger amount of pork will be made in Cumberland this year than last, with a corresponding increase of corn, peas, potatoes, etc., for family consumption. This is as it should be. May the good example spread.

We learn that Mr. S. J. Lane and Mr. J. B. Quick were joking at Stone wall Friday night, and becoming angry the former struck the latter several blows with a club. Mr. Quick is right badly bruised and is cut about the head, but we are informed that yesterday morning he was improving.

Saturday two colored men became engaged in a difficulty about one on a half miles this side of Maysville, one struck and killed the other with an ax. He is now in jail at Trenton. Frank Davis is the murderer. His victim was Frank Williams. It appears that Williams was found dead on the road after he was struck by Davis.

It gives us great pleasure to see that the oyster cannery of Messrs. Greenbaum Bros. will soon be in operation again. Mr. T. H. Coakley, so well known to our people, is now with these gentlemen in the capacity of superintendent. He and Mr. Greenbaum are now in the city attending to some needed work preparatory to re-opening.

Hon. W. T. Caho, counsel for Geo. Best, col. received a letter last night from Mr. S. F. Telfair, private secretary to the Governor, stating that on yesterday the Governor granted the application for the commutation of Best's sentence to imprisonment for life. Best is the man who was sentenced to be hung on Friday of next week for the murder of his wife by poison at Dover.

Rev. T. H. Law, District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for North and South Carolina, preached a good sermon based on the parable of the sower in the Presbyterian church Sunday night. It bore directly on the need for the great work that the Bible Society is performing in supplying the world with the Bible at cost, and giving it away to those not able to purchase. After the sermon a collection for the benefit of the society was taken and the old officers were unanimously re-elected throughout for the issuing year.

The North Carolina Almanac for 1893, the twelfth number of the work is before us. It is edited by Rev. Needham B. Cobb, Z. D., of Raleigh. So much information relative to the denomination it represents does it contain that ought to be readily accessible to every member that it seems to us not one of them ought to be willing to do without it. It contains a full list and address of every ordained Baptist minister in the State classified into groups that compose each of the 41 Baptist Associations into which the churches of the State are divided. It also gives a list of the Foreign missionaries in every country in which the Southern Baptist convention is working, biographical sketches of twenty prominent Baptists of the State who died during the year, chief among which was Col. L. L. Polk, a history of the present faculty and equipment of Wake Forest college, with engravings of the buildings, and other similar matter, besides that of a general character relating to the State and National Government, etc. It is a good thing for any denomination to have such facts so readily obtainable by its membership and others interested.

The Methodist Sunday-school of Harlowes expect to have a big time next Saturday night—a contest suitable for Christmas eve and a Christmas tree.

Coming and Going.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Willis, Mrs. R. A. Willis, Mrs. C. F. Willis and Mrs. Alphin, who have been attending Conference, returned to the city last night. Rev. N. M. Jurney and family and Miss Sarah Davis passed through en route to Beaufort.

Mr. T. G. Sparrow of Idalia and Mr. A. J. Aman of Onslow, two of the JOURNAL's substantial subscribers, are in the city this week.

Little Miss Octae Hughes left for Raleigh, accompanied by Mr. Shepard Bryan, to attend the marriage of her aunt, Miss Octavia Winder, to Mr. J. Ludlow Skinner. Both the parties are of Raleigh.

Presbyterian Bazaar Tonight.

The time for the Presbyterian ladies to hold their annual bazaar has arrived. It will open this evening at five o'clock in the Old Fellows' hall, over J. M. Howard's store. The ladies have been diligent at work preparing for it for several weeks, and the large and varied assortment of fancy work of every description—hand-painted china and novelties of all kinds—that have been produced in that time by their busy and skillful fingers, will make a splendid array from which to select Christmas presents. The handsome display that has always been made at these bazaars is the best guarantee of the excellence of the one that will be made tonight. It will be a pleasure simply to see the many beautiful home-made articles.

Supper and delicious refreshments will also be served from five to ten o'clock.

Assignments and Creditors.

Last Friday night Mayer Hahn, assignee of Wm. Sultan, sold the stock to H. Sperling for a little over $8,000, and deposited the money in the Citizens' Bank. Saturday, creditors got out an injunction against Wm. Sultan, Mayer Hahn and H. Sperling against any disposal of either the property or the money, and moved for a receiver, the motion to be heard January 5th, 1893.

Monday, Mr. Sperling moved to modify the injunction. This was done so as to allow him to dispose of the stock upon giving bond in the sum of $8,000, which bond he gave. The same order enjoins Mr. Hahn and the bank from paying out any part of the $8,000, the proceeds of the sale mentioned.

In the matter of the assignment of E. Cohen, E. Danenburg, the assignee, filed a bond of $8,000 and retook the stock. The injunction against selling, however, is not dissolved. The goods must be kept and matters remain in statu quo until the appeal of the creditors is heard in Superior Court in February.

Children's Service.

The special service held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning for children, was a very interesting one. The sermon to them by the pastor, Rev. C. G. Vardell, was full of practical instruction, adapted to their comprehension and accompanied by simple, but apt and effective illustrations, and the proficiency showed by the scholars in a review of the year's studies was most remarkable. Among the exercises, was the perfect recitation by the children in succession, and keeping good time, of the Golden Texts of the International lessons for the first two and last quarters of the year (the third one being skipped for lack of time) and also a recitation of a portion of the shorter catechism, the children giving both questions and answers promptly "by heart" in the order in which they came, one half the school asking a question the other half answering, and then asking the question that follows for the other side to answer.

Another exercises was the answering by the children of questions asked by the pastor in relation to the Bible, as to the number of books it contains, their classification as historical, prophetic, etc., who the writers were how many and what books each wrote etc. The children replied readily and accurately to these questions, many of which would have stumped their elders. It showed to the congregation what thorough work is being done in the Sunday School in training the children in solid religious truths. This sound training in early years cannot fail in having its effect in their future lives.

The Work Now Being Done by the Penitentiary Convicts.

The number of convicts in the State is now 1,122. These are located as follows: At the penitentiary, 116; on Northampton farm, 241; Halifax farm, 115; Caledonia farm, 239; Castle Hayne farm, 58; Great Falls canal (near Weldon), 71; working on dykes at the Farms on the Roanoke, 288. The system of dykes will be very extensive and thorough. Of course the labor now being expended upon it will not yield an immediate return, but is an investment, since the value of the lands will be greatly increased, as it is a permanent improvement.—Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messenger.

Lost.

AT CONFERENCE.

Report on Sunday School Work.

To the Bishop and Members of North Carolina Conference Methodist Episcopal Church South:

DEAR BROTHERS: I am glad to report our Sunday School Department in a prosperous condition. The increase in schools, teachers, and scholars during the past year is greater than in any previous year of our history as a church. 403 new schools were organized; with an increase of 2,781 teachers and 34,158 scholars, making a total increase of 36,939. We now have in all, teachers and scholars, 841,305.

The aggregate circulation of our Sunday school periodicals per month is 956,295 copies more than our Sunday school population. The whole number of copies issued during the year was 11,479,200. The number of lessons furnished was 45,916,800. The income from our periodical literature during the last year was a little over $112,000.

The Epworth Leagues have not increased so rapidly as was anticipated. Up to the present date only 613 leagues, with a membership of about 20,000 have been officially reported to the central office. More have doubtless been organized than have been reported, but how many we have no means of knowing. Some leagues report much interest and activity in their several departments of work. Others are not so active, especially in the department of literary work.

We have the means of knowing that the "Course of Reading" prescribed by the General Sunday School Committee is too generally neglected. Will the pastors look to this matter?

Children's day is not as generally observed as it ought to be. Many of our congregations neglect it altogether, and others make it an occasion for Sunday school entertainment. The Treasurer of the Sunday School Aid Fund reports $27,420 received the past year, and $1,103,27 expended in aid of newly Sunday schools, balance on hand August 1, 1892, $1,520.32. The Sunday School Boards of many of our Conferences are doing a noble missionary work with the money collected on Children's Day. There is a wide and promising field of usefulness open to our Sunday school people in this department of Christian work.

The religious condition of our Sunday schools is generally good. Many of the children and young people in our Sunday schools have been converted and joined the Church during the past year.

Yours fraternally,

W. G. E. CONYNGHAM,
Sunday School Editor,
Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 1892.

Claudia Bernice Vause

departed this life Nov. 22, 1892, aged 8 years, 11 months and 18 days. She was the oldest child of Jesse and Cattie Vause.

Bernice was a sweet child and very bright for one of her age. She was a member of the Lord's day school at Armenia, Jones county, and was regular at her post of duty with her lessons well prepared.

She loved her Saviour and loved to obey Him. Her separation from her dejected father and mother is a heavy load, and looking at it from a human standpoint it is hard to understand, but from a heavenly standpoint it is a grand victory for the child. Jesus says of such is the kingdom of heaven.

He has taken this lovely flower from His earthly garden to His heavenly garden and made far more happy.

Thank God for the resurrection through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

I would say to the bereaved parents, remember that the Lord is too good to do wrong, and too wise to make a mistake. He doeth all things well.

Now that He has one of our dear ones with Him, let it help you to draw nearer to Him and He will sustain you.

C. W. HOWARD.

Stimulate the Blood.

BRANDRETT'S PILLS are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative, diuretic and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remedy.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

A HANDSOME DISPLAY.

"Experience joined with common sense To mortal is a providence."
—Green.

Now, when you go to make your presents for Christmas, use good common sense about it, and give something useful. Do not give trash, but buy Collars and Cuffs, Neckwear, Underwear, Headwear, Footwear, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Half-hose, Shirts, Mufflers, Slippers, and Hugs. We have received new lines of these goods and if you need any of them, try us, first, last and all the time.

Latest Returns.

While the returns show an overwhelming majority for the Democratic ticket, which ticket has secured the Republican majority and cut their electoral vote to the size of a hair, the only ticket which ought now to be used in company with the new Democratic victory is the one which entitles the holder to ten shares and one out of the four for 1.00 at the Gas-ton House Barber Shop.
